WANTED—THE PATENT

AURORA OIL.

We want men everywhere to study their own interest. The right to manufacture and sell the Patent Aurora Oil in a single county will make more money to the purchaser in three months than the largest farm in your State will make in a whole year. The Aurora Oil actually costs less than one-half the price of Coal Oil, and the illuminating power of the Aurora Oil is so much superior to the Coal Oil as the Coal Oil is to a tallow candle, and is as much cheaper than a tallow candle. Any Lamp that will burn Coal Oil will burn the Aurora Oil. It does not smoke the chimney, it does not smell—it will not grease or stain the finest linen—not even white cloth. The material for its manufacture is inexhaustible. One man can make twenty-five barrels per day. No machinery required. We will pay your favorite agent from the city of Memphis and his wife to come to Louisville, Ky., if he can not, and even more, than we have stated. A single county in a small fortune to the man of enterprise and State right to a State is a mine of wealth.

BUSINESS.—We request that our advertising patrons hand in their favors at the Counting Room by six o'clock p.m., to insure insertion next day. Ordinary and health notices will be received at the Composition Room up to eleven o'clock.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Hereafter individual bills of any employee or proprietor of this paper will not be allowed as an offset against accounts for advertising. All bills against the APPEAL will be paid on presentation, and no bill will be allowed unless contracted by me or by my authority. JOHN AINSLIE,
Cashier and Business Manager.

A COW STEALER CAUGHT.—A cow thief has been caught at last, in the person of one Alex. Pool (colored). The facts of the case will be ventilated before Mr. Justice Wallen to-morrow.

A REBUKE.—Judge Waldron administered a severe rebuke in the Municipal Court yesterday, to Mr. Hitzfield, an attorney, for putting his name to cases with which he had no connection.

BANKING.—The attention of our readers is called to the card of Messrs. Campbell & Miller, bankers of New York city, which will be found in our columns to-day. Want of space prevents a more extended notice which will appear to-morrow.

STATEROOM ROBBERY.—The stateroom of Mr. H. Collins, on the steamer Great Republic, was entered Sunday morning, when a meerschaum pipe, a brown linen rocco satchel and ten handkerchiefs were stolen. The goods were valued at $40. No trace of the goods or thief as far as heard from.

COMMON CARRIERS.—Mr. Geo. Moore, formerly of the metropolitan police, who is now a conductor on the City Railroad, ejected a negro named Bob Church from his car, for which he was arrested by officer Selkirk, and had to put up a forfeit of $25. The case will come up at the second district station to-day at four o'clock.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL.—As will be seen, this eligible and fine hotel is for rent. Those who wish to rent could not select a more conveniently located hotel—it being on the corner of Front row and Jefferson street, on one of the greatest thoroughfares in the city, and fronting the landing of all the regular packet lines.

A COAT THIEF.—Overcoats are now, owing to cold winds, becoming an absolute necessity. A Beechwife, named Tom Johnson, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Justice Miller for stealing an overcoat from John Shaw, up in Pinola. Officer Chamberlain, of the Metropolitan Police, made the arrest. Tom will have a hearing to day.

ARKANSIANS.—Quite a number of representatives from this great and glorious territory are in town. Among them we note Mr. D. B. Turner, Mat. Mallory, Al. Dupin, and last, though not least, Dr. Guy R. Smith—all these hail from Searcy. From Duvall's Bluff, we find Capt. Bancroft—the gay and festive Bancroft. From the load of "truck" brought on the Commercial, we judged a number of Arkansians had landed here.

HANDED OVER.—John Grant, arrested some time since on a charge of forgery and perjury, was, by the civil authorities yesterday, handed over to the military commanding the post, as a deserter. The particulars of this forger, deserter and perjurer, formerly connected with the Freedman's Bureau, have already been published in full. In addition to other crimes he wrote his own discharge from the service. He is skillful with the pen, and doubtless thought it mightier than the sword. He was after money, not fame.

A MACKEREL IN LUCK AND A COTTON BROKER UNLUCKY.—On Sunday afternoon when the bookkeeper of Messrs. Clark & Smith, cotton brokers, 254 Front street, up stairs, had gone out for five minutes, he returned to fine two hundred and twenty-one dollars abstracted by an adroit thief. The bookkeeper happened to leave the safe open, super-inadvertently. It is probable that such a transaction could not be committed in so short a time. There is very little chance for the conviction of the thief, since the description of only two or three of the stolen bills is remembered. Very probably a mackerel dished up this prize.

THE LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—We feel it is only necessary to remind them of the lecture to be delivered at the Greenlaw Opera House to-night by Capt. Jno. H. Pippin, for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the Confederate soldiers. The captain has chosen for his subject, "Men, Women and Things," one that will give him full scope for his well known talents. Let the house be filled. Admission only fifty cents. The widows and orphans of the fallen braves need that, provision and clothing, now that the cold weather has set in. Do not let it be said that our people will see the hungry go without bread
