The Report of the Corruption Committee.

The select committee report that O. B. Matteson, a member from New-York, had induced parties deeply interested in the Desmoines land grant, to supply themselves with and use large sums of money and other considerations corruptly, for the purpose of procuring the passage of a favorable joint resolution through the House. That Matteson, in stating that a large number of members had pledged themselves to each other not to vote for any bill, granting money or lands, without being paid for it, had willfully defamed the character of the House, and was unworthy to be a member thereof; and that he be expelled.

The second resolution charges Wm. A. Gilbert, another New-York member, with corruptly agreeing with a Mr. Triplett of Kentucky, to secure the purchase by Congress of certain copies of a book of the said Triplett, and that Gilbert was to secure part of the appropriations for the purchase of said book. That Gilbert also voted for the Iowa land bill for a consideration of seven square miles of land and some stock; expulsion is recommended.

W. W. Welch, a member from Connecticut, is also implicated with the aforesaid Gilbert in the book purchase, and charged with an attempt to procure money from Triplett, through a Mr. Sweeney—which charge the following order would appear to sustain—being produced by Mr. Sweeney, during his examination upon that point, who says he paid the proceeds of the order to Gilbert, his name being used in the order to secure Gilbert:

"The clerk of the House of Representatives will pay to J. R. Sweeney out of the appropriation in behalf of me for certain copies of my work on the pension, bounty land, and other laws, passed at this session of Congress, the sum of fourteen thousand five hundred dollars ($14,500), for which this shall be the receipt.

August, 1856. F. P. C. TRIPLETT."

Mr. Sweeney testifies to being present and was a party to the agreement between Triplett and others, by which Gilbert & Co. were to receive the amount of the above order, and Gilbert himself told him of the bargain for the seven miles square of land and other considerations. Welch's expulsion was recommended forthwith.

The committee recommend the expulsion of Francis S. Edwards, of New York, for holding out a pecuniary consideration to Mr. Paine of North Carolina, to induce him to vote for a grant, to secure the appropriations of land to aid in the construction of a railroad in Minnesota.

The testimony of Sweeney, Triplett and others, before the committee, goes to establish these charges against Gilbert and Welch beyond a doubt. Sweeney (who is an ex-messenger of the House) was acting medium between Triplett and the two members in the book purchase. Triplett stated in his testimony, that "nobody who knew the organization of Congress, expected to carry anything through in mercy from love of justice." In reply to Mr. Orr, he said "that is the general reputation of Congress."

Mr. Paine testified to having been offered $1500 by Mr. Edwards to vote for the Minnesota land bill. Mr. Valk of New York, also testified to having been approached by Mr. Edwards on the same subject, but that he replied to his overtures by telling him that his "vote upon that measure would be controlled entirely by the merits of the bill."

Mr. Wm. C. Johnson, President of the Desmoines Navigation Company, of the State of Iowa, testifies to receiving a note from O. B. Matteson signed O. Bell, suggesting the appliance of pecuniary aid in the passage of large land appropriations to the aforesaid Company.

H. A. Daniels presented the note referred to by Mr. Johnson:

[Private.] WASHINGTON, July 15, 1856.

DEAR SIR—The committee in our House have agreed to report your resolution in Minnesota to 272,000 acres, or as you wished it, but there is much trouble in the way. Some outsiders make mischief. Are you willing to let your fourth of the factory be cut up and used to carry it through, in addition to what Stryker arranged? I can have some agent promise outsiders stocks in a new factory. Let me know without fail by the return mail. Truly, O. BELL.

W. C. JOHNSON, Esq.

Reverdy Johnson (counsel for the Demoines Navigation and Railroad Company) testified to the statement of Mr. Matteson, that there were some twenty or thirty members of the House, who were pledged to each other, not to vote for any land or money appropriations without being paid for it; and that Mr. Johnson, President of the above Company, must have on the spot $100,000 to get his bill through, etc.

Gen. Stryker of Rome, New York, and a Director in the above Company testified to making a draft in favor of Horace Greeley, as a retainer for counsel and advice in aid of procuring the passage of the bill for the benefit of the Company.

The evidence given by H. J. Raymond, editor of the N. Y. Times, was unimportant and equivocal. The martyr, Simonton, stands in no enviable position before the country. His evidence as given before the committee, does not even command the respect of his own confederates in corruption, and much less of the disinterested world outside. All honorable men will spurn him. The Committee recommend his expulsion from his seat as reporter of the House.

The result of the investigation by the Committee, composed as it if of members of all parties, goes far to establish that reputation for Congress, assigned to it by Mr. Triplett in his testimony—"that Congress does not mete out justice merely for the love of it."—The suspicion long entertained by the public—that Congressional legislation is controlled to a greater or less extent by the omnipotence of the money power, is now established by incontestible facts.

