THISTLES.

—A question of privilege—Asking to go home with a girl.

—The new governess—Come and rest a little Bertie. Shall I tell you a pretty story? Y-e-yes? But-but-but not about the Little Hatchet please!

—A honeymoon car is now on the Pacific railway for the purpose of bridal parties. It has a comely as well as a honey-combly appearance; is full of sweets and is full of sells.

—A Main street gentleman saw his boys in front of the house throwing a ball in the air last evening. He had not played ball himself, and knew nothing of the kind of base ball clubs have introduced in the past few years, but he felt the old spirit rising in him at the memory of former triumphs, and he held up his hands and told his sons to let her slide. She slid. He caught it full and fair, and then dropped it, and started into the house with his eyes full of tears, and his hands pressed under his arms. The youth subsequently told another boy that he could plainly hear the old man's bones snap.

—Jones says the white flannel suit he bought a year ago has proved a very economical investment, and has been of much use in his family. Jones weighs two hundred and fifty pounds, and when he bought the suit it fitted him remarkably well. After the first washing his eldest son, who weighs one hundred pounds less than Jones senior, found the suit an excellent fit. Two washings more made the garment delightful for a youth of nine, and at the end of the season the baby was adorned with the habiliments which shrunk just enough to make them fit for a child out of creeping clothes. This year Jones' wife uses them as a dishcloth. Where all the flannel has shrunk to Jones doesn't see, and says he would willingly take his whole family and his mother-in-law to a lecture which would explain it, and pay double price.

—The Louisville Journal is responsible for this; When Barnum's Cannibal offered one of the spectators at the show last night ten dollars if he would give him his little boy on half shell for breakfast this morning, My little boy is not for sale, replied the fond parent; but I have got a stall-fed mother-in-law you can have for half that money.

—An absent minded smoker named Yancy, undertook to whisper something of importance in the ear of old Mr. Raynold's Saturday, but in his absent-mindedness neglected to remove his segar, the fire end of which was driven right into the old gentleman's ear. Mr. Raynolds jumped straight up in the air about six feet, and on coming down split Yancy's nose by a well directed blow. Yancy picked himself up, and started for home, declaring in a rage that he'd be hanged before he'd tell old Raynolds what he was going to —When Jones's board bill was presented, he said he did not have enough money to pay it, opening his wallet at the same time. His landlady, seeing quite a number of bank notes, rather doubted his word, and inquired what denomination those bills were. Denomination? said Jones. Well, I don't know; but I guess they must be of the Unitarian denomination, for they are all ones.

—As a fashionable young lady, fresh from boarding school, came to her honest father's breakfast table, instead of speaking English and saying Good morning, she spoke French, and said, Bonjour. Of course the bone is yours, if you say so, responded the practical old gentleman, as he handed her the ossified portion of the beefsteak.

—A Sioux City lady went into a gallery for her picture. After putting her in position, the artist put the plate in the camera, and told her to look at a certain spot on the wall. She wasn't certain of seeing it well from where she sat, and so got up and went over to it, but failed to discover anything curious about it.

—A Saco woman, while putting down a carpet a few days ago, accidently spilled a paper of tacks in a chair, and, before she had time to remove them, she was called away to attend to a lady visitor, who dropped in to tell her about a bonnet she had seen over in Biddeford; and, in the excitement of listening to the description of the bonnet, she forgot all about the tacks. When her husband came home at night he sat down in that chair to take off his boots, and then he got up again, without wasting any time, and made a speech; and his wife is ready to take her oath that he can quote more Scripture in a short space of time than any other man now living.

—Good morning, Mr. Smith. On the sick-list to-day?

Yes, sir; got the ague.

Do you ever shake?

Yes, shake dreadfully.

When do you shake again?

Can't say when; Shake every day. Why do you ask?

Oh, nothing in particular; only I thought if you shook so bad, I'd like to stand by and see if you couldn't shake the five dollars out of your pocket which you have owe I me so long.

—Mr. M——, of Oxford, don't object to having a hired man do a full day's work, at least, so we should judge from the following story: A short time ago, a man went to his place for work. Mr. M——, set him to plowing round a forty acre field. After he had plowed faithfully all day, until the sun was about half an hour high, he expressed his opinion that it was about time to quit work

Oh, so said Mr. M——, you can plow round six or eight times more just as well as not.

So the hired man plowed around six or eight times, then went to the house, took care of his team, milked nine cows, ate his supper, and found ten o'clock staring him in the face from the old time piece.

Said the hired man to Mrs. M——, Where is Mr. M——?

The good woman answered, He has retired; do you wish to see him?

He replied he did. After being conducted to the bed room, he said Mr. M——, where is the axe?

Why said Mr. M——, what do you want to do with the axe?

Well, said the hired man, I thought you might like me to split wood until breakfast is ready.

VEGETABLE SICILIAN

HAIR RENEWER.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation, which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard, and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff and by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands, to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, exception extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the Best PREPARATION for its intended purposes."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

A medicine that cures is a real public blessing. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA makes possible cure of a series of complaints which are always afflicting and too often fatal. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, which undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworms, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side, and Head, Females, Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility. With their departure healthy returns.
