AMENDMENTS TO THE
Constitution of the State of Louisiana.

STATE OF LOUISIANA.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

In pursuance of Art. 256 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, notice is hereby given to the electors of the State of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State, concurred in by two-thirds of the members elected to each House of the General Assembly of this State, at the regular session held in the city of Baton Rouge in 1882, and which are required to be published in two newspapers published in the parish of Orleans, and in one paper in each other parish of the State in which a newspaper is published, for three months preceding the next election for Representatives, at which time the said amendments shall be submitted to the electors for their approval or rejection; and said amendments appear more fully in Acts Nos. 76, 113 and 125 of the regular session of the General Assembly held in 1882, which are officially published for the information of the voters, and which will be submitted to them for their approval or rejection at the next general election, to be held on Tuesday, the 22d day of April, A. D. 1884, (it being the Tuesday next following the 3d Monday in April) in such a manner and form that the voters may vote for or against each amendment, separately; and if a majority of the Electors, voting at said election, shall approve and ratify all or either of said amendments, then such amendment or amendments or either of them so approved and ratified shall become a part of the Constitution.

ACT NO. 76

Of the Regular Session of 1882—Amendment to the Articles of the State Debt Ordinance of the Constitution of 1879.

Amendment No. 1.

STATE DEBT.

ARTICLE 1. "Be it ordained by the State of Louisiana, as ordained by law, That the State Debt Ordinance be amended so as to read as follows: That the interest to be paid on the Consolidated Bonds of the State of Louisiana, be, and is hereby fixed at ... per centum per annum for five years, from the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, (1880) and four per cent per annum thereafter, payable semi-annually; and there shall be levied an ad valorem tax sufficient for the full payment of said interest, not exceeding ... mills, the limit of State Tax for all purposes being hereby fixed at six mills; and said bonds and coupons shall be duly stamped: "Interest reduced to two per centum per annum for five years, from January 1st, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, (1880) and four per cent per annum thereafter."

Art. 2. "That the holders of the Consolidated Bonds may, at any time, in order that the coupons may be detached, present their bonds to the Treasurer of the State, or to agents to be appointed by the Governor, one in the city of New York, and the other in the city of London, England, and the said Treasurer or agents, as the case may be, shall indorse or stamp upon the bonds the words: "Interest reduced to ... per centum per annum for five years from January 1st, one thousand eight hundred and eighty (1880) and four per centum per annum thereafter," and said Treasurer or agent shall indorse or stamp on said coupons the following words: "Interest reduced to two per centum per annum," or, "Interest reduced to four per centum per annum," as the case may be.

ACT NO. 113

Of the Regular Session of 1882—Amendment to Article 146 of the Constitution of the State Relative to Fees and Charges to be Paid by Stamps in the Parish of Orleans.

Amendment No 2.

ART. 146. "All fees and charges fixed by law for the various Civil Courts of the parish of Orleans, and for the Register of Conveyances and Recorder of Mortgages of said parish, shall inure to the State, and all sums received therefrom shall be set aside and held as a special fund, out of which shall be paid, by preference, the expenses of the Clerk of the Civil District Court, the Clerks of the city Courts, the Register of Conveyances and Recorder of Mortgages of the parish of Orleans; provided that the State shall never make any payment to any Sheriff, Clerk, Register of Conveyances or Recorder of Mortgages of the parish of Orleans, or any of their deputies, for salary or other expenses of their respective offices, except from the special fund provided for by this article, and any appropriation made contrary to this provision shall be null and void."

ACT NO. 125

Of the Regular Session of 1882—Amendment to Article 81 of the Constitution of the State, Relative to the Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

Amendment No. 3.

ART. 81. "The Supreme Court, except in cases hereinafter provided, shall have appellate jurisdiction only, when jurisdiction shall extend to all cases where the matter in dispute, or the fund to be distributed, whatever may be the amount therein claimed, or the fund to be distributed, exceeds two thousand dollars, exclusive of interest; to suits for divorce and separation from bed and board; to suits for nullity of marriage; to suits involving the rights of slaves; to suits for interdiction; and to all cases in which the constitutionality or legality of any tax, toll or impost whatever, or of any forfeiture or penalty imposed by municipal corporation shall be in question, whatever may be the amount thereof, and in such cases the facts as well as the law and the facts shall be brought from the Court in which they originated to the Supreme Court; and to criminal cases on questions of law alone, whenever the punishment of death or imprisonment at hard labor may be inflicted, or a fine exceeding Three Hundred Dollars be actually imposed.

AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE 95

Relative to the Jurisdiction of Courts of Appeal.

Amendment No 4.

ART. 95. "The Courts of Appeal, except in cases hereinafter provided, shall have appellate jurisdiction only, which jurisdiction shall extend in all cases, civil or probate, when the matter in dispute or the funds to be distributed shall exceed one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, and shall not exceed two thousand dollars, exclusive of interest."

AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE 101

Of the Constitution of the State Relative to Trial of Cases in Courts of Appeal when Judges "disagree."

Amendment No. 5.

ART. 101. "Whenever the Judges composing the Courts of Appeal shall concur, their judgment shall be final. Whenever there shall be a disagreement, the two Judges shall appoint a lawyer having the qualifications for a Judge of the Court of Appeals of their Circuit, who shall aid in the determination of the case, a judgment concurred in by any two of them shall be final."

AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE 128

Of the Constitution of the State, "Relative to the Jurisdiction of Courts of Appeals for the Parish of Orleans."

Amendment No. 6.

ART. 128. "There shall be in the Parish of Orleans a Court of Appeals for said Parish, with exclusive appellate jurisdiction in all matters, civil and probate, arising in said parish when the amount in dispute, or fund to be distributed exceeds one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, and does not exceed two thousand dollars, exclusive of interest; said court shall be presided over by two judges, who shall be elected by the General Assembly, in joint session; they shall be residents and voters of the city of New Orleans, possessing all the qualifications necessary for Judges of Circuit Courts of Appeal throughout the State; they shall each receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars, payable monthly upon their respective warrants. Said appeals shall be upon questions of law alone, in all cases involving less than five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, and upon the law and the facts in other cases. It shall sit in the city of New Orleans from the first Monday of November to the last Monday of June in each year; it shall have authority to issue writs of Mandamus, Prohibition, Certiorari and Habeas Corpus in aid of its appellate jurisdiction."

AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE 135

Of the Constitution of the State, "Relative to the Jurisdiction of the City Courts of the Parish of Orleans."

Amendment No. 7.

ART. 135. "There shall be in the city of New Orleans four city Courts, one of which shall be located in that portion of the City on the right bank of the Mississippi river, presided over by judges having all the qualifications required for a District Judge, and shall be elected by the qualified voters for the term of four years; they shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all sums not exceeding one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, subject to an appeal to the Civil District Court when the amount claimed exceeds twenty-five dollars, exclusive of interest. The General Assembly shall regulate the salaries, territorial division of jurisdiction, the manner of executing their process, the fee bill, and proceedings which shall govern them; they shall have authority to execute commissions, to take testimony, and shall receive therefor such fees as may be allowed by law. The General Assembly may increase the number of City Courts for the said parish, not to exceed eight in all, until otherwise provided by law. Each of said Courts shall have one Clerk, to be elected for the term of four years by the qualified voters of the parish, who shall receive a salary of twelve hundred dollars per annum, and no more, and whose qualifications, bond and duties shall be regulated by law."

AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLE 130.

Of the Constitution of the State, "relative to the jurisdiction of the Civil District Courts of the parish of Orleans."

Amendment No. 8.

ART. 130. "For the Parish of Orleans there shall be two District Courts and no more. One of said courts shall be known as the 'The Civil District Court for the Parish of Orleans,' and the other as 'the Criminal District Court for the Parish of Orleans.' The former shall consist of not less than five judges, and the latter not less than two judges, having the qualifications prescribed for District Judges throughout the State. The said judges shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for the term of eight years. The first appointment shall be made as follows: Three judges of the Civil District Court, for four years and two judges, for eight years. One judge of the Criminal District Court, for four years and one for eight years, the terms to be designated in their commissions. The said judges shall receive each, four thousand dollars per annum. Said Civil District Court shall have exclusive and general probate, and exclusive civil jurisdiction in all cases, when the amount in dispute or to be distributed, exceeds one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, and exclusive appellate jurisdiction from the City Courts of the Parish of Orleans, when the amount in dispute exceeds twenty-five dollars, exclusive of interest. All causes filed in said courts shall be equally allotted and assigned among said judges, in accordance with rules of court to be adopted for the purpose. In case of recusation of any judge in any cause, such cause shall be reassigned, or in case of absence from the parish, sickness or the disability of the Judge to whom said cause may have been assigned, any judge of said court may issue or grant conservatory writs or orders. In other respects each judge shall have exclusive control over every cause assigned to him from its inception to its final determination in said court. The criminal District Court shall have criminal jurisdiction only. All prosecutions instituted in said court shall be equally apportioned between said Judges by lot. Each judge or his successor, shall have exclusive control over every cause falling to him from its inception to its final determination in said court. In case of vacancy or recusation causes assigned shall be re-assigned under order of court."

Given under my signature and Seal of the State of Louisiana, at the City of Baton Rouge, this 1st day of December A. D. 1883.

WILL A. STRONG,
d22 Secretary of State.

After contributing support to your local paper, your next duty is to secure for your household that publication from which you can gain the most information—a paper which instructs, entertains, and imparts useful information.
The Weekly Capitolian-Advocate
published at Baton Rouge, La., the Official Journal of the State of Louisiana, contains all advertisements of the State which are of interest to every citizen, and as a news journal, a résumé of all the most important Local, National, State and Foreign News, together with Editorial Comments upon the leading topics of the times, and Original and Selected Literary matter.

EVERY FARMER
Needs a reliable Live-Stock Journal, and we have made arrangements to furnish to our subscribers just such a journal. The Courier and the Breeders' Live-Stock Journal will be sent one year for the small sum of $3. Every subscriber will receive a large and fine engraving of the famous HEREFORD CATTLE.
Call at our office and examine this journal, and we are certain you will want it.

WISE people are always on the look-out for chances to increase their earnings, and in time become wealthy; those who do not improve their opportunities remain in poverty. We offer a great chance to make money. We want many men, women, boys and girls to work for us right in their own localities. Any one can do the work properly from the first start. The business will pay more than ten times ordinary wages. Expensive outfit furnished free. No one who engages fails to make money rapidly. You can devote your whole time to the work, or only your spare moments. Full information and all that is needed sent free. Address Stinson & Co., Portland, Maine. 25*
