THE CHILDREN'S BILL.

The fight to prevent the unjust commitment of children by police magistrates which THE EVENING WORLD made last year with all its might, has now every likelihood of securing the desired results. The conversion of Mr. ELBRIDGE T. GERRY, the former head and front of the opposition to THE EVENING WORLD Bill, to an earnest advocacy of the points for which it contended, is one good result of this righteous agitation.

This paper has worked too long and too earnestly to secure the passage of this bill, whose principles Mr. ELBRIDGE T. GERRY has now espoused and is supporting with all his ability, to make approbation of either the present bill or the Commodore's enlistment in its favor at all necessary.

There is every prospect that this most desirable legislation will be speedily brought about. It is a question of justice to parents and to children as well as of abstract right. The provisions of the present bill are all that could be desired, and there is nothing at which any right-minded person can take exception. Mr. Gerry made at least a dozen drafts of the bill before he had made it as concise, as cogent and as unassailable as it is at present.

THE EVENING WORLD gladly co-operates with Mr. GERRY in this wise and charitable endeavor of his, just as it opposed him stoutly and constantly so long as he fought its passage. Success to the bill.

OUR RURAL MENTORS.

The rural legislators at Albany propose to investigate the local government of this city.

All right. If there is anything crooked or corrupt in the management of these concerns, every good citizen is interested in having it discovered, stopped and punished.

But is not "turn about fair play" in politics as in other matters? Why should not the Legislature order an investigation of truly rural affairs by a Committee of New York and Brooklyn members? It would be interesting to know why the bucolic gentlemen so strenuously oppose registration for themselves while insisting upon it for the cities; why they stick to low license for the rural saloon while crying for high license for the big towns; why they shirk their just share of the State taxes; why they fill the middle of their apple barrels with small and wormy fruit.

If there is to be an investigation let it be an "all around" one.

A SUBJECT FOR REGRET.

It is distressing to have an example of mortality from the deadly electric wire in which the smoking victim is debarred from any measure of sympathy. In most of the cases which have shocked the public as honest, hard-working lineman, in the faithful discharge of his duty as a bread-winner for wife and children, through some neglect on the part of the electric company has been cut off by a horrible death for which he was not responsible.

The report comes now of a man who deliberately fooled with a live wire "for fun," in the face of an earnest, explicit warning from the company that this was exceedingly dangerous. He was killed by this silly monkeying with the wire. The only sympathy one can feel here is that the man had so little sense as to find this dangerous trifling amusing.

The season is so badly mixed that snowballs may be manufactured from the Beautiful or gathered from the bushes in the garden. One has to keep a close eye on the calendar to know what month we are in. Yet even the youngsters have recollections of skating and coasting as native Winter sports.

A young man tried to get his wife to consent to a temporary divorce that he might marry a ninety-thousand-dollar girl. His wife was so unreasonable that she refused. The husband then married the girl anyhow. He is now lodged in jail and the $90,000 are as far away as ever.

SPOTLETS.

Among the products of this too, too early Spring is a healthy crop of snakes. There is a great deal of spring in a rattlesnake at all times.

Some of those people who are never content are trying to prove now that Adam and his family used to have the grip. This is the first case, then, where paradise came before the grip.

Miss Cammerer worked a "tufted tea rose" pillow for her darling old Muller. English breakfast tea rose, perhaps. That ought to be easy to make.

In Havana they are tanning hides by electricity. It is not stated whether the hides belong to linemen or not.

They had an earthquake in Austria, but it seemed a small shock compared to Rudolph's death.

The classes of 1900 will be naughty ones. Two naughty. '90? Yes.

For a man without headgear a soft hat is a short felt want.

A man with a plain marriageable daughter cannot be on a better street than Bread street.

BY TEN THOUSAND VOTES.

Miss Liebman's Big Lead in the Watch Contest.

Friends of the Other Ladies Rallying to Their Support.

While there are no changes in the relative positions of the leaders in THE EVENING WORLD'S Lady Teachers' contest, the situation is none the less exciting.

Miss Liebmann leads with the tidy total of 24,733 votes. Miss Cafferata and Mrs. Agnes G. Burns are having a lively struggle for second place, which the former holds with 14,183, against Mrs. Burns's 13,060 votes.

Miss Jarecki is fourth with 10,844, Miss Rudischhauser fifth with 3,581, and Miss Rose Mayer sixth with 3,581.

Any lady teacher in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut can be a candidate in THE EVENING WORLD'S contest. The teacher receiving the largest number of votes will be presented with an elegant gold watch, purchased from Edwin A. Thrall, of No. 3 Maiden lane. Mr. Thrall thus describes the prize:

The watch is one of the finest of movements. It is full-jewelled, with rubies, lever escapement and nickel finish. The cases are hunting cases, 18 carats fine, and very heavy.

They are made from uncut or antique gold, with twelve pigeon-blood rubies, twelve fine sapphires and twelve fine diamonds imbedded in the gold of the case. The price will be $400.

The watch is now on exhibition at Brentano's, 5 Union Square.

In all cases, where possible, indicate the number of the school, as well as city, with which the candidate is connected.

All votes must be on the ballot printed below. Cut out this blank, properly fill out and sign it, and send it to THE EVENING WORLD.

Conditions.

Any reader of THE EVENING WORLD may vote once only.

The vote must be upon the ballot printed in THE EVENING WORLD.

Only women who are actively engaged in teaching may be voted for.

The vote should give the full name of the teacher voted for, the school in which she is engaged and its location.

The candidate must be now engaged in teaching somewhere in the State of New York, New Jersey or Connecticut. She may be engaged in any school. There is no restriction as to grade.

Envelopes containing ballots must be addressed to Watch Contest Editor, EVENING WORLD.

Following is the vote of each candidate who has received over 25 ballots:
