penheimer; secretary, Edward A. Drake. The report of Gen. MISTRANSLATED DOCUMENTS.

Bunglesome Work of Republican Officials at Washington.

LONDON, April 3.—Newspapers generally comment upon the introduction before the court of arbitration of the Bering sea dispute, of the British counter case exposing the use of mistranslations of Russian documents in the case presented by the United States. The London Standard says sometimes the translator seems to have blundered out of sheer carelessness, and in other places to have been mistaken, while some errors of omission and commission show deliberate falsifications in favor of the contentions of the United States. As the agent of the United States had put in amended versions of the mistranslated documents, most people, the Standard continues, would suppose no more need be said, but it is surprising to find, after tacitly admitting some documents to be no more reliable than the Mormon scriptures, the United States government has refrained from modifying or withdrawing the arguments based on the garbled translations.

The British contention, the Standard adds, is that when the spurious passages are expunged there does not remain an atom of evidence supporting the chief contention of the American legation. In closing the Standard remarks that it would perhaps be futile to ask whether any responsible politician at Washington really thought that the device could beguile the representatives of Great Britain.

The St. James Gazette says it does not suspect the United States government of conniving in the concocted passages, and says the American people will repudiate a trick so dirty and so silly. Yet, adds the Gazette, the arguments founded on the forgeries are unconcelled.

SNUBBED OUR ADMIRAL.

Presumptuous Conduct of the Captain General of Cuba.

HAVANA, April 3.—The sudden departure of the United States ships Newark and Bennington is owing, it is said, to a snub administered by the captain general to the rear admiral. A local journal contains a long account of the affair, reciting the manner in which the preparations made by the rear admiral for the reception of the captain general and staff were ignored, as well as the custom of sending an officer to conduct men-of-war appearing at the entrance of the harbor to safe anchorage. The Newark and Bennington appeared off the coast in company with the Nina and Pinta, modern models of the ancient caravels, which they had escorted across the ocean, and slowed down to await the coming of port officials to advise the admiral where to place his ship. No officer presented himself, however. After waiting some time the ships anchored in that part of the harbor usually reserved for such vessels. Salutes were exchanged with Fort Cabanas and the ships of the Spanish fleet.

Subsequently the admiral went ashore, and called on the captain general. It was understood that the captain general and staff would return the visit at five o'clock in the afternoon. Elaborate preparations were made for their reception on board the Newark. The time passed, and no signs of visitors. Finally, at six p. m., a messenger came out to the Newark to say the captain general would pay a visit some other day. The understanding here is that the American admiral communicated at once with the secretary of the navy at Washington and received orders by cable to proceed at once with his vessels to Norfolk.

New Dramatic Stars.

MONTREAL, April 3.—About 3,000 people assembled at Sohmer park to-night to see James J. Corbett, champion pugilist, in "Gentleman Jack." A new feature in the performance was the first appearance of Mrs. Corbett, the champion's wife. Mrs. Corbett took the part of "Polly Graham," the college widow, and Mrs. Wm. A. Brady, Corbett's manager's wife, appeared as "Alice Saunders," Jack's betrothed.

LIVELY MELEE.

Precipitated by a Dispute Between Farmers and a Railway.

WEST UNION, Iowa, April 3.—A terrific battle took place at Jackson Junction, twenty miles from here, this afternoon, between the employes of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, and mechanics and farmers. Miles McGovern and Peter Meyers determined to build a warehouse, in spite of orders from the railway company to the contrary. This noon the company sent seventy-five men to lay rails on the building site to prevent the building. McGovern and Meyers and a band of farmers resisted and a bloody battle took place, resulting in seven or eight men being terribly injured, one of whom will die. The men became wild and fought like demons with crowbars, hammers, rocks and clubs. The company did not want to make a shipping point at Junction. The railway is now in possession of the field.

STOCKS.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Bar silver, 83.
Copper—Weak; lake, $11.50.
Lead—Steady; domestic, $4.05.

The week opened with a bullish feeling in the ascendant at the stock exchange, especially in the case of industrial stocks and New England. Although certain developments were favorable to bears, the tend of prices was upward and sharp net gains were recorded. At the start Manhattan furnished a sensation by a drop of 10 points, to 150, on the announcement made at the meeting of the rapid transit committee on Saturday that certain capitalists had volunteered to furnish a large sum of money in furtherance of the underground transit scheme. The break in Manhattan had practically no effect on the general list, however. The market steadily improved as a whole during the day and closed strong.

After the Grip

Hood's Sarsaparilla Restored Health and Strength

"Last winter I had the Grip and was quite sick. After I began to get better, being weak and run down, I concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, seeing it recommended so highly. I must say that I was more than pleased with it. I recovered my health completely in a short time and think

I Am in Better Health than before I was sick. I feel sure that this is due to Hood's Sarsaparilla. In the package of Sarsaparilla when I opened it I found a sample box of Hood's Pills. I was surprised and delighted to find how well they agreed with me, no griping and no weakening afterward. I have tried many other kinds of pills, but the preference every time now. I think they are just wonderful. I am glad to recommend two such good preparations as Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills." MRS. ISAIAH EMERSON, East Manchester, N. H.

There's danger in a cough—more than ever when your blood is "bad." It makes things easy for Consumption. But there's a cure for it in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. A positive cure—not only for Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Asthma and all lingering Coughs, but for Consumption itself in all its earlier stages. It's reasonable. All these diseases depend on tainted blood. Consumption is simply Lung-scrofula. And for every form of scrofula and blood-taint, the "Discovery" is a certain remedy. It's so certain, that its makers guarantee it to benefit or cure, in every case, or the money is refunded. With a medicine that is certain, this can be done.

There's a cure for Catarrh, too, no matter what you've been led to believe. If there isn't, in your case, you'll get $500 cash. It's a bona fide offer that's made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

They are willing to take the risk—you ought to be glad to take the medicine.
