Mrs. Elizabeth Stratman et al. vs. Thomas H. Handy.

FIFTH DISTRICT COURT FOR THE PARish of Orleans, No. 9486—By virtue of a writ of seizure and sale, to me directed by the honorable the Fifth District Court for the parish of Orleans, in the above entitled cause, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at the Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange, Royal street, between Canal and Customhouse streets, in the Second District of this city, on SATURDAY, March 8, 1879, at 12 o'clock m., the following described property, to wit—

1. RIGHT OF WAY.

1. ALL THE RIGHT OF WAY, AND POWERS, PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES AND FRANCHISES conferred and granted by the city of New Orleans to the Canal Street, City Park and Lake Railroad Company under an ordinance, number twenty-two hundred and sixty-four, adopted on the fifth day of August, 1873, by the Council of the city of New Orleans, and amended by ordinance number twenty five hundred and forty-eight, adopted March 24, 1874, by the said Council, as will more fully appear by reference to the said ordinances.

2. THE RIGHT OF WAY, FRANCHISES AND PRIVILEGES conferred by the said city of New Orleans through the following streets or avenues of said city, viz: Commencing at the corner of Basin and Canal streets, and thence down to Customhouse street, out Customhouse street to Claiborne street, down Claiborne to Bienville street, down Bienville street to St. Patrick street, to Metairie Road and Orleans Avenue, and through the City Park to the Lake Pontchartrain, thence along the lake shore to Spanish Fort, thence returning along the lake shore and through New Orleans Avenue to Bienville street and up Bienville street to Basin street, thence up the neutral ground in Basin street to Canal street, the place of beginning.

3. THE RIGHT OF WAY AND FRANCHISES from the Spanish Fort to the shell road on the upper or west side of the New canal, and from the said Spanish Fort to the town of Milneburg, with the right granted to said company to place their road-bed on the revetment levee when the same shall be built by the city of New Orleans, the said franchises giving the right of way along the lake shore from Milneburg to the aforesaid shell road, or what is known as the New Lake, and fully described in the said ordinances.

2. APPURTENANCES.

4. THE ROAD-BEDS OR TRACKS PROPER, as now laid and constructed through the avenues and streets herein before described in section second, and comprising all the iron T rails, bars and spikes, cross-ties, grading from Canal street to City Park, the bridge at the lake, bridges along the road, plank crossings through the streets, ballast or road-bed, three turntables, frogs and switches, grading and embankments from City Park to lake, grading and embankments from lake to Spanish Fort, and extra curve work and turnouts.

5. TWO HAND CARS, one Passenger Car number one, one open Passenger Car, one Box Passenger Car, one Remington Passenger Steam Dummy Car, and one Box Car.

3. MISCELLANEOUS PROPERTY.

6. TWO HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX RAILS, more or less, averaging about thirty-two tons, one Pilot or Cow-Catcher, three Iron Ash Pans, eight Iron Frogs, four Iron Drawheads, four Kegs of Old Iron, two Bundles of Shingles, fifteen Bundles of Fish-Plates or Bars, four Turn-Table Rollers, one Turn-Table Centre Plate, one Keg of Bolts, Work Bench and Tools in tool-house, etc.

4. REAL ESTATE.

7. A CERTAIN SQUARE OF GROUND, situated in the Faubourg Jackson, in the Second District of the city of New Orleans, in the square bounded by Customhouse, St. Patrick, Bienville and Olympia streets, designated as square number sixty-three on a plan drawn by John Schreiber, civil engineer, dated March 22, 1836, and, according to said plan, measuring three hundred feet front on each of said Customhouse and Bienville streets, and two hundred and ninety-seven feet front on each of said St. Patrick and Olympia streets, together with the cypress fences and all the buildings and improvements thereon, and all the rights, ways, privileges, servitudes and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

5. ROLLING STOCK.

8. THE THREE DUMMIES OR ENGINES known respectively as "T. H. Handy," "Geo. F. Brott" and "W. H. Bell."

9. ONE PASSENGER CAR, No. ELEVEN, one FLAT CAR or TRUCK CAR and one IRON TANK, together with all the movable property of said road. Being the same property acquired by defendant herein on the fourteenth of July, 1877, at a sale made by John R. G. Pitkin, acting as special master under an order rendered by the honorable the United States District Court for the District of Louisiana, dated May 31, 1877, in the matter of the suit entitled Edward P. Hampton et al. vs. Canal Street, City Park and Lake Railroad Company, in bankruptcy, and numbered 1513 of the docket of said court, as more fully appears by an act passed before Joseph A. Quintero, a notary public in this city, dated January 26, 1878.

Seized in the above suit.

Terms and Conditions—This being the second and last auction, the said property will be definitely adjudicated to the highest and last bidder for what it will bring, at twelve months' credit, the purchaser to furnish a bond, with good and sufficient security, bearing eight per cent interest per annum, from the date of sale, and special mortgage on the property sold until final payment, to pay and satisfy the amount of plaintiff's claim, say the sum of nine thousand four hundred and eighty-three dollars and thirty-three and one-third cents ($9483 33⅓,) with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum from the thirtieth day of November, 1877, to the day of sale.

2. The purchaser to assume (to the extent of the amount of his bid) the payment of a promissory note, secured by mortgage on said property, for the sum of nine thousand four hundred and eighty-three dollars and thirty-three and one-third cents ($9483 33⅓), drawn by defendant to his own order and by him indorsed, dated on the thirtieth day of November, 1877, and payable two years after date, and bearing interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from date until paid.

3. And for the balance of the price of adjudication, if any, the purchaser to furnish bond with good and sufficient security, bearing 8 per cent interest per annum from date, and special mortgage on the property sold until final payment.

Said purchaser will have to deduct from the amount of his bid and pay in cash the printing, sheriff's and clerk's fees, keeping, etc., which amount to about twenty-five hundred dollars, and, furthermore, the State, parish and municipal taxes, the amount of which is not yet ascertained.
