Amendment to Charter

Covington, La., April 16, 1910.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Covington Grocery and Grain Company, Ltd., held at their office on this date, a quorum being present, on motion of E. J. Frederick, duly seconded by H. E. Ellis the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That a meeting of the stockholders of the Covington Grocery and Grain Co., Ltd., be and is hereby called to meet at the office of said corporation at Covington, La., on June 15, 1910, to vote on the question of increasing the capital stock of said corporation from fifty thousand dollars to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and to amend Article Three of the Charter so as to read as follows:

The capital stock of this corporation shall be two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into and represented by two thousand five hundred shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each, which said stock may be issued at not less than par cash, or in payment or exchange for property or rights actually received or purchsed by said corporation, provided that no stock shall be issued unless the consideration therefor has been received by said corporation.

All transfers of stock shall be made on the books of said company, at its office at Covington St. Tammany Parish, La., on the surrender of the certificate therefor.

This corporation shall commence doing business as soon as five thousand dollars shall have been subscribed for and paid in.

And also to amend Article Six of said Charter so that the same shall read as follows:

This act of incorporation may be changed, altered or amended, or its capital stock increased or diminished or this corporation may be dissolved by a vote of two-thirds of the stock issued by the corporation, at a general meeting called for that purpose, after thirty days notice of such meeting to be published in a newspaper, and after written or printed notices thereof have been mailed, postage prepaid, to stockholders forty days before such meeting.

Resolved further, That notice of said meeting of stockholders be published for thirty days in some newspaper of the town of Covington, La., and that written or printed notices of said meeting be mailed in the postoffice at Covington, La., postage prepaid, addressed to each of the stockholders of said corporation, as required by law.

On motion, meeting thereupon adjourned.

We certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of proceedings had of a meeting of the Board of Diectors of the Covington Grocery and Grain Company, Ltd.

CHARTER OF THE SMITH HARDWARE CO., LTD.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
State of Louisiana,
Parish of St. Tammany.

BE IT KNOWN, That on this, the 1st day of April, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ten, and of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Thirty-fourth:

Before me, EDWARD H. RICHARD, a Notary Public duly commissioned and qualified, in and for the Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared the parties whose names are hereunto subscribed, all of full age, who declare that, availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of the State of Louisiana, relative to the organization of corporations, they have covenanted and agreed, and by these presents do covenant and agree to bind themselves, as well as such other persons as may hereafter become associated with them, to form and constitute a corporation and body politic in law, for the purposes and objects, and under the stipulations, articles and conditions following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

The name and style of this corporation shall be the "SMITH HARDWARE COMPANY, LIMITED," and by that name it shall have power and authority to exist and enjoy succession for the full term and period of ninety-nine years from date hereof, unless sooner dissolved.

ARTICLE II.

The domicile of this corporation shall be in the Town of Covington, in the Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana. All citations and other legal processes shall be served upon the President, or in case of his absence or inability to act, upon the Vice-President. The President shall be the executive officer of the corporation, and shall preside at the meetings of the Board of Directors and stockholders.

ARTICLE III.

The objects and purposes for which this corporation is established, and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, are hereby declared to be: To do a general wholesale and retail hardware and building material business, and to handle, incidental to said business, a full line of wooden ware, glass ware, crockery ware, tin ware and granite ware, wagons, buggies, leather goods, and such other lines of general merchandise as may be deemed necessary to carry in stock, incidental to the above enumerated lines of business.

ARTICLE IV.

This corporation may sue or be sued in its corporate name, make and use a corporate seal, the same to alter and break at pleasure; hold, have, receive, purchase, convey, sell, mortgage, hypothecate, pledge, lease, sub-lease and enjoy real, personal or mixed property; also borrow and lend money and make contracts; make and establish such by-laws, rules and regulations as may be necessary, and the same to change and alter at pleasure; and shall possess all the rights and privileges to which corporations are, or may be authorized and entitled to possess. This corporation may exercise its corporate powers within any other State of this Union.

ARTICLE V.

