SPECIAL NOTICES.

A.—TWO GENERATIONS Have used BARRY'S Tricopherous as a Hair Dressing, and now, sixty years after its introduction (in 1801), it has no competitor as a means of beautifying, darkening, cleansing and perpetuating the hair.

AT A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE Mount Sinai Hospital the following references to and eulogies upon the decease of the President were unanimously united in and ordered to be engrossed upon the minutes and then published, and ordered to be transmitted to the family:—

A mysterious murder, with whose tragic details probably everybody throughout this broad land is now familiar, has suddenly removed from earth our beloved associate and our generous friend, who for many years has been President of the Mount Sinai Hospital.

Amid the profound sadness of an entire metropolis over his death we feel how inadequate and weak seem any words of sorrow or tributary remembrance; but we cannot follow the remains of our departed associate, friend and President to the grave without first doing more justice to the hospital, directors and to our own feelings than really to his memory in testifying through this sincere action of surviving officers our estimation of him. We shall ever remember and essay to imitate his unvarying courtesy, his unaffected demeanor to all of high or low estate, his manifold and unostentatious generosities and wearying duties of his trust, his religious purity of thought and speech, his incessant practical teaching of holy command, "Love thy neighbor as thyself," his perfect honesty of business intercourse, his magnetic companionship, his sympathetic deeds of compassion and mercy, his refined social hospitality, his scholarly attainments, and that courage which signalled his dying hour. A hundred thousand citizens mourn the loss of Benjamin Nathan their fellow citizen, but our little band perhaps only knew how greatly he deserved all the regrets which the great press voice in behalf of those citizens utters around his bier. And now we paraphrase the touching words of Judge Albert Cardozo in reviewing the decease of other Directors, and delivered in his oration at the recent laying of the corner stone of the Mount Sinai Hospital, and apply them to Benjamin Nathan.

"He has gone from his sphere of toil and trial, where the reality never equals the anticipations of hope or ambition, but his worth and his zeal, reverently treasured, will rear a lovin; monument to his memory more enduring than brilliant fame, for polluted breath cannot tarnish nor time itself dim or efface it. His absence makes a void in the hearts of his associates, who keenly feel and deplore his loss, but they must find consolation in his bright example, and in the reflection that his deeds of mercy towards those who it is said are God's especial care, will have assuredly appealed before His throne for the salvation of the souls of departed friends."
E. B. HART, Vice President.
SAMUEL A. LEWIS, Honorary Secretary.
