HELP WANTED—MALE

TO PRINTERS.

To compositors, machine operators, make-up and stone hands of ability, permanent positions at eighteen (18) dollars per week of fifty-four hours are offered in open shop offices of the members of St. Paul Typothetae.

This is an opportunity of a lifetime to secure the positions of men who have quit, by order of the typographical union, positions they have held for years.

The members of the Typothetae have taken a firm stand for the Open Shop and will not recede from that position, as is evidenced by the fact that they have made many personal contracts, guaranteeing employment for from one to three years, and are willing and ready to make more contracts with workmen of ability.

St. Paul is a law-abiding city, and men taking positions here will be protected from violence.

Make application at once to the undersigned, naming two references and giving the name of your last employer.

The St. Paul Typothetae,
109 National German Am. Bank Bldg.,
St. Paul, Minn.
