LABLACHE FACE POWDER

(THE QUEEN OF TOILET POWDERS)

MME. SARAH

BERNHARDT

THE WORLD'S GREATEST ARTIST WRITES:

Monsieur Benjamin Levy a Boston:

Votre poudre Lablache est absolument de premier ordre. Elle est délicieuse et je la préfère à toutes autres. J'ai le plaisir de constater que votre poudre est remarquablement soignée. Il en est d'ailleurs ainsi pour tous les produits de votre fabrication.

Recevez tous mes compliments.
Sarah Bernhardt.

Your Lablache Powder is absolutely of the first order. It is delicious, and I prefer it to all others. I have much pleasure in stating that your Powder is most carefully prepared, as are also your other products.

Receive all my compliments.
Sarah Bernhardt.

"There is scarcely a single cause in which a woman is not engaged in some way fomenting the suit."—Juvenal.

One of the beautiful spring receptions was given this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Nootnagel, 2429 Girard avenue S. The hostesses were Mmes. Nootnagel, Adam Pickering, Charles O. Johnson and Julius C. Johnson. Three hundred invitations had been issued and the guests called in groups from 2 to 4 o'clock and from 4 to 6 o'clock. An orchestra played as the guests were received in the reception room, which was decorated with palms and ferns and large clusters of pink carnations.

Harry Johnson, as page, ushered the guests and Marion Johnson received the cards. The long living room was in red, and the mantel and fireplace were completely hidden under the glossy green of palms and ferns. In the Dutch window was a tangle of ferns and tall palms drooped their broad-fingered leaves over the piano. On the table stood a basket with red tulips and tied with a red bow and the wall pockets were filled with red blossoms. The shades were drawn and the softening light of red tapers illumined the rooms.

In the dining room yellow was the chosen color. A handsome basket of yellow daffodils centered the table and on either side of it were yellow tapers. The sideboard and the china cabinets were banked with green.

Mrs. F. A. Watson was the hostess in the dining room and assisting in serving were Misses Irene Johnson, Charlotte Feely, Nettie Kellie, Florence Qualley, Blanche Kellie, May Kidder and Mildred Gamble. The women who assisted thru the rooms and who alternated in pouring coffee in the dining room were Mmes. William Gardner, William Kellie, T. N. Kenyon, W. A. McVoy, D. D. Ray, John Branyon, Henry Hanke, Thomas Feely and John Hickerson. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Paul Fish, Miss Maude Tubbs and Miss Marjorie Vance.

Mrs. Henry C. Aldrich and Mrs. Oscar K. Richardson were hostesses at a charming reception this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Richardson, 1814 Dupont avenue S. The hours were from 3 to 6 o'clock and about 250 women called. Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Aldrich received alone in the drawing room which was decorated with great bunches of pink carnations and pink tulips. Assisting thru the rooms were Mmes. Nathan H. Chase, H. N. Chadborne, Harry T. Rawson, Asa R. Wilcox and E. L. Ogilvie of St. Paul, Misses Stickney and Evelyn Stickney. The dining room had a charming setting of pink roses and pink candles gleaming in a tangle of green, and in the den, where frappe was served by Mrs. Ogilvie, the decorations were in red with poinsettias and tulips to accentuate the rich hangings and furnishings. The same color scheme of red was carried out in the reception hall. As the guests came and went a string orchestra played an informal program of reception music.

This evening Dr. and Mrs. Richardson will be hosts at a party for the members of the Delta Upsilon fraternity and their wives.

Mrs. George A. Rose entertained this afternoon at her home, 617 Ninth avenue S, in honor of Miss Gertrude Satterlee. Thirty guests were invited to meet the bride and during the afternoon they showered her with fine hosiery for her trousseau. Mrs. Rose was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Sweatt and Mrs. Frank Wilcox. The rooms had charming decorations and fragrant blossoms suggested the coming of spring. Daffodils and tulips were in the living room and in the parlor, and the dining room was all in red, with a large centerpiece of tulips and carnations. Several delightful vocal numbers were given by Miss Louise Pye, Mrs. Fred Gray, Miss Ruth Barber and Mrs. L. Evarts, who also recited. Mrs. Charles Simpson gave an interesting reading.

Mrs. Sidney Butler Dean, nee Northup, gave her last postnuptial at home this afternoon at her residence on Summit avenue, St. Paul. Receiving with Mrs. Dean were the same group of matrons who assisted her at her first at home and Mrs. Newton Griggs. Spring flowers formed a pretty setting for the rooms.

For twenty-one years Minneapolis people have looked on the annual charity ball by the Zuhrah ladies as an event of particular interest. Never yet have the women failed to prepare for a delightful evening, and the affair last night in Masonic Temple surpassed all anticipations in its beautiful appointments. Washington's birthday anniversary gave ample scope for lavish decorations, and the great ballroom presented an attractive sight, hung with large silken flags and draperies, with a mass of smaller flags radiating from the center of the ceiling. An arch shaded in deep crimson spanned the ballroom and on either side rows of white and blue lights completed the national colors. The full orchestra played behind a bank of palms and ferns, and while the guests assembled for the reception preceding the ball the musicians played a delightful program of reception music. Three hundred guests were present and danced the sixteen numbers.

