ISSUED EVERY SATURDAY

LOCAL ITEMS.

Vacant houses are getting scarce.

Our summer hotels are rapidly filling with guests.

Does it pay to raise six cent cotton to buy six bit corn?

We now have eight mails a week. One every day and two on Wednesday.

Blackberries are ripe, and the crop promises to be an unusally large one this year.

FOR SALE.—A fine, gentle milk cow, with heifer calf. Apply at this office.

The East Louisiana Railroad has made several changes in its time table. See advertisement.

Excursionists to Covington can take their choice between the railroad and two Lake steamers.

There will be a grand ball at Madisonville on Saturday night, the 21st inst. See advertisement.

It is time for candidates for Congress to publish their announcements. Don't all speak at once.

Little May Kentzel gave a birthday party to her many friends last Thursday evening. in Two Oak Grove.

We have had cold and rainy weather this week, and fires felt comfortable Tuesday and Wednesday mornings.

Mocking birds are rapidly diminishing in number, owing to the ravages of the English sparrow and American small boy.

LOST.—A light brown shawl. The finder will please return to Hardy H. Smith's store and receive reward.

Rev. P. A. Johnston, Presiding Elder. will preach in the Methodist Church on next Monday, at 7:30 P. M. The public are invited to attend.

Mandeville is on a boom. The track-layers of the branch railroad have reached there, and it will not be long before the first train arrives. There is a great deal of building going on and the carpenters are all busy.

All Knights of Honor are requested to attend the Lodge meeting next Monday night, to receive the Grand Officers, and assist in initiation of two candidates. The latter are both heavy-weights, and it will require the united strength of the Lodge to properly handle them.

A meeting of rice planters will be held at Madisonville to-morrow, to consider the question of erecting a rice mill. This is a move in the right direction, and we hope they will decide to build the mill without delay. The acreage in rice in this parish has increased wonderfully in the last three years, and it is fast becoming our leading industry.

ENTERTAINMENT.—A most enjoyable entertainment was given last night at the residence of Mrs. O. V. Richard, for the benefit of St. Peter's Church. The attendance was large, and the program throughout was rendered in a manner that elicited frequent applause. The vocal and instrumental music, recitations and tableaux all combined to form a most charming entertainment, such as has seldom been equalled, and great credit is due the manager, Mrs. O. V. Richard, and the young ladies and gentlemen who participated. The evening's amusement was happily closed with refreshments and dancing. The program was as follows:

1. Overture...Miss Rebecca Weaver.
2. Vocal solo, in character, Little Edith Richard.
3. Recitation, Miss Belle Poole.
4. Tableau, "Crowning of Flower Queen." Flower Queen, May Dowling; Crown Bearer, Lillian Smith; Crowner, Clara Smith; and about thirty other little children.
5. Instrumental solo, Miss Myra Richard.
6. Vocal solo, Beulah Talley.
7. Recitation, Mr. Harry Mortee.
8. Tableau, "The Stolen Kiss," Miss Edna Warren, Miss Rachel Laborde and Mr. B. Strobel.
9. Instrumental duet, Misses Annie Smith and E. Weaver.
10. Tableau, "Joan of Arc," Miss Lulie Keller.
11. Grand Chorus and Dance, "As You See Them," Misses Warren, Laborde, Barelli, Mortee, Evans, Smith, Richards, Pujol, Keller, Poole and others.

Neuralgic Persons

Suffering troubled with neuralgia resulting from a run-down state of the system will be relieved by taking Brown's Iron Bitters. Genuine have trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper.

A very young lady arrived at Long Branch Hotel last Thursday morning, and will become a permanent guest. She weighs 16 pounds. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Michaelis, and hope she will long be spared to prove a blessing and comfort to them.

Mr. J. Levy, of Mandeville, gives notice that he will protect himself against the "Home Protection," of Bayou Lacombe. See card under new advertisements.

Mrs. C. Wood, who has long conducted a private hotel at 26 South Rampart street, New Orleans, will take charge of Claiborne Cottages next Monday.

A number of cases of cholera morbus are reported in town and vicinity.

Bock beer
Is here.

Oak wood, stove sizes, is wanted at Claiborne Cottages. See advertisement.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers' Block Rochester, N. Y.

OAK WOOD, STOVE SIZES, wanted at Claiborne Cottages, by C. WOOD, Proprietor.

Paul E. Theard vs. J. Conway Boyle.

Civil District Court, Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana—No. 35,611.

By virtue of a writ of seizure and sale issued by the above court, bearing date May 2, 1892, and to me directed—

I will proceed to sell at public auction, at the door of the Courthouse, in the town of Covington, St. Tammany parish La., on SATURDAY, June 18, 1892, between legal sale hours, the following described property, to-wit:

A certain square of ground, situated in the town of Covington, Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, designated as Square No. 4, according to a plan of Geo. De Armas, surveyor, of the property known as the Avenues of Morgan, Commerce and Virtue, and drawn from a sketch of Paul E. Guzman, surveyor, which plan is deposited in the office of the Recorder of Conveyances and Mortgages in the town of Covington, La. Said square measures 300 feet on each of Theard Avenue, Gold and Topaz streets, and Jefferson Avenue, by which it is bounded, and is a part of the Avenues of Morgan, Commerce and Virtue. Purchased by J. O. Theard from Arthemese Verolin De Gray, by private act, dated January 5, 1887, and recorded in Book K, folio 220, of Conveyances and Mortgages, of said Parish of St. Tammany, La.

Seized in the above entitled suit.
Terms of sale—Cash.
