BRIEF MENTION.

HIS EXCELLENCY Gov. Dominis paid a visit to the Russian war vessel on Thursday, and on leaving, the usual salute was fired.

A PUBLIC LIBRARY.—For a well-written essay on our need of a public library in Honolulu, see fourth page of to-day's paper.

CIRCUIT COURT, KAUAI.—On Tuesday last His Honor Justice McCully, of the Supreme Court, sailed for Kauai to hold the term of Court for that circuit. Messrs. Hartwell, Brown and Bickerton also went as counsels.

FORGOTTEN.—Among the omissions by the Legislature was the important subject of Chinese immigration, which is steadily going on with absolutely no women. But perhaps it may be held that the Board of Immigration possesses the power to make needed regulations; and if so, let us hope that it will attend to the duty without delay.

VETOED.—Among the bills returned to the Assembly without His Majesty's approval was the much discussed measure for again licensing the sale of opium to Chinese. It will be remembered that there were several petitions forwarded to the King against re-opening the traffic. Another bill which fell through, as we hear, through a clerical error in engrossing, was that for reorganising the Board of Health.

CLOSING HOURS.—Last Friday the Assembly voted a gratuity of $1,000 for the Hon. Noble P. Y. Kaeo, the cousin of Queen Dowager Emma. On the following day Mr. Kaeo asked that the vote be reconsidered, and then moved that the item be indefinitely postponed, which was done. A resolution was adopted on Saturday, expressing the appreciation of the Assembly of the valuable services rendered by the Hon. Mr. Carter as Envoy to the Courts of Europe. On Tuesday morning the usual vote of thanks was tendered to the Hon. Godfrey Rhodes, President of the Assembly, to which that gentleman made an appropriate response.

MORE CHINESE.—The bark Undine, which arrived on Sunday, brought forty Chinese passengers, and the brig Elise, on Tuesday, brought twenty-four—from Hongkong.

THE WELCOME RAIN.—After weeks of dry and dusty weather, Honolulu was favored with a refreshing shower on Wednesday evening, the rainfall amounting to about a quarter of an inch. We can take a good deal more.

DOGGEREL.—Pluming the wings of his muse for an ambitious flight on the adjournment of the Legislature, our devil succeeded in producing the following verse:

"One sweetly solemn thought
Comes to me o'er and o'er—
The Legislature now adjourns,
And will be seen no more."

MORE IMPROVEMENTS.—We note preparations by the well-known house of Bolles & Co. for the erection of a two-story fire-proof brick store on the site of their old stand, Queen street. During the construction of the new building—which is in the hands of Mr. Baker, the builder and architect—Bolles & Co. will occupy the store next door to the north.

A BENEFIT.—We learn that the Honolulu Minstrels and other performers will, on Wednesday evening next, give an entertainment at the Royal Hawaiian Theatre for the benefit of the Company of Honolulu Engine Company No. 1. The boys of No. 1 deserve a rousing house, which we hope they will have—for we don't forget that they recently favored the public with a first-class ball.

AN ATROCIOUS PUN.—It is astonishing to what lengths the habit of punning may carry a man. Here is one that we find going the rounds of the American papers:

An exchange has learned that Miss Lulu Prange, of Brooklyn, is to have an elegant sandwich dinner, whereupon the Philadelphia Bulletin, unmindful of the fact that Miss Prange is not a Sandwich Highlander, says "it's an effort to Honor-lulu."

MUSIC.—The band will play this afternoon at Emma Square, at 5 o'clock. The following is the programme:

Overture, Opera—"Fra Diavolo" (new)	Auber
Cavatina, Opera—"Lucia"	Donizetti
Waltz, "Leading Article"	Strauss
Selection, Opera—"Simon Boccanegra"	Verdi
Fantasia, "Russian Songs" (by request)	Riviere
Polka, "Annen"	Strauss

The last moonlight concert in this month will take place on Tuesday, August 13, in Emma Square at the usual time.

NAVAL.—The Russian war ship Kreyaser arrived on Monday, 12 days from San Francisco, and exchanged salutes with the shore. The following is a list of her officers: C. N. Nasimoff, Captain; P. R. Boyle, Commander; N. P. Narbont, First Lieutenant; W. P. Padalka, Second Lieutenant; O. L. Radloff, Third Lieutenant and Paymaster; W. N. Sasonoff, Fourth Lieutenant; N. M. Romascheff, M. I. Afanazieff, W. P. Jourkofsky, M. P. Lamanaff, Sub-Lieutenants; N. L. Chuproff, Navigating Officer; K. P. Ivanoff, P. A. Tumanoff, Assistant Navigating Officers; A. P. Leontieff, Chief Engineer; L. A. Ziem, N. A. Bierstadt, Assistant Engineers; S. M. Afanazieff, Doctor; and 150 seamen.

—We learn that H. B. M.'s ship Opal was to leave Esquimault, V. I., August 1, for this port. She will be due next week.

Supreme Court—July Term, Continued from 15th July, 1878.

(July 16. Chief Justice Harris presiding.)

Kuahane et al. vs. Kalu.—Ejectment. Jury waived. J. M. Davidson for plaintiff; A. S. Hartwell for defendant. The Court said, after hearing the testimony and the arguments of counsel, that the judgment would be two-sixths of whatever the yearly value of the land might be, taken from the date of the ouster. Mr. Hartwell excepted to the ruling.

(July 17. Present on the bench, Chief Justice Harris and Judd and McCully, J. J.)

Kuamu, w., et al. vs. Kaelen, w.—Appeal from the decision of the Chancellor in Equity. J. M. Davidson and Castle & Hatch for the complainant; E. Preston and C. Brown for the defendant appellant. The Court heard further testimony and the arguments of counsel, and took time to consider of its decision.

Atong vs. Man Chuck.—The Court having he
