NEW PUBLICATIONS.

AN ADMIRABLE NOVEL OF DOMESTIC LIFE.

Of late years a new and wholesome tendency has appeared in French imaginative literature. A class of writers have appeared, who, instead of appealing to morbid passions and depraved tastes, have gained a reputation by depicting the pure and healthy emotions of the heart by developing the charms of social and domestic characters, and by exhibiting men and women nobly triumphing over adverse circumstances and social temptations.

Of this new school of writers, two conspicuous examples are found in the works of Emile Souvestre and Octave Feuillet. The former has already been extensively translated into English and has not unknown in this country. The latter we propose to introduce to the readers of the Tribune, by a spirited version of his which has recently appeared in Paris, and has been hailed by both French and English critics as perhaps the most striking and admirable work of fiction that appeared in any country during the year 1858. Indeed, since "Jane Eyre" startled the novel reading world, we hardly remember another production of the kind which, for beauty and interest, can be compared with this.

The publication of "The Romance of a Poor Young Man" will be commenced in the NEW YORK SEMI WEEKLY TRIBUNE, on Tuesday, April 19, and in the NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE, on Saturday, April 23, and will be regularly continued until it is completed.

Newsmen will please send in their orders immediately.
