...DIANA STATE SENTINEL.

BY AUTHORITY.

AN ACT Fixing the Times of Holding Circuit Courts in the Fifth Judicial Circuit, and in the Fifth Judicial Circuit.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Courts in the eighth judicial circuit shall be held as follows: In the County of Cass, on the third Monday in February and August; in the county of Miami, on the Monday succeeding the Cass; in the county of Grant, in the county of Wabash, on the Monday succeeding the Miami; in the county of Huntington, on the Monday succeeding the Grant; in the county of Wabash, on the Friday of the week commencing the Huntington; in the county of Fulton; in the county of Kosciusko, on the Monday succeeding the Wabash; in the county of Fulton; in the county of White, on the Monday succeeding the county of Kosciusko; in the county of Jasper, in the county of Newton, on the Monday succeeding the White; in the county of Lake, on the Monday succeeding the Newton; in the county of Porter, on the Monday succeeding the Lake; in the county of Laporte, on the Monday succeeding the Porter; in the county of Starke, on the Monday succeeding the Laporte; in the county of Pulaski, on the Friday of the week commencing the Starke; in the county of Fulton; in the county of Jasper, on the Monday succeeding the Pulaski; in the county of Fulton; in the county of White, on the Monday succeeding the county of Jasper;