DAILY CRESCENT.

LIFE IN ARKANSAS.—They have a straightforward way of doing business in Arkansas that is perfectly refreshing. A minister out there, a few weeks ago, undertook to come down on war matters. The next day one of the "deacons" dropped him a line saying, that "people in his diggins went to church to hear the devil abused, and not their country, and if he persisted in violating their taste any further, all he had to say was that geese still grew feathers, and North Carolina still exported tar." We are awaiting anxiously for the denouement.

☞ It is very foolish for young ladies to hate each other on account of a gentleman who don't care a fig for either of them.

☞ Why is a good wife like Satan? Because while the husbandman sleeps she sows tares.

☞ The Boston Investigator says that Satan was never a beast of the field, and therefore it could n't have been he who tempted Eve in the guise of the serpent.

☞ A careless compositor lately dissolved the Union by transposing two letters, whereby the United States became Untied States.

☞ We would respectfully request the officers of the different benevolent societies — Temperance, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Masonic, etc.— to furnish us with the changes that may take place in their organizations; so as to enable us to preserve a correct record of their officers.