The capital stock of said corporation shall be Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars, divided into and represented by two hundred (200) shares of the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each, which said stock shall be paid for in cash at the time of subscription, or the same may be issued at not less than par, in payment or exchange for property or rights actually received or purchased by said corporation, or the same may be issued, full paid, for money advanced and for such other valuable consideration or service, as the Board of Directors of said corporation may determine, provided that no stock shall be issued until consideration therefor has been received by said corporation; said shares of stock shall be signed by the President and Secretary-Treasurer. At all elections by, or meetings of, the stockholders, each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote to be cast by the person in whose name the stock appears on the books of the corporation, or by his agent or proxy, duly authorized to that effect in writing. This corporation to become a going concern as soon as the sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars is subscribed for and paid in.

ARTICLE VI.

No stockholder shall have the authority or right to sell or otherwise dispose of his stock in whole or in part without first giving the Board of Directors fifteen (15) days' notice of his intention or desire to dispose of any of his stock or a part thereof, and allowing the Board of Directors, or in its default, any stockholder, the first opportunity of purchasing the stock. After which fifteen days, the said stock may be sold in open market. The stock of said corporation may be transferred under the above conditions, provided such transfer be made on the books of said corporation at its office at Covington, in the Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, and on surrender of the certificate therefor; the Board of Directors shall have the right to determine how much stock shall be issued.

ARTICLE VII.

The business affairs and corporate powers of this corporation shall be transacted by a Board of Directors to be composed of four (4) stockholders. No person shall be eligible as a director or officer as herein provided in this Charter, who is not a stockholder in this corporation.

The members of the Board of Directors shall be elected by a majority of the votes of the stockholders cast at a meeting to be held for that purpose each year. The following named persons shall constitute the first Board of Directors, viz: Hardy H. Smith, Alfred V. Smith, Archie R. Smith, Barclay M. Smith.

Said Board shall continue in office until April, 1911, on the first Monday thereof, or until their successors are elected. On which date, and thereafter annually, an election for directors shall be held at the office of the corporation at Covington, in the Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, after fifteen (15) days' notice thereof shall have been given by publication in one of the newspapers published in the Parish of St. Tammany, by two (2) publications thereof during that time.

A failure to elect Directors on the date above mentioned shall not dissolve this corporation, but the existing Board of Directors shall continue to hold office, and another election shall be held as soon thereafter as practicable, of which notice shall be given in the manner already provided for notice of meetings.

Every Board of Directors shall elect a President, a Vice-President and a Treasurer, who shall also be the Secretary, from among their own number.

The officers as herein created shall be filled for the ensuing year as follows: President, H. H. Smith; Vice-President, A. V. Smith; Secretary-Treasurer, A. R. Smith.

ARTICLE VIII.

Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors, from any cause, shall be filled by the remaining members of the Board of Directors, from among the stockholders of the corporation; three (3) members of the Board shall constitute a quorum thereof, unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors shall make such by-laws, rules and regulations as they think necessary, and change and alter the same at pleasure. Name and appoint other officers and employees, and fix their salaries, term of service, with the right to dismiss them at said Board's pleasure. And said Board shall have the right to determine and fix the salaries and duties of the several officers herein provided for, and ascribe other duties to said officers as will best subserve the interest and welfare of the corporation.

They shall also have the power to sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, sub-lease and purchase property, movable, immovable, personal and mixed; borrow and lend money, and issue notes and bonds, make contracts and to do all things which may be necessary to properly transact the business of this corporation.

ARTICLE IX.

This act of incorporation may be changed, modified or amended, or said corporation may be dissolved with the consent of a majority of the amount of stock, present or represented at a general meeting of the stockholders of said corporation, and convened for such purpose, after thirty days' previous notice of such meeting shall have been given by advertisement in one of the newspapers published in the Parish of St. Tammany, by four publications during said time.

Whenever this corporation is dissolved, either by limitation or from any other cause, its affairs shall be liquidated under the superintendence of three commissioners chosen for the purpose from among the stockholders, by a majority in amount of the stockholders, as above set forth in this article. In the event of the death or inability to act of any one of said commissioners, the survivors shall continue to act.

ARTICLE X.

No stockholder of this corporation shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults thereof, in any further sum than the unpaid balance due the corporation on the shares subscribed for or owned by him, nor shall any informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null, or exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid balance, if any, of his stock.

THUS DONE AND PASSED in my notarial office, in the Town of Covington, Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, on the day, month and year herein first above written, in the presence of AUGUST COIG and G. BOUDOUSQUIE, competent witnesses of lawful age, and residents of said town, who hereunto sign their names, together with said parties and me, Notary, after reading of the whole.
