From Blackwood for Oct.

HOPE.

BY SCHILLER.

We speak with the lip, and we dream in the soul,
Of some better and fairer day;
And our days, the meanwhile, to that golden goal
Are gliding and sliding away.
Now the world becomes old, now again it is young,
But "The Better" for ever the word on the tongue.

At the threshold of life Hope leads us in—
Hope plays round the mirthful boy;
Though the best of its charms may with youth begin,
Yet for age it reserves its toy.
When we sink at the grave, why, the grave has scope,
And over the coffin Man planteth—HOPE!

And it is not a dream of a fancy proud,
With a Fool for its dull begetter;
There's a voice at the heart that proclaims aloud—
"Ye were born to possess the Better!"
And that voice of the Heart, O ye may believe,
Will never the Hope of the Soul deceive!

The Prospect Brightens!

From the Troy Whig.

The loss of Ohio already begins to produce a salutary effect upon New-York. The Whigs of the Empire State at last perceive that on them the duty again devolves of staying the tide of Loco-Focoism, and turning it back into its legitimate channels. Their old war-spirit revives at the thought. The veterans of the GRAND ARMY of 1840 again gather round their Eagles. The young warriors are rallying in every valley, and on every hill-side. The din of preparation begins to resound through the State, awaking those who sleep, and stimulating to action by fresh inducements, those who are already up and doing. To ARMS! To ARMS! is every where the cry.

Well is it that it is so. The alarm bell with its "metal storm-voice" cannot ring out too loud—the trumpet cannot sound too fiercely—the spirit-stirring drum and ear piercing fife cannot strike upon the hearing too sharply in the present crisis. NEW-YORK MUST STAND FIRM, or all is lost! New-York must STAND FIRM, or the country will again be deluged by the black waves of Loco-Focoism rolling their pestilential, Dead Sea waters over the reviving industry of the people, and poisoning and suffocating the very germs of the nation's strength. No matter it every other State in the Union bows before this noxious blast. So long as New-York holds herself erect, and stays the progress of the Destructive principle, ALL WILL BE WELL. Her two millions of freemen will form a reserved corps of Republicans powerful enough in any emergency, to keep the field until the next Presidential election shall again rally the great army of Harrison, under the banner of Harry of the West.

We say, "the prospect brightens." And we say it without exaggeration. For, so far as our own, and the neighboring counties are concerned, the spirit which pervades the Whig ranks, is of the most enthusiastic character. The Young Lion of the West, also is beginning to growl as the evil genius of Loco-Focoism approaches his territory, and will soon put his huge paw upon him and crush him. In the Southern tier of counties, the old fires are blazing up again, and bid fair to light up a general conflagration from the banks of the Hudson to the shores of Lake Erie. The long "neglected" North is also rallying in support of her Bradish; nor do the fires of her furnace re-kindled by the benign influence of the Tariff, burn, more brightly than does the indomitable Whig spirit in the breasts of her hardy sons. Every where, in fine, the OLD GUARD are sounding TO ARMS with their ancient energy. The war-cry is pealing from a thousand hills, and on the 8th of November they will re-assert their claim to the proud title of the Bravest of the Brave. "The old guard never surrenders."

NEWSPAPER STATISTICS.—In France, under the old constitution, they had what was called the Tiers Etat, or Parliament, which in finance and power was a large part of the realm. In this country, and indeed in Europe also, the Press has become the Tiers Etat, which though not vested by the Constitution with the forms of power, holds very much of the substance. The following is the number of the different classes of newspapers and periodicals in the United States, arranged according to rank:—

	Dailies.	Weeklies.	Semi-W.	Perod.
New-York,	34	198	13	57

It seems there are but five States in the Union which have not daily papers, there are but four which have not periodicals

In the following table will be found the proportion between the newspapers of the United States and the white people. Had the blacks been included, it would have made a change in the proportions of the Slave States. The table, however, developes some instructive facts.

