INDIANA STATE SENTINEL.

WON'T TAKE TWENTY DOLLARS.—Some waggish students at Yale College, a few years since, were regaling themselves one evening at the 'Tontine,' when an old farmer from the country entered the room (taking it for a bar-room,) and inquired if he could obtain a lodging there. The old fellow who was a shrewd Yankee, saw at once that he was to be made the butt of their jests, but quietly taking off his hat, and telling a worthless little dog he had with him, to lie under the chair, he took a glass of proffered beverage. The students anxiously inquired after the health of the old man's wife and children, and the farmer with affected simplicity, gave them the whole pedigree, with numerous anecdotes regarding his farm, stock, &c.

"Do you belong to the church?" asked one of the wags.

"Yes, the Lord be praised, and so did my father before me."

"Well, I suppose you would not tell a lie," replied the student.

"Not for the world."

"Now, what will you take for that dog?" pointing to the farmer's cur, who was not worth his weight in Jersey mud.

"I won't take twenty dollars for that dog."

"Twenty dollars! why he is not worth twenty cents."

"Well, I assure you I would not take twenty dollars for him."

"Come, my friend," said the student, who with his companions was bent on having some capital fun with the old man. "Now you say you won't tell a lie for the world, let me see if you will not do it for twenty dollars. I'll give you twenty dollars for your dog."

"I'll not take it."

"You will not! Here, let me see if this won't tempt you to lie," added the student, producing a small bag of half dollars, from which he commenced counting numerous small piles upon the table. The farmer was sitting by the table with his hat in his hand, apparently unconcerned.

"There," added the student, "there are twenty dollars, all in silver; I will give you that for the dog."

The old farmer quietly raised his hat to the edge of the table, and then as quick as thought scraped all the money into it except one half dollar, and then exclaimed:—

"I won't take your twenty dollars! Nineteen and a half is as much as the dog is worth; he is your property!"

A tremendous laugh from his fellow students showed the would-be-wag that he was completely 'rowed up,' and that he need not look for help from that quarter; so he good naturedly acknowledged beat. The student retained his dog which he keeps to this day as a lesson to him never to attempt to play tricks on men older than himself, and especially to be careful how he tries to wheedle a Yankee farmer.—Yale Literary Magazine.

LEGISLATIVE ERROR.—The following described affair is said to have "come off" somewhere "out west," lately:—(Editor in his sanctum, discovered writing. A "re-for" customer approaches with a newspaper in his hand.) Visitor. (Pointing out a particular article.) Look here, Mister, did you write that thar? Editor. I did. Vis. (Laying off his coat.) Well, I've got to whip you, so you'd better peel. Ed. Indeed! but I prefer not being whipped. Vis. Can't help it. Get to do it. You'd better be pullin' off that coat, or I might side it for you. Ed. (drawing a "revolver.") Thank you, sir; I believe I'll keep my coat on. Vis. What! You're not a going to use that shootin' iron, are you! Ed. Not unless you render it necessary. Vis. Now see here, stranger; that's not gentlemanly. Jest lay that thing aside, and let's take it out in a way that's becomin'. Ed. Sorry not to be able to oblige you; but I can't, positively. Vis. (Putting on his coat and retiring)—Well, if you're that sort of a fellow, I want nothin' to do with you. You're beneath the notice of a respectable citizen!—Exit.

GOOD ADVICE.—There is much good sense in the following, which although old, deserves to be repeated once a year:

"If there is any thing in the world that will make a man feel badly, except pinching his fingers in the crack of a door, it is unquestionably a quarrel. No man ever thinks more of himself after, than he did before one. It degrades him in the eyes of others, and what is still worse, blunts his sensibilities to disgrace on the one hand, and increases the power of passionate irritability on the other.

The truth is, the more quietly and peacefully we all get along the better; the better for our neighbors. In most cases, in nine out of ten—the wisest course is, if a man cheats you, quit dealing with him; if he is abusive, quit his company; if he slanders you, be careful to live so nobody will believe him. No matter who he is or how he misuses you—the wisest way is to just let him alone; for there is nothing better than this calm, cool, quiet way of dealing with the wrongs we meet with.

"NO TIME FOR SWOPPING HORSES."—A capital story, although it may be an old one, was recently related at a political meeting in Philadelphia. It was told for the purpose of making a point against the claims of one of the many candidates for the Presidency, but is a good story even when robbed of its political bearing. An Indiana man was travelling down the Ohio on a steamer, with a mare and two year old colt, when by a sudden careen of the boat all three were tilted into the river. The Hoosier, as he arose puffing and blowing above water, caught hold of the tail of the colt, not having a doubt that the natural instinct of the animal would carry him safe ashore.—The old mare took a "bee line" for the shore, but the frightened colt swam lustily down the current with its owner still hanging fast. "Let go of the colt and hang on to the old mare," shouted some of his friends. "Three, both!" exclaimed the Hoosier, spouting the water from his mouth and shaking his head like a Newfoundland dog; "it's all very fine your telling me to let go the colt, but to a man that can't swim this aint the time for swopping horses!"—N. O. Pic.

