DEPOT HOUSE.
THE subscribers would respectfully announce to the travelling community that they have taken the above stand at the northern end of the
M. and I. Rail Road, and the above establishment having undergone as thorough repairing as circumstances would permit, they flatter themselves that they will be able to give entire satisfaction to all that may favor them with a call.
Their Table
Will be spread with every thing that is calculated to allay the appetite of a hungry man, and to encourage those that are more timid.
Their stabling is convenient and comfortable and is always filled with wholesome provender of every variety for the horses kind, and attended by careful ostlers. Persons wishing to travel north, will find this the most desirable point to start from, either by stage or otherwise, as there is a train weekly (not that leaves this place for Indianapolis.
The subscribers would also state that they can be accommodated as heretofore, and to the former customers of this House, we say to you give us a call once at least.

JAMES M. SMITH.
RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he is in receipt of the latest fashions, and is prepared to cut and make garments in any style to suit his customers. He warrants a neat fit and good work. For the very liberal patronage bestowed on him, he is thankful, and respectfully solicits a continuance.
Garments can have their orders executed in the shortest possible time, and at moderate charges. His shop is two doors east of Browning's Hotel. 20-3m

ARE YOU HUNGRY!
I HAVE hams, tongues and provisions generally, for sale at a very low price, considering their superiority. Also, confectionery and preserves for the children; cakes for the bearded; candies for house keepers, but none for old maids, unless they buy my beautiful complexion soap, the perfume of which is unsurpassed. I have cakes for impatients, and pies for the lazy. Oysters and fish, fresh and cheap as potatoes. I have plenty of custom and am making money! G. E. HEDDERLY, opposite Palmer House.

"I WON'T DO IT."
WHY don't you get your shoes where I told you? "I won't do it." Why, where do you get your shoes now? and I might as well get pay that way, as be gone to cash. Well, you get some pay that way, if you like; I shall buy my shoes of McGINNIS & CO. Their shoes I like better, because they are better made, cheaper, and I do not get my death a cold after wearing them a week. Well, suppose I do like; it is better to pay the Shoemaker than the doctor. Harsh but true. McGINNIS & CO., opposite the Palmer House. 20

CAUTION.
NO shoes or boots, warranted or passed ever so high, are of our manufacture, unless obtained directly at our establishment, where they are made by the best workmen, and of the best stock. Ladies in particular should be cautious of buying anything represented to be of our manufacture, except at our store. None others are genuine. 20 McGINNIS & CO. Opposite Palmer House.
