A $24,000 PASTURE FOR HER COW.
Ohio State Journal.
Historians tell of the host of ancient times who dissolved a pearl in vinegar and drank a fortune at a single draught, and newspapers tell of J. P. Morgan's $3.85 cigars, but these exponents of the art of extravagance are badly outclassed by a Columbus woman.
How does one pearl dissolved and swallowed compare with a $24,000 pasture, maintained for one cow? Don't a $3.85 cigar look small when it backs up against a quart of milk that costs from $4 to $8?
This is no fiction, for the cow and the pasture are in Oakwood avenue and Mrs. Snyder, who owns them, lives in a modest home nearby.
The pasture consists of a square of land between Oakwood and Wilson avenues in the eastern part of the city, and real estate men have made every possible effort to buy it at the price stated, as it is very desirable for building purposes, but the woman has steadily refused to sell, saying she wants it for a pasture for her cow, and despite their pleading and the counsel of her family she persists in her determination and the cow chews her cud while she gazes reflectively at rows of handsome residences and at automobiles passing and repassing on a fine asphalt street, for the building of a large part of which the woman paid.

State of Minnesota, County of Hennepin—ss.
Whereas, the petition of John W. Pray, Nellie A. Hubachek, A. J. Wallin, George J. Hoffman and B. E. Walsh, bearing date September 10th, 1904, has been filed in the office of the undersigned auditor of said county, praying for the establishment, widening, deepening, straightening and improving of a public creek, drainage ditch or water course, along the route proposed therein;
Now, therefore, notice is hereby given of the filing of said petition and that the same will be heard and determined by the Board of County Commissioners of said County of Hennepin in the State of Minnesota, at a session of said Board to be held at the courthouse in the city of Minneapolis, Minnesota, on the 5th day of December, 1904, at 10 o'clock a.m.
A true copy of said petition is as follows, towit:
"To the Honorable, the Board of County Commissioners of Hennepin County, Minnesota:
The undersigned, land owners whose lands will be liable to be affected by or assessed for the expense of the construction and improvement of the creek, drainage ditch, or water course hereinafter described, respectfully represent that the public health, convenience and welfare require the widening, deepening and straightening of the said creek, drainage ditch, or watercourse along the following described route in the town of Orono in said Hennepin county. That the widening, deepening, straightening and improvement of said creek, drainage ditch, or water course, would be of public benefit and utility and is necessary for the following reasons, towit: for the purpose of removing the stagnant water and miasma, and preserving the public health and for the reclamation of a large amount of land to agricultural purpose, now wholly useless and unfit for any purpose.
The general description of the proposed starting point, route and terminus of the said creek, drainage ditch or watercourse and of the widening, deepening, straightening and improvement of the same is as follows: Commencing at a point where said creek, drainage ditch, or watercourse flows from Long lake in section thirty-five (35), town one hundred eighteen (118), range twenty-three (23), thence following the outlet of said lake through said creek in a southwesterly direction through the lands of the undersigned, to a point where the said creek, drainage ditch or watercourse crosses the west line of the northeast quarter (N.E. ¼) of section three (3), township one hundred seventeen (117), range twenty-three (23), upon the land of John C. Hursh.
And your petitioners pray that you will proceed to widen, deepen, straighten and improve the said creek, drainage ditch or watercourse as provided by chapter 258 of the General Laws of 1901, as amended by chapter 38 of the General Laws of 1902, and chapters 178, 311 and 315 of the General Laws of 1903.