SAVING TIME.—A clergyman, who had considerable of a farm, as was generally the case in our forefathers' days, went out to see one of his laborers, who was ploughing in the field, and he found him sitting upon the plough, resting his team.

"John," said he, "would it not be a good plan for you to have a stub scythe here, and be hubbing a few bushes while the oxen are resting?"

John, with a countenance which might well have become the clergyman himself, instantly replied—

"Would it not be well, sir, for you to have a swingling board in the pulpit, and when they are singing, to swingle a little flax?"

The reverend gentleman turned on his heel, laughed heartily, and said no more about hubbing bushes.

BATHOS.—We do not know that we can better satisfy the inquirer after the meaning of bathos, than by giving the following illustration of it:—

Upon a certain time an orator, who wished to advocate the construction of a new turnpike through a section in Virginia, made the following sublime speech: "May it please your worships! While Europe is convulsed in internal commotions, and while her astronomers mount the wings of their imagination, and soar through the ethereal world, pursuing their course from planet to planet and from system to system, until they have explored the vast eternity of space—let us direct our attention to a road more immediately in our own neighborhood!" That is bathos.

STATE'S EVIDENCE.—A good story is told of Geo. White, a notorious thief in Massachusetts. He was once arraigned for horse stealing, when it was supposed that he was connected with an extensive band, which was laying contributions on all the stables round. White was offered large inducements to reveal his associates, all of which he declined, until an assurance from the court was obtained that he should be discharged if he would turn on his comrades. The jury returned a verdict of "not guilty," when he was called upon for his promised revelations. "I shall be faithful to my word," said he, "understand that the devil is the only accomplice I ever had—we have been a great while in partnership—you have acquitted me, and you may hang him if you can catch him."

A NEW KIND OF MOB-QUELLER.—Mr. Walsh, in his last letter to the National Intelligencer, after speaking of the riot and violence that attended the recent election in Greece, says, that "in a church, where the ballot-box was held, a general exchange of blows was stopped by a rustic, who emptied a hive of bees in the midst of the combatants."

☞The last Madisonian contains the following rather significant announcement. We "go in" "strong" for paying printers ourselves:—

We have a most abusive letter from an ex-subscriber, charging us with getting him turned out of office because he "would not pay his subscription!" Mr.——is informed that when we detected his purpose to swindle us, we did all in our power to have him "turned out." That he has been "turned out" we are most happy to learn. Gen. Jackson used invariably to "turn out" man, whether high in office or low, for swindling "newspaper printers;" and we trust every President we shall have, whether democrat or whig, will keep up the practice.

ALBANY FOUR HOSPITAL ESTABLISHED 1830.

Gen. George Cooke, LL. D.,

—RETURNED FROM ENGLAND—

CONTINUES TO BE CONSULTED

CONFIDENTIALLY,

No. 3, Norton street, Albany, N. Y.

THIS Philanthropic Institution, established A. D. 1830, and universally endorsed at its various periods of its long present term, is now, and has been for a long time past, the only place in this or any place of public resort whatever, the whole of the building is occupied by patients, each having their own room, and not subject to be the observed of all observers. Dr. Cooke, the sister of the Hospital, is the only resident physician, and devotes his whole time and attention to the welfare of the unfortunate. The offices of consultation, or visiting referees, are on the ground floor; the Hospital, or Asylum, is also replete with every facility for the recovery of patients.

For the cure of the worst forms of Venereal Disease, Gravel, Seminal Weakness, Gleet, Stricture in the Urethra, Impotency, Syphilis and Gonorrhea, Gonorrhea and Nervous Debility. Mercurial and Medicinal effect destroyed and affections of the Urinary organs, in their most malignant and advanced stages, Dr. Cooke is acknowledged to be unsurpassed. It is proverbial "that all diseases of this class, supposed to be incurable by others, are promptly and conveniently rendered by Dr. Cooke without more than ordinary trouble."—Familiar with the practice of another class, he invites a trial by those his own patients and very frequently the patients of other physicians.

Dr. Cooke is the oldest advertising physician in the city of Albany, N. Y.—his medical talents are unrivalled.

"Among the most celebrated physicians of the age is Gen. Cooke, M. D., LL. D., of Albany, N. Y., the founder of the Albany Lock Hospital. He is mentioned in the highest terms of praise for his benevolence and his philanthropy, not only by editors of newspapers, but his worth is proclaimed by literateurs on literature and from the sacred desk."—Democratic Press Banner.

