$50.00 Reward.

STOLEN from the subscriber's stable, on the night of 27th February last, a dark BAY HORSE, six years old, (not as dark as some) the rise of fifteen and a half hands high, black legs, mane and tail, with a few white scattering hairs in his forehead, also a few white hairs on the side of the neck, caused by the collar. Was in good order when stolen, holds a high head and tale, well made, and pretty fine.

I will pay the above reward for information so that I get the horse, and $25.00 for the delivery of the thief into the Spartanburg jail.

LANDRETH'S

GENUINE

GARDEN SEEDS,

OF THE GROWTH OF 1865.

THE subscriber has just received, and is now opening, a very large stock of LANDRETH'S GENUINE GARDEN SEEDS, of last year's crop—embracing all the varieties usually cultivated in this climate; together with several rare kinds not hitherto known here.

As heretofore, he is prepared to supply country dealers with any quantity of these well-known and highly-approved seeds, neatly put up in convenient-sized packages, and at such prices as will insure satisfactory profits. A supply of ONION SETTS, produced from the seed, which will give the grower the largest, smoothest, and, in every respect, the finest Onions, and that in a very few weeks. Also, BIRD SEEDS of every kind, very carefully cleaned.
