PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—Rev. J. M. Williams, Pastor, will hold services in Covington on the 1st and 3rd Sundays. Madisonville 2nd Sunday. Slidell 4th Sunday.

May will be here next Friday.

Try our Dove Outing Ham.
L. MEDAL & CO.

District Court, civil term, will convene in Covington next Monday.

Miss Lula Claire Cohen, of New Orleans, is the guest of the Misses Clobecy.

Capt. H. T. G. Weaver has just completed two neat cottages in Weaver's Annex, for the benefit of E. V. Richard's Hotel.

Try your luck on a 42 piece tea set, given away free, by L. Medal & Co.

Mr. John A. Todd, Police Juror for the Seventh Ward, is spending a few days in Covington for the benefit of his health.

FOR SALE—A cut under surry, in fine condition. Apply to lock box 54, Covington, La.

The tax list is steadily growing shorter, as the delinquents come down and settle up.

We have had no rain for twenty-five days, and consequently spring gardens are not thriving.

Furnished House For Rent. Appty to Mrs. C. V. Quave.
Covington, La.

The hotels are doing a good business for this time of the year, especially on excursion days.

The Base Ball season has opened in earnest, and games are of daily occurence, especially among the juveniles.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Reber are the happy parents of a fine baby girl, born April 15, 1903, at 1119 Music street, New Orleans.

Don't let the question of better fire protection escape your memory. Some concerted action should be taken in this matter, in the interest of all.

Monpat & Sons, of Abita Springs, keep sandwiches of all kinds, ice cream and cakes, and cater especially to the wants of excursionists.

The handsomely furnished house of Mr. E. E. Smith is for rent, with a new piano, as his family expect to spent the summer on the Gulf coast.

Dr. J. J. Bland, a prominent physician from New Orleans, is the guest of Mr. E A. Leonval. He is here for the benefit of his health, and may possibly remain all summer.

Mrs John A. Todd, and daughter, Pearl, son, Dan, Todd, of Bayou Lacombe, and niece Miss Fannie Scarborough, of Biloxi, spent a few days in Covington this week, the guests of Mrs. W. C. Pharis.

The St. Tammany Parish Confederate Veterans should take some steps to be represented at the Confederate Reunion in New Orleans next month.

There will be a match game of base ball on the Dixon Academy campus next Wednesday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, between the Dixon Academy club and the High School club of New Orleans.

The Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co., is having a 200 wire cable erected to replace the numerous single wires. This is an improvement that will be highly appreciated by its many patrons.

Roubion's Cafe and Restaurant, opposite the depot, is supplied with the finest wines, liquors and cigars, and meals are served all hours, at moderate prices, the fare being the best the market affords. See advertisement in another column.

The "St. Tammany Special," which will commence its trips between New Orleans and Covington in a few days, will be one of the finest vestibule trains in the South, or anywhere else. It is the joint property of the East Louisiana and Northeastern Railroads, each company having shared equally in the cost of its construction. It will be an additional attraction to travel this way, and a credit to its enterprising and progressive owners.

The ladies of Christ Church desire to thank all who so graciously contributed their talent, as well as money, towards making the entertainment last Friday such a success, and especially to those of other denominations. The sum of $130 75 was realized.

The programme was as follows:
Piano Selection—M. Mugnier.
Vocal solo—Miss Lucille Guyol.
Piano duet—Misses Clobecy.
Song and dance—Master Brittain McConnell.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the Medical Department, Tulane University, next Wednesday, with the compliments of Dr. J. Frank Points.

The steady march of improvements continues in all directions, and the new residences are attractive and of modern design The former appellation, "quaint old Covington," no longer applies to our charming and growing town.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Prytania street Presbyterian Church, New Orleans, gave an enjoyable excursion to Old Landing last Saturday. This is the most charming trip out of New Orleans, and the fine steamer New Camelia is especially adapted and fitted up for the purpose.

DIED—Near Madisonville, La., Saturday, April 18, 1903, Francis Ophelia Galatas, widow of the late Rudolph Galatas, Sr., aged 72 years. The deceased leaves eight children, thirty-three grand children, and three great-grand-children, and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss. The funeral took place last Sunday, and was largely attended, Rev. Jos. Koegerl officiating.

DIED.—At Bootheville, Lower Coast, April 12, 1903, at 3 A. M., John Sigmond Schoenberger, aged 44 years and 23 days. Beloved husband of Sophie Hempel. A native of Baden, Germany, and a resident of Louisiana for 25 years. He leaves a sorrowing widow and 6 children to mourn his loss.

MAKES A CLEAN SWEEP.

There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the Salves you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures Burns, Sores, Bruises, Cuts, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It's only 25c, and guaranteed to give satisfaction by J. L. Watkins, of the City Drug Store.

High Water Mark.

It is expected that the high-water mark in attendance and interest will be reached in the Louisiana State Sunday School Convention to be held in New Orleans, May 5-7. Already the hosts are beginning to plan to be present. Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner, International Field Worker will be present.

For further information and programs, apply to John B. Kent, Covington, La., or Mrs. H. M. McCants, 204 Camp St., N. O., La.

Mrs. Z's Boarders.

(Dedicated to Miss Sona.)

The first is Miss S.,
With appearance so neat,
On Sunday she drives
With J. Menty so sweet.

The next is a dame,
Who's come for her health.
She don't seem to improve,
Though she's spending her wealth.

There's a long legged youth
Who thinks he looks sweet,
He ne'er misses a meal,
And loves much to eat.

There's two girls beside.
One fat and one thin,
But to tell of those girls,
I won's try to begin.

Now comes Madam V.,
With her eyes black and bright.
Sits on the front porch
And warbles at night.

A GOOD WORD FOR CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY

"In December, 1900, I had a severe cold and was so hoarse that I could not speak above a whisper," says Allen Davis, of Freestone, N. Y. "I tried several remedies but got no relief until I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy one bottle of which cured me. I will always speak a good word for that medicine." For sale by V. H. Frederick druggist.
