Indiana Officers' Guide
AND FARMERS' MANUAL.

THE sale of the other first and second editions of this work and the numerous and continued calls of those in want of a copy, have induced the publishers to offer to the public a new, enlarged, and, it is believed, much improved edition. Some alterations have been made in the arrangement of the work, and a considerable amount of matter that is of but little use has been omitted, and an addition of near one hundred pages of new and useful matter introduced. A concise treatise upon law of Evidence and Partnership has been prepared and introduced, which will be useful to Justices who are almost daily called upon to decide and answer questions of law which arise upon these subjects; also, a Table of Interest calculated from one day to twelve months inclusive, which will be found useful to every man.

The publishers are enabled to give an assurance that this work has been prepared and gotten up with great care and labor by a gentleman of the best qualifications, and as far as changes have been made in the statutes since the publication of the last edition, and so far as they come within the scope of this work have been carefully noticed and introduced in their proper places.

It is a safe and safe guide to direct the office holder in a proper and legal discharge of his duty, and give aid to the farmer, mechanic and business man in the daily transactions of business in drawing Deeds, Mortgages, Leases, Bonds, Wills, Checks, Notes, &c. &c. This work is printed on good paper and in a superior style, and bound in a neat sew binding. It contains 324 neat duodecimo pages.

The price will, in all cases be ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS for a single copy. A reasonable deduction made to those that purchase to sell again. Address letters post paid to