Louisiana	1	in 4,573	Illinois	1	in 9,153
Mississippi	1	in 5,821	N. Jersey	1	in 9,325
Rhode Island	1	in 6,000	Missouri	1	in 9,235
Michigan	1	in 6,400	Delaware	1	in 9,370
Massachusetts	1	in 7,019	Georgia	1	in 10,270
Connecticut	1	in 7,049	Ohio	1	in 10,760
Maryland	1	in 7,775	Tennessee	1	in 11,537
New York	1	in 8,271	Alabama	1	in 12,060
Pennsylvania	1	in 8,528	Maine	1	in 12,230
N. Hampshire	1	in 8,623	S. Carolina	1	in 12,700
Arkansas	1	in 8,700	Kentucky	1	in 12,980
Vermont	1	in 8,858	Virginia	1	in 14,125
Indiana	1	in 9,025	N. Carolina	1	in 17,500
Slave States	1	in 10,787	Free States	1	in 8,285

The above proportions are worth looking at.—The following conclusions may be drawn:

1. Three of the oldest and most influential States of the American Union, viz: Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina, have the smallest proportional number of newspapers, (as they have also the fewest persons who know how to read,) to the white population; but if the blacks be included, they fall far behind.
2. Where newspapers most prevail, as in Massachusetts, New-York, &c., there are also most schools—most enterprize—most wealth, and most progress. The conclusion is not, that newspapers occasion these results, but that the Press and Intelligence go together—mutual helps to each other.

The proportional number of papers appears large in Louisiana and Mississippi; but this is caused by two evident facts:—Each of them has large commercial towns, and each more blacks than whites; the proportion being taken only in respect to the latter.

The subject is important in more respects than one. If the press be thus numerous and powerful, how is a nation to be purified in its morals unless the press be purified? That which is seen, read, heard every day, like the air we breathe, will communicate strength or weakness, healing or disease. [Cincinnati Chronicle.

☞ The National Ægis says that our fellow-citizen, P. P. F. Degrand, who has done very much for the prosecution of the great enterprise of the Western Railroad, and who is himself a large stockholder as well as a Director, recently presented and defended a claim upon the Board for $200,000, as compensation for services rendered in seeking the assistance of the State by a grant from the Legislature. The Board have unanimously refused any allowance, and a suit at law is hinted at. [Boston Mercantile.

☞ The Nashville papers state that General JACKSON has entirely recovered from the injury received by the upsetting of a carriage.

STOVES.

STOVES.—HOWE'S Patent Stove, for heating Parlors, Halls, &c., and there probably is not a Stove for sale in this city that contains (in so small a compass) all the advantages this Stove does, for neatness of appearance, economy in fuel, and for emitting a soft and pleasant heat, it is not surpassed by any, and equalled by very few, if any; and while I am about it I should like to call the attention of the public to those Stoves for sale in this market that are only got up to look at, and not for service and utility; there is considerable creaking about hollow boxes or hearths, to warm or dry the feet upon. I would merely ask the question, would a hearth or base made of sheet iron stand much pitting feet upon it for that purpose? I think not, therefore I would caution the public to buy such Stoves only as have been well tested and tried. This Stove has a cast iron hearth and two doors in front, one for putting in coal and the other to show the fire, thereby giving a very cheerful appearance, and at the same time brings an open fire convenient for warming or drying the feet. It may be seen at the Fair next week; and is for sale at the Manufactory, No. 229 Water-street, and also at 25 and 125 Bowery, and at Powell & Vining's, Brooklyn.

PROF. ORR'S AIRTIGHT STOVE. The undersigned are the only agents for vending and selling the above article in the City of New-York. Of their utility and superior excellence certificates from persons of the first respectability may be seen at the store. We guarantee against any explosions if put up according to our directions. We have also an improved Airtight Stove.

SPOOR'S celebrated PATENT COAL STOVES, designed for Stores, Offices, Halls and Parlors.—These Stoves are acknowledged by all who have used them to supersede any other kind ever offered to the public. They can now be had at greatly reduced prices—one-third less than formerly—owing to the depressed state of the times. Those wishing to purchase Stoves for the above purposes are requested to call and examine for themselves at 65 Chatham-street, it being the only place where they can be obtained in this city. N. B. Spoor's Stoves repaired. BENJAMIN ARMSTRONG.

