HORSES, CARRIAGES, &C.

ARCH. JOHNSTON, AUCTIONEER.
19, 21, 23 and 25 Thirteenth street, near University place.
AT AUCTION THIS MORNING (FRIDAY), for account of an estate, at 10 o'clock.
The following desirable Horses, viz.:—
First—Bay Gelding, Trustee stock, 15¾ hands; bay, with black points; kind and gentle in double and single harness; 8 years old; bred by the late owner; a free and rapid roadster; with proper handling will develop speed.
Second—Bay Mare, same stock, age, size and disposition as above; has been driven as a mate, and, having had more handling, shows unusual speed in a green horse, and has very unusual bottom and wind.
The above horses have never been out of the possession of their late owner, are without fault or blemish and are unusually handsome animals. They are prompt and rapid travellers. As a team they are peculiarly adapted to a doctor or to any person requiring a pair of rapid and enduring horses.
Third—Roan Mare, Second Hambletonian, 15 hands high; very handsome; strong built; has never been out of the hands of the present owner, who raised her; has been driven in a lady's phaeton; 7 years old; quick driver; would make a beautiful and reliable saddle "cob" for lady or gentleman, and for excellent points cannot be surpassed; is without fault or blemish, and if at first apparently green, it is because never before in the city; she is a "filly," difficult to match in all respects.
Fourth—Bay Gelding, bred at Pittsfield, Mass., 12 years old; has been in possession of the late owner since a colt of 5 years; 15¾ hands; bay, with all black points; no fault or blemish; kind in double and single harness; of great endurance; full of style and go; now for the first time in this city.
Fifth—Kentucky bred Gelding, 10 years old, 15¾ hands; brown, with black points; trained as a saddle horse to every gait, but, owing to defect in sight, broken to harness; he is perfectly gaited and an unusually stylish driver.
Sixth—Desirable stylish Paris built panelled Coach, in good order and only requiring the paint to be retouched to place in perfect order; is very easy riding.
All of the above are offered without reserve, and will be knocked down to the highest bidder. They are an unusually attractive lot.
THE ABOVE ARE THE MANUSCRIPT DESCRIPTIONS OF THE EXECUTOR OF THE ESTATE, AND CAN BE RELIED UPON IN EVERY PARTICULAR. INQUIRE OF THE AUCTIONEER.
See catalogue in this column.
