For sabres, swords and scabbards, the price of each of the prescribed patterns to the number of 5,000 each, and also for each additional 5,000 to 20,000.
All the firearms are to be furnished with the regular appendages. The rifled muskets are to be in all respects identical with those manufactured at the United States Armory, Springfield, Mass., and are to interchange with it and with each other in all their parts. Each of the other kinds of firearms must also interchange with one another in the same manner.
The materials for these arms must be of the very best quality, and no malleable iron parts will be allowed to be used. All the articles must be subject to the inspection prescribed by the Ordnance Regulations, and must be boxed, ready for transportation, at the expense of the contractors, in such manner as may be directed. Inspections will be made at the factories in lots of not less than 1,000 each.
Proposals will state the name of the establishment making the offer, the number and date of the first delivery, and rate of delivery monthly thereafter. Failure to make a delivery at a specified time, or any attempt to introduce malleable iron or other inferior material into the work, will subject the whole number of arms contracted for to forfeiture, at the option of the department.
The department reserves to itself the right to reject any bid, and will consider none made through any agent, broker, or party other than the regular manufacturers.
Proposals will be addressed as follows:—"General J. W. Ripley, Chief of Ordnance, Washington, D. C.," and will be endorsed "Proposals for Muskets," or rifles, sabres, &c., as the case may be.

PROPOSALS FOR THE SUPPLY OF FRESH BEEF for use of United States troops stationed at Fort Columbus, New York harbor, for one year, commencing June 1, 1862, will be received at the office of the A. A. C. S., Fort Columbus, New York Harbor, until 12 o'clock M., on the 21st instant. The beef is to be of first quality, in equal proportions of fore and hind quarters, necks and shanks excluded, and to be delivered at Fort Columbus as such times and in such quantities as may be required. Two security bonds, of five thousand dollars each, will be required for the faithful fulfilment of the contract. Proposals will be addressed to First Lieutenant B. B. Childs, Sixth Infantry, office of A. A. C. S., Fort Columbus, New York Harbor, and be endorsed "Proposals for the supply of fresh beef." The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all bids which he deems extravagant, or doubtful securities. B. B. CHILDS, First Lieutenant Sixth Infantry, A. A. C. S.
