REPORTERS FIX THE FATE OF HAWAII.

A Talleyrandish Scheme to Play Three Great Powers Against Each Other Here.

It is a safe rule in Hawaiian matters, nothwithstanding the fact that the local press generally knows what is doing here, to go away from home to get the sensational news. Intelligence of the bloodthirsty murder society first reached us via the American press; and every fortnight something has come from the coast which puts an entirely new and unsuspected light upon our home affairs. That the correspondents have not lost their cunning and that island scoops that are scoops are yet liable to crop out 2000 and 5000 miles away, will appear in the text of letters which some of the local writers imparted to the Press Associations via the steamship City of New York.

What is the story? You couldn't guess.

Well, it's simply this. Should the United States decline to accept these Islands as a gift, the Hawaiian Government might not be able to find a second customer in England, owing to her treaty of non-interference made fifty years ago with France. What then? Why offer them to Russia! Russia, you see, has wanted Pearl Harbor for a long time. In fact De Giers said as much to the Hawaiian embassy several years ago. The Czar has been deterred from negotiating for it, however, by his desire to yield a point to the policy of the United States; but it is figured out by the astute correspondents that Russia's acceptance of Pearl Harbor, and these Islands with it, after America had refused to take them, could not be regarded by Uncle Sam as an unfriendly act. What he had thrown away indifferently he could not abuse anybody for picking up.

Now comes a piece of fine correspondential diplomacy. The Honolulu newsmongers have intimated that England would go wild at the idea of her great enemy of the north getting an island station right at the angle between her Canadian, Australian and Hongkong routes of commerce and naval operation. The lion would roar indeed. At once, it is agreed, England would, under her agreement with France, step in to "preserve our independence" in spite of ourselves. But France, being Russia's ally, would rescind the treaty, leaving Mr. Gladstone without further excuse for his action than could be found in the general policy of the British Empire. It is, of course, believed that England would not split hairs, but would demand the cession of this group to her, whereat—and here is some more fine scheming—America would get alarmed and jealous, and begin a negotiation to annex.

In that case, say the correspondents, Hawaii could stand by and take her choice. She could go to Russia under a treaty guaranteeing fair play and home rule, or under a protectorate which would let the Czar have Pearl Harbor; or she could go to England as a colony; or further she could join the United States on any terms pleasing to her. Either way would make her game.

The newsmongers further say that Russia would jump at the chance to get in here, with or without a Neumann plebiscitum, and that if she came she would spend unnumbered roubles in putting the group in a state of defense. More than this, she would accommodate Spreckels with all the moujiks he could use in his cane fields.

Big scheme, isn't it? What will the correspondents originate next?

GREAT CÆSAR! READ THIS!

One More Letter and Posey S. Wilson Ought to See Snakes.

The Spokane Review has these luminous Hawaiian observations, which it credits to one Posey S. Wilson:

"The quarrel there now is apparently over the spoils. The Provisional Government is made up of a lot of men claiming citizenship here, yet ambitious to rule there or annex the kingdom to the United States, and some Englishmen and Americans who have always been influential with the king and queen. The latter know that with royalty restored they will virtually govern, and perhaps George Macfarland will marry the late king's niece and would-be-heir—Liliuokalani—and be king himself.

"Macfarland and Cleghorn, the late king's brother-in-law, and father of the young princess, certainly are on the popular side. If it were left to the natives the queen would be restored.

"It is not true that the Queen, Kapiolani, is "educated, progressive, religious, etc." She is half civilized, does not speak English, wears native dress, sits on the ground to eat, eats poi with her fingers, raw fish, drinks ava ava and otherwise "votes the ticket." Kalakaua made her sister "governess of the island of Hawaii" on a good salary. I saw her arrival at Hilo, where the porter of the boat led her about in a somewhat worn and not very clean holoku (Mother Hubbard) and introduced her. While not an imposing ceremony, and while the natives did not receive her enthusiastically, it was a pleasanter sight than I saw at the capital, where some of the now usurping tyrants of the Provisional Government were falling over one another to lick the boots of "your majesty." For it was in a manner nearer to the people and to their liking. I remember vividly the "governess'" visit to the dancing school, a single room of unplaned boards and floor, and like the rest took off her shoes and tried to dance "like an American" as the native fiddler struggled with "Pop Goes the Weasel."

"The President has shown wisdom in keeping out and declining to let this country be used to further the schemes of unscrupulous intruders. England, probably, has no designs on the Islands, for a British admiral long ago raised his country's flag there, taking possession, only to have his act disavowed by the Government.

"The Provisional Government and the Annexationists dare not trust the matter to 'a free vote and a fair count.'

"As I understand it, the autonomy of the kingdom is guaranteed, and we would be likely to involve ourselves in a war were we to try either annexation or the establishing of a protectorate—things beyond the powers delegated by the States to the general government."

POSEY S. WILSON.

THE USUAL BULLETIN CANARD.

The Truth About Leialoha's Two-Hundred-Dollar Gift.

EDITOR STAR: An editorial in last night's Bulletin, headed "Captain Good's Victim," contains statements which are not true. It says that the donation for Leialoha was only on paper and that the money was paid to Leialoha last Thursday.

