MORNING LEADER

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 7, 1863.

General Meade on Loyal Leagues.

Now that Gederal Meade has, so far as reports reach us, made a splendid fight against the ablest and strongest rebel general and routed him, the Copperheads may be claiming him as a McClellan man of their own stamp. It is announced, however, that General Meade is a thorough believer in Loyal Leagues. The following is a portion of his reply to an invitation to be present at the Union Square League Mass Meeting in New York last April.—After stating that but for the pressure of military duties he would be present, he said:

My views, which you ask for, are very brief and simple. They are, that it is, and should be, the undoubted and unhesitating duty of every citizen of the republic to give his whole energies, and to contribute all the means in his power, to the determined prosecution of the war, until the integrity of the Government is re-established and its supremacy acknowledged.—Deprecating as useless all discussion as to the cause of the war, the fact of its existence, and the necessity for its continuance should alone occupy us.

For its success ul prosecution and termination, I am clearly of the opinion there is only required union and harmony among ourselves, and the bringing to bear men and means proportionate to the power and resources of the country.

For the purpose of securing union and harmony, I know of no measures better calculated than the organization of your National Loyal League. Its broad and simple platform is one to which citizens of all parties can readily subscribe; and I have no doubt its effect will be most salutary in proving, to those who are in arms to subvert the Government, that, whatever differences of opinion may exist on minor points, upon the main point of there being but one Government and one flag, we are determined and united.

I have the honor to be, sir,

Most respectfully, your obd't serv't,

GEO. G. MEADE, Maj.-Gen. Vols.

New Post Office Regulations.

The new law of Congress in regard to Postal regulations went into effect on the first of July. Some of the changes which it effects are very material, and important alike to Postmasters and the public, For instance:

1. No mail matter, printed or written can be delivered by the postmaster until the postage thereon is paid.

2. No box shall be assigned to any person until the rent thereof is paid at least one quarter in advance.

3. Postage on drop letters delivered at the mailing offices, two cents each for each half ounce, to be paid in stamps. If over half an ounce, two cents additional will be charged for each half ounce, or fraction of a half ounce.

4. Printed circulars, heretofore one cent, will now pay two cents.

The rates of newspaper postage, under the new law, after the first of July, 1863, will be as follows:

Daily, per quarter	35 cents.
Six times a week	30 "
Tri-weekly	15 "
Semi weekly	10 "
Weekly	5 "

Weight not to exceed four ounces.

Weekly newspapers pass through the mails free in the county in which they are published.

Papers exceeding four ounces, and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, as follows:

Weekly, per quarter	10 cents
Semi-weekly, per quarter	20 "
Tri-weekly, " "	30 "
Daily, (six times a week)	60 "

Failure to pre-pay letter postage will subject the letter to double postage when forwarded to the party to whom it is addressed—and hence it is necessary that persons mailing letters should see to it that their communications are covered with the requisite stamps.

A Good Return for Copperheadism.

When Lee was in Hagerstown, he paid his respects to sundry Copperheads, as follows:

"Simon Lechrone told the rebels he resided near Waynesboro, Pennsylvania, and was a good rebel. He had voted for Breckinridge, and now loved Jeff. Davis, while he detested Lincoln and Abolitionists.—They listened attentively, and at the close took twelve horses, and brought Simon to Hagerstown, where they insisted on his joining the army. Mr. Beard, of the same place, a devout Davis-worshipper, told them the same story. He owned but one horse. Two scouts took the animal, but said that inasmuch as Mr. B. was a good Confederate, they would restore the horse upon receipt of ten dollars in greenbacks. He gave the money, and received the halter of the horse in his own hands. But another scout rode up, and claimed a ten dollar interest in the horse. He was about to take him along, when Mr. B. handed him the money, with a groan, and received his quadruped from the hands of scout number two. Ere five minutes had elapsed another rebel rode the animal away."

THE POET ON A TRAIN; OR, The Romance of the Railroad.

By the Author of "Fair Inez," "The Prince of Wales," "The Ghost Hunters," &c., &c.

CHAPTER VI—ALL ASOARD.

Loud I laughed when on the platform,
But, alas all within my sleeve,
To think the people round me
Did the landlord so deceive;
So I said, "Now Mr. Landlord,
Are your pot in at the window
And saw him resolve his pay.

