

Husband (during a domestic difference)—I don't know how it is that you have such a bad temper. Wife (with whom patience had ceased to be a virtue)—It's because I've kept it too long, far too long. No wonder it's bad.—Grip.

Yabsley—A man of your sense ought to know better than to be so superstitious. What is there in the number thirteen that should make it unluckier than any other? You can't show a single instance to support your belief.

Mudge—I can't eh? Where are the people who lived in the thirteenth century? Every last one of them is dead.—Indianapolis Journal.
