CHARTER

ST. TAMMANY CANNING COMPANY.

United State of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of St. Tammany.

Be it known, that on this 15th day of the month of May, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirteen, before me, Arthur L. Bear, a Notary Public in and for the parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, duly commissioned and qualified and therein residing, and in the presence of the undersigned witnesses.

Personally came and appeared the several persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who severally declared that availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of the State of Louisiana relative to corporations and their organization they have covenanted and agreed and by these presents do covenant and agree and bind themselves as well as such other persons as may hereafter become associated with them, or their successors, to form and constitute a body politic in law, for the purposes and objects and under the stipulations, articles and conditions following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be St. Tammany Canning Company and under that name shall have and enjoy existence and succession for a period of ninety-nine (99) years from and after the date hereof, unless sooner dissolved by law or by consent of the stockholders as hereinafter provided.

Under this name this corporation shall have the power and authority to contract, to sue and be sued, to make and use a corporate seal, and the same to break or alter at pleasure; to hold, lease, to receive, purchase, convey, alienate, borrow, pledge, mortgage and hypothecate under its corporate name, property, real, personal and mixed; to issue bonds as the law permits; to name and appoint such officers, directors managers, agents and employees as the interest and convenience of said corporation may require, to make and use such by-laws, rules and regulations for the proper management of its affairs as may be deemed necessary and proper; and the same to reasonably change at pleasure; and do all other acts and things permitted by law or such as may be necessary for the proper conduct of its affairs or to carry into effect any of the powers, privileges and immunities it is permitted to hold and exercise under the laws of the State of Louisiana.

ARTICCLE II.

The domicile of this corporation shall be at Covington, parish of St Tammany, State of Louisiana, where all citations or other legal processes shall be served on the president, or in his absence, the vice-president, or in his absence the secretary-treasurer, in accordance with the statute of the State of Louisiana, relative to making services on corporations.

ARTICLE III.

The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and establisehd and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are declared to be: To own and operate canning and preserving factories and all other enterprizes incident thereto and connected therewith for the purpose of canning and preserving fruit, vegetables, cane products and other food products of the soil; to grow, buy and sell food products of the soil, particularly those adopted to canning and preserving; to manufacture, can and preserve and sell canned and preserved fruit, vegetables, cane products and other products of the soil; to buy, lease, rent and operate farm lands and to lend money to persons engaged in the busines sof farming and to others to buy, lease, rent, mortgage, sell and otherwise alienate or acquire property, both real, personal and mixed; to own, operate and conduct one or more commissaries, stores, warehouses, etc., and to sell, either at wholesale or retail, in any part of this State; to employ agetns, salesmen, employees and other help; and generally to do and perform any and all acts and things needful in the conduct of said corporation authorized under the laws of the State of Louisiana and to have all the rights and privileges and immunities granted by law to corporations.

ARTICLE IV.

The capital stock of this corporation shall be Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000), divided into and represented by Two Thousand (2000) shares of stock, at par value of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) each. The said stock shall be paid for in cash at the time of subscription, or as the same is issued, for not less than par, or in payment of exchange in property actually received or purchased by this corporation, or for services rendered.

This corporation may commence doing business and shall become a going concern as soon as three thousand dollars ($3000) of its capital stock shall have been subscribed for, as above provided.

Shares of stock can only be transferred by having the transfer recorded on the boks of the corporation, and no transfer can be made until any unpaid balace thereof shall have first been paid and until it shall have first been offered for sale at its market value to the Board of Directors of this corporation, and they shall have refused, within ten (10) days from said offer to purchase said stock.

ARTICLE V.

The corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Directors composed of five (5) or more stockholders, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business and their acts shall bind this corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the power and authority to make such by-laws and regulations as may be necessary for the proper management of the affairs of this corporation and to amend and change the same as they deem proper, provided same shall not conflict with this charter, nor with the laws of the State of Louisiana, nor with the laws of the United States and shall have power and authority to provide for and contract debts borrow money, issue bonds, drafts notes, acceptances execute mortgages and do all other things incident to the objects and purposes of this corporation, and shall have power and authority to vest the president or other officers and managers with such of these powers as they see fit.

