THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING AT TAKOMA TRINITY CHURCH TODAY.

Miss Dorsey and Mr. Lightfoot Married—A Marriage Way Down in Mississippi—Personals.

Miss Virginia Dorsey and Mr. James Herndon Lightfoot were married today at high noon at Trinity Episcopal Church, Takoma Park, D. C., the Rev. David Barr officiating. The church was prettily decorated by the Daughters of the King. The bridal procession was led by a vested quartet, composed of Miss Virginia Goodwin, Miss Beatrice Goodwin, Miss Fox and Miss Taliaferro, from the choir of St. Andrew's Church of this city, who sang the wedding march from "Lohengrin." Following the quartet were the ushers, Mr. Benjamin S. Minor of Washington, Mr. Wallace Anderson of Takoma Park, Mr. Clarence E. Dawson of Washington and Mr. John Turner Lightfoot of Virginia, a cousin of the groom. Miss Virginia Wynkoop, a little cousin of the bride, prettily dressed in white, scattered white roses along the aisle, in advance of Miss Virginia Carter of Virginia, also a cousin of the bride and who was maid of honor. Miss Carter was beautifully gowned in white organdie and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bride entered the church with Mr. G. Chapin Lightfoot, the groom's brother, and was met at the chancel steps by the groom and his best man, Mr. Peter Kemper, jr., of New York. The wedding gown was of white organdie and satin, and the tulle veil was fastened with orange blossoms and pearls, the latter a gift from the groom's mother. The bride carried only a white prayer book, from which the service was read. After the ceremony the newly wedded couple returned from the altar to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March rendered by Mt. Stratton, the organist of St. Andrew's Church.

A wedding breakfast was served at the residence of Mrs. Dorsey, only the relatives and the bridal party being present. Early in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Lightfoot left for a northern trip, including Buffalo, Niagara and points in Canada.

The bride is the only daughter of the late Rev. James Owen Dorsey, who was well known in the scientific and literary world and who had received many decorations of honor from foreign countries for his work in the field of ethnology.

The groom is a member of the District bar and a son of the late Colonel Charles Edward Lightfoot of Virginia, favorably known as a scholar and instructor.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Andrews sailed today for Bremen.

Miss Alta Kelly of Kosciusko, Miss., and Dr. Clifton Power Clark, formerly of the same place, and now of this city, were married last week at the Methodist Church at the bride's home. Three floral arches of field flowers, cape jessamines and magnolias, respectively, entwined with box and smilax, spanned the central aisle of the church, and another arch of ascension lilies and smilax was above the chancel. Miss Florence Latimer of Chicago and Miss Katherine Davis of Kosciusko were bridesmaids, and Mr. Charlton M. Clark of this city best man for his brother. The aged pastor of the church, Dr. Alexander, who had officiated at the marriage of the bride's parents, performed the service. Owing to a recent bereavement in the family of the bride the original plans for the reception and banquet were changed, and the bride and groom, after partaking of luncheon with the bridal party at the home of the bride's father, left on the evening train for Washington, New York city and other eastern points. As the couple entered the train which was to bear them on their wedding journey they were pelted with a profusion of roses, cape jessamines, carnations and other flowers by their many friends who were at the depot to see them off. The bride's dress was of duchess satin, trimmed with point lace. Her tulle veil was surmounted with a wreath of orange blossoms, held in place by a diamond brooch. She carried a bouquet of Nephitis roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were gowned in white organdie and carried bouquets of roses and carnations. The couple received many valuable wedding presents.

Senator Chauncey M. Depew and his niece, Miss Anna Paulding, will sail for Europe on the St. Louis June 26.

Mrs. Ella M. Miskimon of Harper's Ferry is spending this week with Mrs. Hattie Hess at 1109 B street southeast.

Miss Ellen Wattles Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Alexander Lee of 1202 K street, and Mr. James Rutherford Craighill will be married this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Church of the Ascension.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Voight and wife and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mitchell are late arrivals at the Raleigh Hotel, Atlantic City.

Mrs. Helen M. Comstock, daughter of the late William C. Graham, who up to last Saturday has been visiting in Washington, will sail in a few days from Boston for a year's tour of the British islands and the continent.

