HOTEL BELLECLAIRE NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St. Surface Cars at Door. Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

This "B" has come to mean something. Like any other good trade mark—STANDING FOR SOMETHING GOOD AND THAT MAKES GOOD—it has come to be known favorably.

Wherever it appears, it is instantly identified with the Hotel BELLECLAIRE, which is known to make good—with fine, large rooms, comfortably furnished and kept clean as wax—with a constantly sustained service of the highest order—with a food supply, which is the best obtainable and which is always well prepared—with a fixed policy as to who shall or shall not be entertained as guests, which is important in sustaining the character of the hotel—with maintenance of environment which gives the Hotel its chief charm; its refined, homelike atmosphere—with consistent courtesy to guests from all the workers—from the manager and all others—a perfect working organization trained to the belief that courtesy is a great asset—a means to make and hold friends.