He his pay had all collected
As the whistle was heard half done,
Quickly "All aboard!" I shouted,
And made all the people run;
Out they rushed, all loud as blazes,
Swore the landlord was a cheat,
And with the railroad had combined
Then they should not half eat.

But the man who was the maddest,
Was the one who next me sat,
When o'er his person he had spilled
The contents his hat.
"Our army once in Flanders,"
Our army in the South,
Would blush to hear the curses
That proceeded from his mouth.

He swore on me he'd take revenge,
And was bound to have my life,
So he dashed from off the table quick
The landlord's carving knife,
And with the knife in hand to find me,
He looked madly through the car,
While I was in the depot hid,
Enjoying a segar.

When he saw he could not find me,
Soon after looking through the train,
Into the dining room he ran,
And I took my seat again
In the cars, which started off then,
And left him soon behind,
Looking raving in each corner
Of the depot me to find.

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

In the meantime I would announce to the public that I have brought home from the East the largest and most superb stock of fashionable

L. H. SOLOMONSON, PRACTICAL AND SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN

Keeps the largest assortment in the Optical line of any in the State. From his long residence in this City, and the extensive patronage received during that time, he would say to his old friends and the public generally, that no effort that could be put forth to secure the very best quality of Crystal Glasses, ground under his own inspection, to suit the eyes, in all cases curing weakness, dizziness or inflammation of the Eye, and imparting strength for long reading and fine sewing. The reputation of SOLOMONSON'S establishment as the most reliable by all the best articles in the line that can be obtained has become an established fact, and attested by his patrons, whose action is: GO TO SOLOMONSON'S, (make no mistake,) 135 Superior-St., under the American, and there you will find the best kind of SPECTACLES adapted to your sight.

Mr. Solomonson would here inform the public that he never employs any one in the sale of his Lenses, and those who desire a pair of his spectacles can only obtain them by calling at his establishment, as he never has them hawked about the streets.

MEDICAL SUCCESS

EXTRAORDINARY.

100 DOLLARS PREMIUM!!

SEMINAL WEAKNESS Or Spermatorrhœa, Gleet, &c., and IMPOTENCY CURED, AFTER ALL OTHER TREATMENT FAILS

DR. A. GIBSON,

Formerly of New York City, will pay One Hundred dollars for the proof that he ever fails to cure the above named diseases. He will pay the same sum for the proof that any other Physician in the United States treats the same diseases with equal success.

After many years of laborious study and experience, Dr. GIBSON is happy in being able to announce to the unfortunate, that he has perfected a system of treatment for

THE SPEEDY AND PERMANENT CURE of the above, and also all contagious diseases of the REPRODUCTIVE ORGANS, with all bad effects arising therefrom, including general DEBILITY OR NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

He has succeeded in curing cases in this city, some of whom had expended hundreds of dollars with self-styled physicians, who profess to treat all private maladies with secrecy, and without receiving the least particle of benefit.

Dr. GIBSON does not boast that he is a member of some College in London or Paris, nor perhaps some others do for the purpose of ensnaring the innocent, and who hold out great expectations never to be realized. But what Dr. G. might boast of is this, that he is able to give entire satisfaction to those who repose confidence in his ability and integrity, and that he has perfected an American system of treatment which challenges any Physician of London or Paris, or any patent medicine to equal for the radical cure of seminal weakness, and all diseases or derangements, both mental and physical, arising from sexual or secret abuse.

Dr. GIBSON also claims for his new treatment the following advantages over all others yet discovered; and first, the agents used are in no respect disagreeable; he uses no relics of the dark ages such as Mercury, nor any other deleterious drug; Secondly, no restrictions in diet or business is required; Thirdly, his treatment is positive and certain in all cases. He stands prepared to go into any public or private hospital in the United States and demonstrate the immense superiority of his new treatment over any other now known to the world in point of promptness, permanency of cure, safety and convenience to the patient.

Dr. GIBSON is permanently located in Cleveland, and has during the past three years performed many cures of diseases which had for years baffled all other modes of treatment. Reference can be given to individuals of the first respectability in Cleveland, Bona fide Testimonials, Certificates and all chronic diseases treated with superior success.

Medicine sent to any part of the country on receipt of ten dollars.
