Indiana Officers' Guide and Farmers' Manual.

THE sale of the entire first and second editions of this work and the numerous and continued calls of those in want of a copy, have induced the publishers to offer to the public a new, enlarged and, it is believed, much improved edition. Some alterations have been made in the arrangement of the work, and a considerable amount of matter that is of but little use has been omitted, and an addition of near one hundred pages of new and useful matter introduced. A concise treatise upon Law of Evidence and Partnership has been prepared and introduced, which will be useful to Justices who are almost daily called upon to decide embarrassing questions of law which arise upon these subjects, also, a Table of Interest calculated from one day to twelve months inclusive, which will be found useful to every man.

The publishers are entitled to give an assurance that this work has been prepared and gotten up with great care and labor by a gentleman of the best qualifications, and as far as changes have been made in the statutes since the publication of the last edition, and so far as they come within the scope of this work have been carefully noticed and introduced in their proper places.

It is a safe and sure guide to direct the office holder in a proper and legal discharge of his duty, and give aid to the farmer, mechanic and business man in the dull transactions of business in drawing Deeds, Mortgages, Leases, Bonds, Wills, Checks, Notes, &c. &c. This work is printed on good paper and in a superior style, and bound in a neat sewing binding. It contains 425 royal duodecimo pages.

The price will, IN ALL CASES be ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS for a single copy. A reasonable deduction made to those that purchase to sell again. Address letters post paid to

WM. STACY & Co., Indianapolis.

NECESSITY HAS NO LAW.

BEING under the imperious necessity of raising money or procuring judgements, to satisfy the pressing demands of my creditors, I beseech for the last time (at my expense,) call on all those indebted to me, either by note or book account, to come promptly to my assistance; and either by paying the cash of confession judgements, save the cost that will otherwise be unavoidable. Let none indulged, think themselves not included in this notification. My necessities cannot, nor do include all. As look out! Country produce of all kinds, will be taken in exchange for Black Smith work, at market prices, if delivered when the work is done or as near as agreed upon at the time. Cash, though hardly expected, will not be refused. Every effort will be made to render satisfaction, by diligent good work and making moderate charges; but the credit system must be abolished.
