GUINNESS' STOUT, BOTTLED BY MESSRS. EDward & John Bourke, Dublin, Ireland.
TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEW YORK HERALD:—
SIR—Having recently returned from Great Britain, and having visited some of the finest bottling establishments in Liverpool and Dublin, I have no hesitation in saying, for brilliancy, condition and out up, the Dublin house of that eminent firm is a long way the foremost in the bottling of that excellent article. Mr Jarratt, the manager of Messrs. Edward & J. Bourke, told me they were always glad to see visitors in their establishment, that they might judge for themselves and see that no adulteration could be carried on in the different manipulation in the bottling of their "Stout." The courtesy, kindness and business-like qualities of Mr. Jarratt reflect great credit to the firm he is connected with, and stamp him at the same time to be the right man in the right place. I am, sir, yours faithfully, A VISITOR.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—WHEREAS the firm of I. C. Frese & Co., of Hamburg, Germany, have registered their trade mark, used on a certain medical compound known as Hamburg Tea, according to law in the United States Patent Office, and whereas said trade mark, as I am informed, has been and is now largely counterfeited, as is also the style of package used by said I. C. Frese & Co., which said counterfeiting is done for the purpose of defrauding said firm and deceiving the public; and whereas I am the attorney of said I. C. Frese & Co. and am charged with the duty of preventing all further infringements of their said trade mark and imitations of their said style of package. Now I invite all persons, firms and corporations who have thus far dealt in any but the genuine Hamburg Tea, prepared by said I. C. Frese & Co., and who have sold what is alleged to be "Hamburg Tea" in packages made in imitation of the genuine, and with fraudulent representations of the said trade mark applied thereto, to desist from all further infringements and apply to me for releases for past infringements, as I shall bring suit against all parties who fail to heed this notice.

A.—TO THE DRIVING PUBLIC. A.
We are now applying to side bar wagons a simple attachment, which produces A PERFECTLY EASY, LEVEL RIDING WAGON, entirely free from rattle or "creak," and giving increased strength and safety, without adding to the weight.
With this improvement we are also using (after a thorough trial during the past three years) the parallel or straight arm axle, running with greater precision and less friction than any axle ever used for speeding.
Gentlemen interested in driving matters are invited to examine these improvements at our factory, Broadway and Forty-seventh street, or at our warerooms, Fifth avenue and Fourteenth street.
BREWSTER & CO., of Broome street.