"Wherever the unfortunate sought Dr. Cooke, of Albany, they are sure to be cured. Dr. Cooke is a gentleman private office, (literally crowded with credentials of the highest order, in large gloss frames, subjects to the inspection of his patients—very few men have the honor to hold such documents), and seen equivalent for his fee, receive a corresponding prescription. The best artist of this celebrated man, "never at home," never at his desk, never at his office, never out of sight of his door, with pocket book buckles to his shoes—is of itself an inducement to visit this profound Physician, this friend to humanity and of God."—New Orleans Sun.

"The Lock Hospital in America, the only Philanthropic Institution established under the benign auspices of the celebrated Dr Cooke, at No. 3 Norton street, Albany, N. Y., for the relief and convenience of the unfortunate, is reputed as the best asylum extant for the comfort and certain recovery of invalids—at this Infirmary patients have the very best medical attendance, including David and nursing, which very materially facilitates recovery; and as Dr. Cooke, the humane founder of so desirable a retreat and sacred security, resides on the premises, the most scrupulous may there repose the utmost confidence—feel at home—pursue their usual avocations—and enjoy the society of the most eminent physician as well as the most benevolent man of the age."—Exchange.

TAXES IN INDIANA.

THE undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has established an agency for the payment of taxes in any county in the State. Whilst a clerk in the State Auditor's office, he was enabled to form a personal acquaintance and to make arrangements with most of the county treasurers, by which his order will be received, and the tax receipts forwarded to him without the risk or expense of transmitting money.

He will also attend to the payment of interest on canal lands; also to the renting of improved lands and the collection of rents. He will also make sale for non residents and others.

From his entire acquaintance as well with our public land system, as with a large portion of the lands themselves in the northern part of the State, having been employed by the government in surveying them, and by the State as a commissioner in selecting a large portion of the Wabash and Erie canal lands, he flatters himself that he will render satisfaction to all who may employ him.

His per cent for payment of taxes is 10 per cent. on the amount of taxes if under $20 in any one county; and 5 per cent. if over $20; postages to be paid in addition.

Office on Meridian, south of Washington street.

Fee Books, " " " General Indexes, " " "

Also every description of Blank Books. In all their Blank Books they make use of the new and improved patent method of sewing, which renders them incomparably superior to those manufactured in any of the old modes, by imparting to them a far greater degree of strength and durability, and thereby preventing them from falling so speedily to decay, as has heretofore too often been the case.

Also, binding with ELASTIC BACKS, a new and improved mode of binding, far superior to that which has heretofore been in general use, and books re-bound in any style desired, and on the most favorable terms.

The Patent Ruling Machine, is used in all cases of Blank Book Binding. This machine is decidedly an improvement upon the former machines used for that purpose.

☞RAGS wanted in exchange for books, binding, cash, and numerous other articles. 3 tm

BOOK BINDING,

And Account Book Manufactory.

DAY, TYLER & Co., wholesale and retail dealers and Manufacturers of Blank Account Books, and dealers in Stationery, &c. &c. in the New Building on Washington street, opposite the Palmer Hotel, Indianapolis, Indiana, where there can always be obtained, and will be found constantly on hand, the various articles in their line. Every description of Blank Books for county auditors and Treasurers, school commissioners and magistrates, with or without printed heads.

In all their Blank Books they use the Improved Patent mode of sewing, which gives Strength with great Flexibility. And is incomparably superior to any other method ever devised for blank books, and will keep the leaves firm and solid while the book lasts, instead of coming to pieces, as is often the case with all other methods. The new method of sewing renders the books worth double the old kind, though they cost no more. In elegance, durability, and superior style of finish, their account books are equal to the best Eastern work and no higher in price.

D. T. & Co., are also prepared to manufacture all descriptions of Fancy articles, such as Ladies' and Gentlemen's Port Folios, Caskets, Card Cases, Albums, Spectacle Cases, Cigar Cases, Pocket Books, and Note Books.

MUSIC PAPER always on hand, which can be bound in various sizes, and Bands supplied at the shortest notice. ☞Music arranged and bound in the best style, at reasonable prices and short notice.

ATTENTION,

Farmers and Mechanics.

Buy where you can buy cheapest,
And sell where you can sell dearest.

THE Subscribers can sell goods cheaper and give more for Produce than ever before. They still carry on the MILLING BUSINESS, at their old stand, and now have five Run of Stones, keeping four Run in continual operation, without loss of time in dressing, as one Run will always be dressing and in order. They have repaired their Wagon Shed for the accommodation of FARMERS, and the public generally. No logs accounted for, unless the name is marked on the same, and the name and amount of grain put on the mill book. No bags to be left in the mill more than three days after they are proved, unless special orders be given to the Miller to take care of the same. No bag allowed to be taken out or in the Mill, except by the Miller getting notice and taking account of the same. The highest price will be paid for Wheat, in cash, or in trade. A lot of shelled Corn and Oats wanted.

Dry Goods and Groceries.

We have just received, direct from the East, a general assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, and Leather, which will be sold at the lowest prices for cash; and in exchange for Wheat, Corn, Lard, Bacon, and, in fine, for country produce generally.
