Pointers on a Timely Topic.

Forgetting about the long spell of bad weather already, aren't you? Now it's getting warm, and pretty soon we'll have the mercury climbing up toward the ninety mark. Before the conditions get too enervating and "that tired feeling" takes possession it might be well to look around and plan regarding the where, when and how to spend the Summer Vacation. This is sometimes a tiresome and bewildering task. To make it easy and simple for you, THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE has prepared a SUMMER RESORT SUPPLEMENT, which will be issued with to-morrow's paper. In this may be found all the facts and information necessary to guide any reasonable person, no matter what his or her taste or financial limitations.
