Ozone Belt's Triumpth.

General Passenger Agent George H. Smith, of the New Orleans and Northeastern, is very much pleased with the increasing popularity of the various resorts in St. Tammany Parish, in the Ozone Belt, as the Northeastern proudly calls the pine forests situated along their line. In view of the fact that all the Gulf Coast resorts have been closed to New Orleans people, and they have nowhere else to go, the people have begun to realize the beauty and healthfulness of these resorts in St. Tammany Parish and are flocking here in large numbers.

Mr. Smith has been confident that the real worth of these resorts would be realized by the people, and his prophecy is now coming true.

W G. EVANS.

Last Saturday, the School Board unanimously elected Mr. W. G. Evans as Secretary and Superintendant, to succeed Mr. H. A. Verret, who resigned on account of ill health.

Mr. Evans was for years a prominent member of the Louisiana Conference of the Methodist Church, one of its secretaries, editor of its annual, prominently identified with its Epworth League and Sunday School work, but at the last conference he dropped out of the active ministry, settled in Covington and entered upon the practice of architecture, from which profession he entered the Methodist Ministry.

Mr. Evans had numerous letters of recommendation from prominent educators all over the South bearing testimony to his worth as a student and men of affairs, as well as his standing among his former church associates. His election meets with general approval.
