Undress Summer Hats at Genin's.—The manner of new styles and fabrics with which Genin opens the summer season of 1855 is unprecedented. Among the prominent warm weather chapeaux are more than twenty varieties of felt hats, soft and hard. Then there are Panamas of all shapes, qualities and sizes; Leghorns at all prices; Swiss Straws, light and beautiful; East India and Canton Straws, cool and becoming; and Paris Straws that ventilate the head and grace it at the same time. There is no taste, however fastidious, that may not be suited from the large and varied assortment of summer hats at GENIN'S, 214 Broadway, opposite St. Paul's church.

The Coming Month.—June, Summer Hats and Knox are as naturally connected as pic-nics and pretty girls. And it stands to reason that it should be so, for Knox's fabrics are the most comfortable and graceful of any that ever adorned the head of cit or rustic. Try one or two in town or country and report. KNOX'S stores are at No. 128 Fulton street, and at No 533 Broadway.

Espencheid's Summer Style.—The match. less model of this superb hat, together with the richness of the material, the exquisite finish and the air of high fashion by which it is distinguished, renders it very popular with gentlemen of refined taste. The store is 118 Nassau street.

A Rat! A Rat! Dead for a Quarter!—Mr. Charles Parsons—Dear Sir—It gives us great pleasure to testify to the great merits of your "Rat and Roach Exterminator." For years had we battled with these filthy pests, and note withstanding we had used every means within our power or knowledge, and kept persons constantly on guard against them, and although we had slayed thousands of the enemy, their reserved legions were sure to come in at the last hour and claim the victory. But by the aid of your valuable "Exterminator" we have routed the enemy—horse, foot and dragoons. We find no necessity for even our guard, as there are not enough of the enemy left to try experiments upon.
