STOCKS STILL MAKING GAINS

Strong Buying Keeps Amalgamated Copper to the Front, While Steel Holds Second Place on a Good Demand.

While the stock market to-day again showed a lack of interest by public buyers, it had an excellent tone throughout. The opening was cheerful and prices advanced all around up to the noon hour, when a slight reactionary tendency became evident. On to the final dealings, however, the market developed further strength and activity and the list made new advances all around, although during the last hour speculation eased off.

Amalgamated Copper continued to hold the central position in the dealings and on notable buying advanced over 3 per cent.

Next in strength was Steel, the preferred selling up more than 2 points, while the common gained over 1 per cent.

Canadian Pacific, Baltimore and Ohio, Chesapeake and Ohio, St. Paul, Louisville and Nashville, the Missouri, Kansas and Texas issues, New York Central, Pennsylvania, Reading, Rock Island, Southern Pacific and Union Pacific at times occupied leading positions at gains of from 1 to more than 2 per cent.

The vigor of Brooklyn Rapid Transit was the feature of the Tractions, the price advancing more than 1 per cent.

Advances of from 3-4 to 1 per cent. were scored in the Erie issues.

A movement in New York Central during the afternoon session sent the price up almost 4 points on good buying.

A gain of 9 per cent. in Great Northern preferred, without attracting attention, was decidedly suggestive.

Colorado Fuel & Iron, Sugar, and Tennessee Coal & Iron were conspicuous.

Bonds were strong.

The total sales of stocks were 916,600 shares and of bonds $4,149,000.

BEAR HAMMERING WEAKENED COTTON

Cotton opened steady to-day in the market with the list showing losses of from 2 to 5 points. Good supporting orders absorbed the offerings for a time, but persistent bear hammering, notably in March, weakened the list, and prices declined about 7 to 8 points below yesterday's final figures.

LONDON STOCKS FIRM BUT QUIET.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—Money was in good demand in the market to-day, and the tendency was toward supplies being scarcer as the year-end approaches.

Operators on the Stock Exchange were much relieved at the conclusion of the account without the disclosure of difficulties. Prices were firm and business was quiet. Consols were higher. Home Rails had a slightly better tone.

Americans opened firm, were generally maintained at above parity, became inactive and closed firm.

Internationals were cheerful. Imperial Japanese sixes of 1904 were quoted at 95 1-8.

Distinctive Overcoats for Men

At Twenty Dollars

Indicative of the absolute perfection to which we have reduced our system of tailoring is this: Not one per cent of our overcoats at twenty dollars demand more than a minute alteration to make them ready for service—good service under the most trying conditions. Whether it be a coat which defines the form or one that is draped over it, a subtle grace of line and contour and infinite style mark the garment if it be our label which identifies it. The collection includes box models 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52 inches long; tourist models, single or double breasted, with or without belt; paddocks and palztot overcoats in an extensive variety of fabrics and designs.

Distinctive Suits for Men

At Fifteen Dollars

Constancy of purpose has ever marked the conduct of this clothing business of ours. Though conditions have conspired to develop the demand for our more costly suits, we have been faithful to the basic purpose—the tailoring of really high-grade ready-for-service garments at a modest price. At fifteen dollars our stock affords an extensive collection of suits which establish their right to rank with the suits that our contemporaries offer at eighteen and even twenty dollars—establish it by the power of serviceable fabrics, and tailoring which expresses a full measure of character and individuality.

Six single-breasted models in twenty distinctive styles of fabrics.
Four double-breasted models in sixteen distinctive styles of fabrics.

Embracing cheviot, thibet, worsted, cassimere, tweed and winter weight homespun in a most exhaustive collection of the season's most exclusive designs and colors.
