HEALTH DEPARTMENT.
OFFICE 301 MOTT STREET,
NEW YORK, Oct. 5, 1870.
At a meeting of the Board of Health of the Health Department of the city of New York, held at its office, 301 Mott street, on the 5th day of October, 1870, the following resolution was adopted:—
Resolved, That section 145 of the Sanitary Code be amended so as to read as follows:—
Section 145. That no captain, agent or person having charge of or attached to any ferryboat, sailing or other vessel, nor any person in charge of any car, stage or other vehicle, or public or private conveyance, shall convey or allow to be conveyed thereon, or by any means aforesaid; nor shall any person convey or allow to be carried or conveyed in any manner from or in the city of New York, the dead body of any human being, or any part thereof, without a permit therefor from this Department. And the proper coupon for that purpose attached to any such permit when issued shall be preserved and returned to this Department, as its regulations may require, by the proper officer or person on such boat or vessel, and by the proper person in charge of any train of cars or vehicle on which any such body may be carried from said city.
Provided, however, that the same effect shall be given under this section to a burial or transit permit issued by the Health Officer of the city of Brooklyn as to a burial or transit permit issued from this Department when the death of the person named in the permit shall have occurred in the city of Brooklyn. JOSEPH S. DOSWORTH, President.
EMMONS CLARK, Secretary.

JOHNSON & MILLER, Auctioneers.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE UNDERSIGNED, MEMBERS OF THE BAR OF the city of New York, believing that the time has arrived when party distinctions should be ignored in the choice of an official occupying the position of the first minister of justice in the first city of America, have resolved to recommend our example to the voters of this city, and urge the nomination of MATTHEW T. BRENNAN to the office of Sheriff.
We believe that his past public services are a guarantee of the fidelity and honesty he will exhibit in this position, and we advise all good citizens to vote for him, without regard to political bias or prejudice.
Deeming the time more fitting for an expression of opinion before any party nominations are made, rather than after, we ask all who are in favor of electing to this post an upright, experienced and faithful public servant to unite with us in conveying this desire to MATTHEW T. BRENNAN that he will consent to be a candidate for the office of High Sheriff of New York city.
Dated NEW YORK, October, 1870.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

IMPORTANT SALE OF SPLENDID HUDSON RIVER Property.
Positive and without reserve.
We invite the special attention of those who wish to secure elegant sites for Country Residences to the absolute auction sale of first class Property at Dobbs' Ferry, on the Hudson, on Saturday, October 15, at 12½ o'clock, on the premises, by order of P. J. Armour, Esq., being part of the Paulding estate. For beauty and variety of scenery, accessibility and healthfulness of location and social and educational advantages it is surpassed by no other suburb. No section is more desirable for residence, no property is more sure of increase in value, and no investment is safer or better. Now is the time to purchase, and this is the favorable opportunity. Remember the day, Saturday, October 15. Train leaves at 11 o'clock. JOHNSON & MILLER, Auctioneers, 25 Nassau street, New York.

NEW DORP, STATEN ISLAND.—THE POSITIVE EXecutor's sale of splendid property belonging to the Unkart estate will afford a rare opportunity to purchase beautiful Rural Sites at the buyer's own price. Every plot will be peremptorily sold, without reserve. Sale takes place on Wednesday, October 12, on the premises. Free tickets at JOHNSON & MILLER'S, 25 Nassau street.