The marriage of Miss Mary M. Bowling and Mr. Thomas R. Asquith took place at St. Paul's parsonage yesterday at high noon in the presence of a large circle of friends and relatives. Rev. T. R. Walsh of Galveston, a cousin of the bride, officiated. The bride was handsomely gowned in mode crepe de chene and carried bride's roses. She was given away by her brother, Mr. Ernest B. Bowling. After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride, where a breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Asquith will spend their honeymoon at Blue mountain.

The marriage of Mr. W. A. Clark, jr., and Miss Mabel Foster will take place tomorrow at Butte, Mont., and will be witnessed only by a gathering of relatives. A large reception will follow previous to the departure of the couple for the east. They will go to Europe July 16.

REPORTS PROGRESS.

Committee to Collect Relief Funds Holds a Meeting.

The committee of North Carolinians organized a week ago for the purpose of raising funds for the relief of the flood sufferers in Bakersville and Mitchell county, that state, held a second meeting at the National Hotel last night. James M. Moody, elected chairman at the first meeting, presided. Reports were made showing that about $50 had been raised since the first meeting, and the work of soliciting was still going on. John H. Shultz of Winston-Salem, who is connected with the office of the District recorder of deeds, was made general solicitor of contributions, with instructions to make a report next Saturday night, when another meeting of the committee will be held.

J. C. L. Guyder of the Treasury Department reported that he had collected $13.75, and promised additional subscriptions to the fund. A. S. Brown had collected $12.50 at the census bureau. Other members of the relief committee reported that they would apply for permission from the various departments to solicit subscriptions. In addition to these amounts the following individual subscriptions were added to the fund: H. C. Tyson, $2; Charles E. Lane, $2; John B. Loftus, $2; Hunter Arnold, $2, and W. N. Newbold, $1.

A committee composed of B. H. Graves, S. E. K. Buchanan, Hunter Arnold, James Cassidy and Albert S. Brown was appointed to consider the feasibility of giving an entertainment for the benefit of the sufferers.

The following subscriptions have been received at the office of The Evening Star for the benefit of the Mitchell county, N. C., flood sufferers:

Heretofore acknowledged	$9.50
L. A. Abernethy	3.00
J. C. L. Gudger	5.00

CENTRAL LABOR UNION.

Committee to Further Legislation in Interest of Workingmen.

James H. Bowman, president of the International Union of Printing Pressmen, now in session in this city, addressed the meeting of the Central Labor Union held last evening at Typographical Temple. Mr. Bowman, who is also president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, spoke principally of the importance of local central bodies in the work of advancing the cause of organized labor.

At the conclusion of the address the speaker was presented with a copy of resolutions previously adopted by the Central Labor Union extending through the officers of the body "a fraternal greeting and also its good offices in the transaction of its business and the comfort and pleasure of the delegates attending the thirteenth annual convention of the International Printing Pressmen's Union."

The committee of the union appointed to confer with the committee of the Washington Bar Association engaged in revising the District code relative to labor legislation reported that the measures desired by the committee could not be inserted in the code, and the committee was directed to prepare and submit the various measures to Congress.

The committee to arrange for the celebration of Labor day at Glen Echo reported that in addition to the usual program a social meeting or reunion of organizations will be held, at which addresses will be delivered by prominent speakers interested in the cause of labor. Additional members to the general excursion committee were appointed as follows: John L. Cochran, Walter A. Thompson, George B. Hedges, Chas. E. Deitrich, W. A. Morrison, J. Clarke, Milton Snelling, George B. Squire, H. F. Speakman, R. B. Wheeler and Frank Lyons.

UNDER ASSESSMENT SYSTEM.

Public Work Ordered by the District Commissioners.

The District Commissioners have ordered that the following work be done under the provisions of the assessment system, the same having been duly advertised:

In Memoriam.

CASEY. In loving remembrance of our daughter and sister, NELLIE HARVEY CASEY, who died three years ago today, June 18, 1898.

Sleep, daughter, dear, thy task is o'er;
Those loving hands shall toil no more;
No more those tender eyes shall weep;
Sleep, dearest daughter, gently sleep.

BY HER LOVING PARENTS, SISTERS AND BROTHERS.

JOHNSON. In loving but sad remembrance of our dear mother, MARY J. JOHNSON, who died three years ago today—June 18, 1898.

Sleep on, dear mother,
Take thy rest;
We love thee well,
But God loves thee best.

HER DAUGHTERS, H. DABNY, MARY ROY.
