MEDICAL.

WATTS' NERVOUS ANTIDOTE.—THE WONDERFUL power of this extraordinary cordial has induced the discoverer to invite indiscriminately these persons who are in any way affected with diseases arising from affected nerves, to call and test its marvel ous control over the nervous system, without fee. It seems such a pity persons should remain nervous, diseased, or afflicted, when such a valuable remedy is known. T. WATTS, M. D., 100 Greenwich street. Depot at 102 Nassau street. $1 a bottle, $9 doz.

PARIS AND LONDON TREATMENT OF PRIVATE diseases, in a few hours, by a vegetable application, without pain. It definitely brought on by improper habits and constitutional affections, is combined with the local remedy, and can show any one there are thousands who cannot be cured without it, as I have cases daily, of years' standing, from the other physicians. In all, I guarantee a permanent cure. I have contractions daily I cure without caustic, which others use, caused by their not expelling the disease soon enough. My diploma, with those, and the hundreds of certificates, show that none can equal it. You cured me in one day.—D. M. Corbyn. You expelled my complaint in a few hours.—C. Derond. I was under the other physicians over a year, without benefit; my body was covered; you cured me in a short time.—John Rollison, jr. I paid over $200 in vain, to be cured of debility from self abuse, without benefit; you cured me, by local and general treatment, in a short time.—Jas. Salisbury. Treatment by letter. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 2 P. M., and from 7 to 9 P. M. DR. LARMONT, 42 Reade street, two doors from Broadway.

Young men, who have been unfortunate in contracting disease previous to placing yourselves under the care of any doctor, no matter what his pretensions may be, get a copy of this truly useful work. Strangers visiting the city, particularly those contemplating marriage, don't think of returning home without a copy of the Pocket Æculapius. Sent free to any address on receipt of 25 cents. Young's Lecture Treatise on Marriage, the Pocket Æculapius, or Every One His Own Physician. Any person sending twenty-five cents enclosed in a letter, will receive one copy of this book by mail or five copies will be sent for one dollar. Address Dr. W. M. YOUNG, 152 Spruce street, Philadelphia; also for sale by Stringer & Townsend, 222 Broadway, New York.

It is a large quarto—360 pages; second edition, price $10. DR. CONVERS' MEDICAL CARD TO YOUNG MEN.—Are you suffering from the sad effects of improper secret habits of youth? are your head, back, limbs, and nerves affected? are your mental and social feelings impaired? have you weakness so vexing and ruinous as to incapacitate you for business, society or matrimony? Procure Dr. Convers' Invigorating Cordial, the only remedy yet discovered. It has restored scores who had given up all hope of relief. Do not be deceived by worthless prescriptions, or sarsaparilla, pills, or other nostrums; they are of no use in your case; mark this. The cordial contains no mercury, opium, or other deleterious drugs, to injure or expose—no hindrance from business. $2 a bottle 3 bottles for $5, with directions and important advice to the married and single. CARD.—DR. DE LANEY, AUTHOR OF THE PRIVATE Medical Guide, &c., can be consulted on all diseases of a delicate nature, all cases of the skin, manhood's debilities, impediments to marriage, and diseases of females. Unwilling to publish boasting self-recommendations, he offers to those who have no proof of his professional ability before, every guaranty in a perfect, safe, and speedy cure, that may be desired. Office 84 Liberty street, near Broadway.