THE KITCHEN COMPANION.—The true and genuine article, without the 'improvement' of dished bottom oven plate, which is calculated to collect soot and prevents the draft. This Stove that has been in use and so highly approved by all who have used them may be had at the following places, at prices to suit the times: William Wills & Co., 179 Greenwich-street; William H. Sweet, 204 Canal-street; R. E. Peterson, 144 Bowery; J. S. Madison, 362½ Grand-street, and C. Cadle, Jr., 45 Harrison-street. o24 1m

GREAT ATTRACTION.—The subscriber, (successor to L. V. BADGER, formerly doing business at 250 Water-street, and the original Agent for vending and selling Professor Orr's Patent Air-tight Stove in this City,) would respectfully inform the public that he has taken the store No. 251 Water-street, two doors from Beekman, where may be found a complete assortment of the above Stoves, new style, and at reduced prices. Over Five Thousand of these Stoves were sold in the City of Boston last season, and found to be the most economical in the consumption of fuel of any Stove heretofore introduced. They are recommended particularly by Physicians, for heating rooms for the sick; and persons afflicted with consumption have found great relief by the use of this Stove, he air produced being of more even temperature than can possibly be produced by any other Stove now offered to the public. Also, Wilcox's Air-tight Stove for wood—a beautiful article, together with Badger's Patent Air-tight coal Stove, designed for Stores, Offices, Halls and Parlors, a very cheap and economical article. A printed direction accompanies all the above Stoves. Please call and examine for yourselves before purchasing elsewhere. Recollect the number. D. D. WENDELL, No. 251 Water-st.,

DEAFNESS CURED.—SCARPA'S Acoustic Oil for the cure of Deafness, Pains, and the discharge of matter from the Ears; also, all those disagreeable noises, like the buzzing of insects, falling of waters, whizzing of steam, &c., which are symptoms of approaching Deafness, and also generally attendant with the disease.
☞ Read the following most extraordinary Cure: If any have bad doubts, they may now dismiss them, and the most incredulous may consider Deafness as curable. Numerous cases of cures, and many of them very remarkable, by the use of "SCARPA'S OIL," have been published, but this caps the climax. Young or old, you may yet recover your hearing.
A lady in Smithfield, Pennsylvania, and now about eighty years of age, had been gradually getting deaf for more than forty years, so that it was next to impossible to make her hear conversation in the loudest tone of voice. Last winter she was induced to try "Scarpa's Oil for Deafness." It is only necessary to add, that she has used two bottles, and that her hearing is perfectly restored—she is cured. Any information in relation to the case may be obtained at the store of DR. JAYNE, PARR'S LIFE PILLS.—The immense increase of the sale of these Pills for the short time they have been introduced into this country, is truly astonishing, and a convincing proof of the conquering power of this fine herbal medicine in remedying disease. At this season of the year, when the system is relaxed by the heat of summer, a course of this invaluable medicine will clear off the sour and bad humors which heat invariably generates. The liver, which generally gets sluggish, will be put into healthy action, and thus be able to perform the function allotted to it, the body altogether will be reinvigorated, and prepared to undergo whatever change the winter may bring on. In bilious complaints, heavy colds and inflammations, they afford a speedy relief, and to the female constitutions they are principally applicable, as many who have tried them can certify. In fact, every one who has used Parr's Life Pills seems to be instilled with new life, so their fine, tonic properties invariably restore the stomach to a healthy longing for food, sound sleep, and all the concomitants attendant on good health. The extent to which they are used in Europe, among all classes of society, is beyond conception, for more than 30,000 boxes are there sold weekly, showing that all who use them appreciate their worth. They are sold exclusively by the following agents, viz:—Rushton & Aspinwall, druggists and chemists, 68 William street, 116 Broadway and 10 Astor House.

Abraham Sands & Co., druggists and chemists, granite buildings, 273 Broadway, corner of Chamber street.

DEAFNESS CURED.—Messrs. Editors: Having seen advertised in your paper and some others, SCARPA'S OIL for DEAFNESS, I felt (being a sufferer myself) an unusual anxiety to know more about the medicine; consequently I have made a great many inquiries and find its reputation is all that one could wish; vast numbers have used it with success, and I hear that the call for it is astonishingly great. I am using it, and find a daily improvement in my hearing. Yours, &c.