ARTICLE VI.

The first election of the Board of Directors under this charter shall be at a meeting of the stockholders to be held on the first Monday of May 1915, at the office of the corporation at Covington, St. Tammany parish Louisiana, and thereafter, the stockholders shall hold a meeting annually on the first Monday of May each year at the office of said corporation transact any business coming before them, and elect a Board of Directors Notice of stockholders' meeting shall be given in writing, by mail, addressed to each stockholder at his usual place of business ten (10) days prior to the date of such meeting. The election of the Board of Directors shall be by ballot and each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote, either in person or by proxy, for each share of stock owned by him and a majority of the votes cast shall elect such person or persons for whom they are cast. Said Board of Directors elected at any such meetings shall serve until their successors heve been elected and qualified

The Board of Directors shall at the first meeting after its election, out of its own number, elect a president, vice president and secretary-treasurer. These officers shall hold until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

Any vacancy on the Board of Directors shall be filled by the remaining directors for the unexpired term.

The first Board of Directors of this corporation shall be composed of W. L. Stevenson, E. J. Frederick, A. F. Elmer, E. J. Domergue and A. C. McCormack, of whom W. L. Stevenson shall be president; E. J Frederick, vice president, and A. C. McCormack secretary-treasurer, all of whom shall serve until their successors shall have been elected and qualified.

ARTICLE VII.

This charter may be amended or the capital stock of this corporation increased or decreased or the corporation may be dissolved at a general meeting o fthe stockholders convened for that purpose, with the assent of three-fourths (3-4) of the stock present or represented at such meeting; thirty (30) days prior notice of such meeting having been given by publication in a weekly newspaper published at Covington, St. Tammany parish, Louisiana, and a written notice thereof mailed to each stockholder at his usual place of business thirty (30) days prior to such meeting. In case of the dissolution of this corporation, either by limitaton or otherwise, its affairs shall be liquidated by two (2) commissioners elected from among the stockholders at a meeting called for that purpose.

ARTICLE VIII.

No stockholder of this corporation shall ever be liable or responsible for the contracts, faults or failure of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due said corporation on shares of stock subscribed for and owned by the stockholder; nor shall any informality in the organization of this corporation have the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing a stockholder to any further liability than the unpaid balance due on his stock.

Thus done and passed at my office in the town of Covington, parish of St Tammany, State of Louisiana, on the day, month and year first above written, in the presence of Messrs Louis A. Perreand and Paul F. Perkins, competent witnesses, residing in the parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, who signed these presents, together with said appearers and me, Notary, after due reading.

Square 240, in the town of Mandeville, La., less the north portion of said square north of a branch of Little Bayou Castin, which is understood to be the dividing line between them sold to Spencer L. Rice by deed recorded in Conveyance Book 45, page 581.

Also all that portion of square 219 north of the public road from Bayou Lacombe to Covington.

Terms of Sale—Cash, without appraisement, to pay debts.

T. E. BREWSTER,
may31-6t sheriff.

NOTICE OF REGISTARTION OF TAX DEED.

Whereas the undersigned has purchased at tax collector's sale, for the taxes of the year 1911, on the 20th day of July, 1912, the following described property, to-wit: Square 1708 in New Covington, St. Tammany parish, Louisiana.

Which property is assessed in the name of the estate of Val Lenhardt, as per tax deed executed by L. P. Delcroix, tax collector of the town of Covington, St. Tammany parish, La., on the 20th day of July, 1912.

Notice is hereby given to whom it may concern that I have duly caused the said deed to be registered in Conveyance Book 58, page 347, of the official records of St. Tammany parish, La.