The grand march formed at 9 o'clock and was led by John G. Lund and Mrs. C. M. Rawitzer. An interesting feature of the evening was the fancy dances by Miss Geneve Rawitzer. Mrs. C. M. Rawitzer was the chairman of the arrangement committee and was assisted by Mmes. James Ells, John Lund, Horace Myers and Ralph Young. On the reception committee were Mmes. John G. Lund, Clarence M. Rawitzer, James F. Ells, Henry C. Hanke, W. H. Reed, Thomas Voegeli, Fred Salisbury, Ralph J. Young, Will A. Elliott, F. J. Meyst, E. W. Kittredge, Otto R. Fehlbaber. The floor committee was composed of Chauncey E. Foster, Joseph L. Brown, Charles A. Hoffman, Wilford A. Merriamn, William M. Walker, James A. Falconer, Fred C. Barrows, Harry W. Huntington, Charles E. Ovenshire, John C. Hornbrook.

Mrs. George E. Hyser entertained a group of ten guests at the Kaiserhof last evening, preceding the Zuhrah ladies' ball. Jonquils centered the table.

Last evening the Inter-ring fraternity gave a dancing party in Mrs. Noble's hall on Hennepin avenue. The fraternity is composed of members of fraternities of the East and Central high schools and the class colors were represented in the decorations. James Courtney, Asa Hunter and Robert Dickinson were in charge of the arrangements and about 200 young people danced.

Miss Mabelle Darrow and Miss Ruth Eddy entertained the King's Daughters yesterday afternoon, at the home of Miss Darrow on Park avenue. The guest of honor was Miss Elizabeth Pratt, whose marriage to Harper McCrea of Brooklyn, N. Y., takes place this spring. The rooms were decorated with flags, and the lights were shaded in red. In the dining room a large basket of red tulips was in the center of the table and red candles were used. Dainty refreshments with cherries were served. Gifts were presented to the bride from a huge colonial hat.

The marriage of Miss Louise Annabelle Armstrong and Burton D. Sprague of Minneapolis, whose engagement was recently announced, will take place at the home of the bride in Merriam Park Thursday, March 1.

Miss Georgia Risdon entertained at a delightful Washington party Wednesday evening at her home on Twenty-second street for a group of twenty of her friends. The decorations were in red, white and blue. Tulips and other spring blossoms were in low baskets and bowls, and smilax banked the buffet table in the dining room from which the refreshments were served. Misses Griffith and Jessica Davidson gave a musical program.

Miss Daisy Rudloff of 415 East Sixteenth street gave a Washington party las tevening. Progressive cinch was played and hatchet score cards and Washington buttons were the souvenirs. Supper was served in the dining room, which was draped in the national colors and the table was decked with carnations and smilax. There was music during supper. Present were Misses Grace Russell, Belle Rochette, Viola Rochette, Minne Thayer, Bessie Thayer, Messrs. Ralph Thayer, O. Fusselman, Will Rochette, R. T. Root, Harry Richards, E. Jahnke.

Miss Elizabeth Morrell and Siegfried L. Hestbeck were married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary C. Burchard, 1625 Stevens avenue. Rev. L. T. Guild read the service. Mr. and Mrs. Hestbeck are at home at 329 East Sixteenth street.

Miss Nellie Heth of Shakopee, Minn., and F. H. Faber of St. Paul were married at the Immaculate Conception parsonage Wednesday. The bride was attended by Miss Carrol Strait of Shakopee and the groom by C. Thomas Schutz of Minneapolis. The wedding breakfast was given at the residence of J. M. Schultz. Mr. and Mrs. Faber left for a brief trip to Cuba. On their return they will make their home in St. Paul.

A grand charity benefit ball will be given Thursday evening, March 29, at the New Richmond halls, Third avenue S and Fifth street, for the Jewish Sheltering home fund. A. T. Feinberg, who is prominent as a leader for the opening of such a home, with the committee and other influential people in Jewish circles, have called a meeting for Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in Temple Aaron. Tickets for the charity ball will be on sale at the clerk's desk, West hotel, at the Hotel Hyser and at Hotel Rogers.

Talks for Fisk University.

Miss Frances L. Yoemans of Fisk university, Nashville, Tenn., is with Mrs. H. N. Bye, 2210 Oakland avenue, during her stay in the city. Miss Yoemans will remain in Minneapolis thru March and will speak in many of the churches and before the different societies in the interests of the university. She was connected with Fisk for about twenty years and has been in the American missionary field for almost twenty-five years. She spent part of the week in Duluth and Superior and Sunday morning she will speak in Como Avenue Congregational church and in the evening she will tell of what is being done at Fisk in Merriam Park. She has been wonderfully successful and has raised considerable money for the Fisk fund.

Annual Meeting.

The eighteenth annual meeting of the Sunday School Teachers' Graded union was held yesterday afternoon in the assembly rooms of the Y. M. C. A. building, and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. W. A. Morse; junior vice president, Mrs. C. W. Briggs; primary vice president, Mrs. S. L. Donnell; first year beginners vice president, Miss Emily Bryant; second year beginners vice president, Miss R. B. Turnbull; secretary, Mrs. C. W. Briggs; treasurer, D. W. Ham; pianist, Mrs. W. H. Ferguson; librarian, Miss Edith Watson; corresponding secretary and press correspondent, Miss Beatrice Longfellow.

An interesting paper was read by Miss Minnie Turnbull on the history of the union since its organization, eighteen years ago. The former president, Mrs. C. W. Wells and Mrs. Mattie Phipps Todd, also gave short accounts of the early days of the union. Mrs. Briggs reported that fifty meetings had been held during the year. Mrs. Ham, the treasurer, stated that the income during the last year had been $224.34 with an equal expenditure.