The Committee recommend the passage of a bill to protect the public against fraud. Its object is to prevent combinations to effect the passage of or defeat measures before Congress, and to prohibit persons from approaching members on the subjects of Legislation before them; the offence to be considered a misdemeanor and punished with fine and imprisonment. It is not believed that such a bill will pass the present House.

TRANSPORTATION OF MAILS TO CALIFORNIA. Gen. Rusk's Senate bill, which it is thought will supersede all others, provides for the conveyance of the entire letter mail from such point on the Mississippi river as the contractors may select to San Francisco, for six years, at a cost not exceeding $300,000 per annum for semi-monthly; $450,00 for weekly, or $600,000 for semi-weekly service, to be performed with good four-horse coaches, or spring wagons, suitable for the convenience of passengers, as well as the safety and security of the mails, within twenty-five days for each trip.

NOTICE TO LIQUOR DEALERS AND MERCHANTS.

A COMPLETE assortment of the Oils necessary for making and flavoring every variety of liquor, and a package of the articles used for giving ARTIFICIAL STRENGTH to liquors, (converting 50 gallons of Whisky to 100 gallons) and every article necessary to commence a LIQUOR STORE, will be furnished for $20. Also all the information necessary to conduct such an establishment, thus enabling the new beginner to successfully compete with the oldest liquor dealers.

Address, through the Post Office, P. LACOUR, New Orleans.

Lacour's Concentrated Acid for making Vinegar, is put up in two gallon packages at $5 per package—in good shipping order. jan5

QUIT DRINKING POISONOUS LIQUORS.

PATENT IMPROVED PROCESS FOR MAKING

All Kinds of Liquors and Vinegar.

INSTANTLY, by the use of

LACOUR'S ESSENTIAL OILS.

These Oils are obtained by Distillation at the Chemical Laboratory, Parish of Jefferson, of Pierre Lacour, author of Lacour's Chemical Analysis, Lacour's Chemical Manipulations, Lacour on the Manufacture of Liquors, &c.

Purchasers are particularly requested to return the flasks and obtain their money, if the oil does not give perfect satisfaction.

LACOUR'S OIL OF COGNAC converts neutral spirit to a superior imitation of Imported Brandies, viz: Otard, Sazerac, Marett Cognac, Poulinay, Seignette, United Vineyard Proprietors, Castillon and London Dock Brandies.—These liquors will have a full fruity flavor and a beautiful, sparkling color. Common Rectified Whisky will be changed by the use of the Oil of Cognac to New York Brandy, Pale Apple Brandy, Common Cognac Brandy, &c.

LACOUR'S OIL OF RYE changes Rectified Whisky to Monongahela Rye Whisky, Old Virginia Malt Whisky, Bourbon Whisky, &c.

OIL OF CEDRAT changes common Rectified Whisky to Old Irish Malt Whisky, and a superior article of Scotch Whisky.

OIL OF PEACH changes common Whisky to Virginia Peach Brandy, &c. Oil of Punch and oil of Cognac will convert common Whisky to Apple Brandy.

OIL OF GIN converts the poorest Whisky to Holland Gin, Schiedam Schnapps, Rose Gin, Swan Gin, English Gin, &c.

LACOUR'S CONCENTRATED ACID will, in five hours after being mixed, change five gallons of good Vinegar and twenty-five gallons of water to thirty gallons of the most acid Vinegar that can be found in the market. By the use of Lacour's Concentrated Acid, Vinegar can be made for one dollar and sixty cents per barrel.

FOR MAKING LIQUORS, Lacour's Oils require no preparation—merely pour the oil into the whisky and shake well. The liquors thus made will have a fine natural aroma, a full, rich, oily taste; a beautiful transparent color and a fine head. Lacour's oils exert three distinct properties in converting common whisky to brandy, gin, &c. The first property combines with and solidifies the form of fecultent particles the whole of the grain oil, (Amylic Alcohol.) The whisky is thus depressed of that peculiar irritating and burning taste, and becomes a neutral spirit; the second property consists in an oily mucilaginous taste imparted to the liquor, which renders it smooth to the palate, and gives it the appearance of great age; the third property is exhibited in the rich vinous nutty odor that is imparted to the liquor, which renders distinction from the genuine brands impossible.

These oils are put up in quart flasks; each flask contains sufficient oil for making three hundred gallons of liquor.—Full and comprehensive directions accompany the bottles. Price $2 per bottle.

For sale at the corner of St. Charles and Poydras streets.

One bottle of these oils, five in number, will be securely sacked and shipped, with bill of lading to any part of the country, upon the receipt of money.

P. LACOUR, New Orleans.

Purchasers are requested, as a guarantee of good faith, to furnish us the name of any house in New Orleans and we will ship them a package of the Oils. If they do not perform all that is claimed for them, they will cost nothing. jan5-ly
