The Public School Board will meet at the Courthouse to-day.

The days are getting longer at the rate of about 20 minutes a week.

See election proclamation and list of commissioners, in another column.

Our gardeners have been busy for the past few days replanting roasting ears.

Mr. Eugene E. Smith has recently completed a comfortable cottage at Chiltonne.

The contents of Kentzleman's bar room will be sold at public auction by Sheriff Cook to-day. See advertisement.

We learn that Dr. B. B. Warren and wife will soon leave for Hay's Landing, Miss., where the doctor will locate permanently.

Dr. Geo. Tebault, of Madisonville, will visit Covington every Monday and Thursday, and can be found at Victor Frederick's Drug Store.

LOST.—In Covington, Sunday, March 27th, a lady's dark grey cloque. The finder will please leave the same at this office and receive reward.

We went fishing one evening this week, and had canned salmon for supper. The fish in the river wouldn't bite, but we fetched them with our can opener.

Subscriptions promptly and accurately filled, all hours of the day, at this office. Now is the time to take them. We are constantly receiving new cases. Price $1 00.

Mr. J. M. Geisen has established a real estate agency in connection with his livery stable business, and persons desiring to buy or sell property should call and see him.

We acknowledge the receipt of a basket of fine lettuce, carrots, etc., from the garden of Mrs. Simon's Hotel, last Monday, which was a refreshing reminder of the good things the guest will find, in season, at that popular hotel.

Mrs. L. Bonderet, whose place is on the Chinchuba, favored us last Tuesday with a box of large and luscious strawberries, the finest in size and flavor we have seen this season. The gift was very acceptable and highly appreciated.

Mr. Victor Frederick opened his new drug store in Covington last week, opposite the postoffice. It is handsomely fitted up and presents a neat appearance. He has a well selected stock of fresh drugs and chemicals, fine toilet articles, confectionery, etc., and a full line of standard medicines. We wish him success in his new enterprise.

On Wednesday, March 30th, a wedding ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. Dunand. Miss Alice Dunand joined hands with Mr. Walter Isnard. The bride, a creole of the brunette type of beauty, looked lovely in an elegant white costume, with sprays of orange blossoms. After the nuptial bonds were performed, the guests were invited into an adjoining room, where the health of both parties was drank and toasted in the sparkling favors of champagne, which flowed copiously the whole evening. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour, and the time glided by with delight to all those who were present. We learn that the bride and groom took the train Thursday morning, to spend their honeymoon in New Orleans, where they will permanently reside. We join in wishing them a joyful and prosperous future.

"If you have ten dollars to spend," said Barnum, "spend one for the article and the other nine in advertising it." The old man knew a thing or two when it came to advertising. Barnum said to me some years ago: "I can out-talk anybody on earth but the printer. The man who can stick type and talk next morning to thousands of people while I'm talking to one is the only man I'm afraid of. I want him for my friend.—Printer's Ink.