The facts are these: On January 18th Mr. J. Emmeluth handed me a letter and $200 with the request to place same in the Hospital safe and give it to Leialoha when Dr. Wood should consider him out of danger. About a week later, the man being out of danger, I told Leialoha that I had the money and letter, and would give him both any time he wished me to do so. He asked me to keep them for him until he should leave the Hospital; he was discharged on March 11th, and I paid him two hundred dollars in United States gold coin and handed him the letter at the same time.

The receipt for the money is signed by Leialoha, witnessed by W. Edmondson, and is in possession of Mr. Emmeluth. By publishing the above in to-day's STAR you will oblige

Yours truly,
J. ICKARDT,
Purveyor Queen's Hospital.

[The money referred to was contributed, not by the government, but by private individuals.—ED.]

POLICE MATTERS.

Judge Foster Discharges the Informers in the Robbery Case.

In the Chinese robbery case heretofore taken under advisement, Judge Foster this morning decided that the evidence does not warrant committal for trial and ordered the defendants discharged.

See Ping was found guilty of having opium in his sleeve and fined $50 and costs.

Matt Smythe, for assault and battery, was discharged; also, McPherson, for being drunk. The latter got a reprimand first.

Kapena, for having che fa tickets in his pocketbook, was fined $4 and costs, and the other charge of perverting justice which had been entered against him was dismissed.

Kahuku Notes.

Justice W. F. Frear and bride arrived at the Kahuku ranch yesterday to spend their honeymoon. Kahuku wishes them "Aloha nui" and many years of happiness and prosperity.

Postmaster General Oat arrived at Kahuku plantation on the 2d from Honolulu via the Pali, and went on to Waialua on the 3d. On his way there he stopped and had a look at the big pump and water supply of the Kahuku plantation. I think he would like to have it transferred to Honolulu if it was possible.

A big drive of cattle has been sent from the Kahuku ranch to the Honouliuli ranch.

Kahuku plantation people will put in more land to sugar cane this season. Plowing and planting is now going on.

The Sheriff of this district went down to Waimea gulch on Saturday evening last. I was told by a resident of the gulch that he examined the supposed leper Kaleiwahea and found that he did not have the leprosy, and told him that he was free to go anywhere he wished, but nothing has been said as to whether the two boys and two women were examined or not. Kaleiwahea is a very good man and I have been personally acquainted with him for two years. If he is a leper, I have not seen any change in him to this time.

Mr. Geo. McKibben is here on a visit to his brother, who is manager of the Kahuku store. C.

KOEBELE TO BE ENGAGED.

IF SATISFACTORY TERMS CAN BE MADE.

Commissioner Marsden's Reply to the Alameda Entomologist—Toads Sent For.

While the matter of engaging the services of the well known entomologist, Prof. A. Koebele of Alameda, to exterminate our blight pests has not yet been brought before the members of of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry officially, it has been informally discussed, and the general sentiment not only of the members of the Board but of the community at large is in favor of securing Professor Koebele's services at as early a date as possible, if the same can be done for a reasonable sum. When the exact amount required is known, the Government will be asked for an appropriation for the good of the cause. There seems to be little doubt that the Government will aid in the matter, but to what extent will depend on the amount required.

The following letter has been addressed to Albert Koebele by Commissioner Marsden in response to the one received a short time since and published in the STAR:

"Mr. Albert Koebele—MY DEAR SIR: Your valuable and interesting favor of July 6th came duly to hand. I am thoroughly of your opinion that to successfully combat the many insect pests on these Islands it will be necessary to introduce the natural enemies of each particular scale or blight, and the work can only be done by a skilled entomologist. I shall at once bring the matter before the Bureau of Agriculture and Forestry. Your reputation is well known on these Islands, and if we can make satisfactory arrangements to secure your services the greatest confidence will be reposed in your skill and ability to carry on the work to a successful issue. In order to save time, I would be obliged if you would state by return mail the salary you would require and what amount would be needed for your traveling expenses, that is railroad and steamer fares; all other personal expenses to be included in the salary, other expenses—such as material and freight—to be paid for by us. It is necessary for us to have definite figures, as the present funds at the disposal of the Bureau are limited and an appropriation will have to be asked for, but I do not think there will be much difficulty in arranging this if the cost of the work can be kept within reasonable limits, and I trust you will bear this in mind in considering what salary you would require for a three years' engagement.

Would you please give us an outline of what would be your plan of operations, what countries you would have to visit, etc. I should be very much pleased to receive as many of the toads as you could conveniently send, and any expense in procuring and shipping them will be promptly paid.

Yours truly,
J. MARSDEN.

The Katzenjammer Case.

As was expected from his decision in the Katzenjammer case three weeks ago Judge Foster, the committing magistrate, ended to-day's proceedings by committing Mr. Smith for trial. The latter's counsel, Judge Hartwell, made no defense, preferring to reserve that for a jury. The defendant was released on the princely bail of $100.

Captain Juen Suspended.

Captain Harry Juen and Officer Toma have been temporarily suspended by Deputy Marshal Brown, pending the return of Marshal Hitchcock. Mr. Brown declines to make public the cause of the suspensions at present.
