AT WANAMAKER'S
READY FOR BUSINESS

Our doors open at eight o'clock this morning. A cordial invitation is extended to visit the store.

It should be remembered that our organization is entirely new. We purchased the store property and took over from its late occupants all the merchandise, store fixtures, horses and wagons. But the system, including all matters of accounts, is a new construction without continuity from the past. Therefore new relations must be established for future business.

THE MERCHANDISE CONTAINS THE APPEAL

to the shopping population of New York and the vicinage. We think you will be pleased with the store display to-day. But every decorative feature is supplied exclusively by merchandise.

The attractions include:

PARIS COSTUMES AND WRAPS
RICH PIECES OF TRIMMED MILLINERY
VERY BEAUTIFUL PASSEMENTERIE
EXQUISITE SMALL PIECES OF HOUSE DECORATIONS IN PAINTED AND EMBROIDERED SILK EVENING DRESS SILKS
PARIS NOVELTIES IN DRESS GOODS

"LE SACHET" WOMEN'S GLOVES A strict novelty. The quality is superb. They come from one of the best Glovers in France. Entire range of colors for dress or street wear.

The novelty consists in a delicate little sachet pocket so adjusted in each Glove that the wearer is unconscious of its presence. Exclusive to our business in New York and Philadelphia. American tourists have been bringing them from Paris by scores of dozens. Protected by patent.

The prices are same as usual for best Gloves.

North of Rotunda.

WOMEN'S PIQUE KID GLOVES A bargain. Only 2,400 pairs, real kid, four button, in every desirable street and evening shade. The straight value is $1.50. The price is $1. Never yet matched in New York—so we believe.

North of Rotunda.

RIBBONS Our Ribbon store will be a place of joy to New York women. Completeness is impressed upon the stock. An added charm of great cheapness on certain lots marks our introduction.

Taffeta Ribbons:
Good. White, pink, blue, cardinal, with assorted greens and new purples.
3¾ inches, 10c
4¾ inches, 15c
It is said—half prices.
Glace Moire Ribbons:
All the new colorings, 3¾ inches, 15c.
Glace Taffeta Ribbons:
Good. Various new combinations, including blue greens, 3½ inches, 20c.
Fine. Black satin edges, 4¾ and 5¾ inches, 25c.
Fancy Ribbons:
500 pieces Jacquard figures in self colors, beautiful shades and splendid qualities, 25c. Should be more than double.

Tenth Street, near Broadway.

FURNITURE We have planned for a great Furniture business. The vast fourth floor is given over to the sale of Furniture exclusively. The stock is commanding.

A few words will state the case: Our facilities for assembling Furniture are matchless, and the best cabinet makers of the land are represented in our collection. We buy at the least prices, and as we buy so we sell. We make good bargains for you and bring for your enjoyment the Furniture products of best designers.

Fourth Floor.

SHIRTS COLLARS CUFFS Probably the greatest single purchase of Collars, Cuffs and Shirts ever made was consummated a few days since between our firm and Richard Horstman of Berlin, Germany. It included the entire stock of the famous "Kaiser" brand—13,000 dozens of Collars alone.

The constant retail prices for these goods have been
For Collars, 25c.
For Cuffs, 40c.
For Shirts, $1.75.
The Wanamaker prices are
For Collars, 12½c.
For Cuffs, 25c.
For Shirts, $1.

All new, latest styles.

Broadway and Ninth Street, first floor.

SHIRTS TO ORDER Many New York men have found comfort in Shirts made to order in this store. The past reputation is to be more than sustained in our business. Our Shirt makers are expert, and our Shirt cutter a success with a fine New York reputation.

We doubt if our collection of fancy Shirtings has ever been equalled.

Broadway and Ninth Street, first floor.

HANDKERCHIEFS Only pure linen or silk—all cotton or union Handkerchiefs are excluded. The stock is complete in every grade. Here is a little trophy of cheapness:

700 doz. women's handkerchiefs, pure linen, initials, choice of two styles, full laundered, good quality, 10c each.

Broadway, north of centre entrance.

HEAVY BED CLOTHING Wanamaker special Blankets, weight 7 pounds and measures 76 x84 in. All fine, heavy, scoured wool filling on fine spun cotton warp, beautifully finished, $5 a pair.

Quilts of fine sateen filled with clean odorless down, and warranted not to shed, $3.50 each.

Fourth Avenue and Ninth Street.

Only pure flax fabrics are in our Linen store. Admission to our stock is a sure guarantee of Linen character.

We have choice, rich and rare Table Linens. We also have bargains in Table Linens, as 64 in. Irish bleached Damask, good, 50c a yard.
68 in. Scotch bleached Damask, very stout, 75c a yard.
Big, fine quality hemstitched Towels, neat damask borders, 25c each.

Fourth Avenue and Ninth Street.

It is nearly three months since the doors of this store were closed. Quite naturally some persons have lost the habit of coming this way.

To all such we wish to call attention to the ease with which this store can be reached.

From Brooklyn, by the Third Avenue Elevated Railroad.

From the Grand Central Station, by the Third Avenue Elevated Railroad and the Madison and Fourth Avenues surface cars.

From every portion of central and upper New York city, by the Cable Cars in Broadway, Columbus Avenue and Lexington Avenue.

From the Christopher street ferry, by the Eighth Street surface railroad.

There are other equally convenient means of public conveyance to this store, and never before has this centre of retail business been so easily reached from so many different directions.

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

SOME HOLIDAY REFLECTIONS.

Because cheval glasses are a necessity to those who would be well dressed we secure the finest French plate glass and give it such a charming setting of wood as makes it dainty enough for the daintiest room; choice enough for the choicest of holiday gifts.

Rich specimens in mahogany have the frames richly carved or decorated with inlay. Birdseye maple and birch pieces are delicately carved. Even those in simple frames at $21.00 are charming—so carefully are they made when you
