DEPARTMENT OF SO. CAROLINA.
ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE.
CHARLESTON, S. C. Feb. 10, 1866.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 16.

I. THE COURTS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, having been fully organized for the dispatch of civil and criminal cases, the Provost Courts will take no further jurisdiction of such cases affecting white persons only, unless the rights of the military or civil authorities are involved.

II. When it is necessary that arrests should be made (in order to preserve the peace of the country) of white persons charged with crime against the person or property of whites, such persons, so arrested, will be held in custody only so long as is necessary in order to turn them over to the civil authorities for trial.

III. Provost Court will continue as heretofore to have jurisdiction of all cases in which persons of color are parties, or in which their rights are involved, and of all criminal cases, in which the offence, alleged to have been committed by a white, has been against the person or property of a person of color.
