The goods must in all respects conform to and be equal with the government samples, which may be seen at any time at this office; but as the samples of blankets and cloths are of domestic manufacture, bids for those articles will not be considered based on articles of foreign manufacture, samples of which must accompany such bids.

The right will be reserved to require none, or a greater or less quantity, of any of the articles than that specified in the above schedule. If a greater quantity is required they are to be furnished at the prices proposed.

All bids for furnishing said articles may be rejected at the option of the Department.

No bids for less than an entire class of the articles specified will be considered.

All articles furnished under contract will be rigid inspected and compared with the samples by an agent or agents appointed for that purpose. Such goods or articles as may in any respect fail to conform to the samples will be rejected, and in that case the contractor will be bound to furnish others of the required kind or quality within five days, or if that be not done, they will be purchased at his expense.

Payment will be made for goods received on invoices thereof, certified by the agent or agents appointed to inspect them.

No bids will be considered from persons who have failed to comply with the requirements of a former contract.

No proposal will be considered that does not strictly comply with the following requirements:—

Proposals must embrace the articles, with the quantities thereof, as set forth in the above schedule, with the prices annexed to each, and the amounts must be carried out and footed up, each class to be separately stated and footed up. Said prices and amounts must be so given without any modification or proposed modification whatever.

Proposals should be submitted in the following form:—"I (or we) hereby propose to furnish the Indian Department, according to the terms of the advertisement of the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs, dated October 16, 1867, the following articles, at the prices therein affixed [Here insert the list prepared as indicated in the first paragraph of this advertisement.] Said articles are to be delivered at New York on or before the twentieth (20th) day of February next, or at such time thereafter during the year 1868 as may be ordered by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and if this proposal is accepted, I (or we) will, within five days thereafter, execute a contract accordingly, and give security satisfactory to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for the faithful performance of the same."

Each proposal must be accompanied by a guarantee in the following form, to be signed by two responsible persons, whose sufficiency must be certified by a United States judge or district attorney:

"We, hereby jointly and severally guarantee that the above bidder (or bidders), if a contract shall be awarded to him (or them) according to his (or their) bids or proposal, will execute a contract accordingly and give the requisite security for the faithful performance of the same, as prescribed in the advertisement for Proposals for Indian Goods, dated October 16, 1867; and in the event of his (or their) failure so to do, we hereby bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, to forfeit and pay to the United States, as damages, a sum not less than fifteen per cent on the amount of said bid or proposal."

Bonds will be required in the amount of the bid for the faithful performance of the contract, with two or more sureties, whose sufficiency must be certified to by a United States judge or district attorney.
