NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

TERRIBLE STATE OF ANARCHY IN CANADA.—The Montreal Herald says that the police of the capital is inadequate to the protection of the lives and property of its citizens.

"We are in such a state," says that paper, "that no man can leave his house after dark, or go half a mile out of town in broad day, without a feeling of uncertainty whether he will ever return alive. One man has been beaten to death on a public race-course, another is stabbed in the back, and for aught we know, is at the moment we write, expiring at the hospital. Besides two riots on the same night, a contemporary publishes the names of four persons who have been separately attacked by ruffians. * * *

Our police have been reduced, the horsemen, who are the only efficient force on the high roads, almost suppressed, and there is no other alternative but to remain absolutely within doors, or to adopt the horrible expedient of carrying arms, determined, if attacked, to sell life as dearly as possible. * * * *

"Montreal is not the only place where violent outrages are perpetrated by cowardly ruffians on unsuspecting and unarmed individuals. We regret to see, in the Belleville Intelligencer, an account of an attack made upon Mr. E. Murney and Mr. James Fitzgibbon, in that place. Our contemporary states, that the occurrence arose from a quarrel between a person named O'Reilly and Mr. Fitzgibbon, and that the former procured a third party to beat the latter, and interfered himself when the assailant appeared likely to get punished."

"Yesterday, the Jury who have been so long engaged in conducting the inquiry into the circumstances which led to the death of the late Mr. Leonard, closed the inquest by returning a verdict of willful murder against James O'Donnell, Bernard Corrigan, Michael Palmer, Bernard Rafter, Daniel Brennan, and divers other persons unknown. They also made the following presentment:

"We, the Jury assembled on the inquest holden on the body of the late O. C. Leonard, deem it incumbent on us to express our great regret that those to whom the conservation of the peace is confided, did not adopt some more efficient means for the maintenance of peace and good order, on the first day of the late races on the St. Pierre Race Course."

"We learn that Rafter was arrested yesterday; O'Donnell is the man who was apprehended on the Race Course on Friday.

ATTEMPTED PIRACY AND MURDER.—On the 20th of June the Governor of Porto Rico dispatched to St. Thomas a man-of-war schooner for the purpose of conveying to St. Juan a party of his friends to spend the holidays of the feast of St. John, and for the better safety of the vessel, twelve soldiers were embarked on board of her. Under the impression that there was a quantity of specie on board, some of the soldiers planned to murder the officers and crew, and run the vessel into St. Domingo and sell her; about half way between Porto Rico and St. Thomas they made the attempt; and having secured the cabin doors upon the officers, and the scuttle forward on the watch below, they very nearly succeeded in overpowering the watch on deck, when the first mate having accomplished the breaking-up of the cabin fastenings, a most desperate struggle took place, in which four of the soldiers were slaughtered and pitched overboard with the pikes fast in their bodies.—The vessel, in consequence of the occurrence, returned to St. Juan, the chief officer and two or three of the crew being severely wounded. [Acadian Recorder.

☞ A small company of Mexican traders under Mr. Aubrey, arrived on the Balloon, on Saturday, from Santa Fé. They left that town on the 16th of July, and represent the grass on the plains to be in excellent order for traveling. From an interview which the party had with the Governor, before leaving, it appears that that officer has declared his intention not to resist the invasion of Gen. Kearney. But at the same time preparations were going on in Santa Fé, which have every appearance of a design to oppose the invasion.

Gen. Kearney was to leave Bent's Fort on the 3d or 4th inst. and was expected to reach New Mexico within a few days of the above dates. Speyer's company had gone on to Chihuahua.

Mr. Aubrey and his party which preceded Speyers in the Spring, have been only absent about ninety days—They crossed the prairies in two wagons and brought with them $51,500 in specie for McKnight and Aubrey. [St. Louis New-Era, 24th.

☞ The present has been the greatest fruit season, perhaps, ever known to the citizens of St. Louis. Our markets, for more than two weeks past, have been literally thronged with every article in season—apples, pears, plums, peaches and several other kinds have been, and still continue in great abundance. No estimate can scarcely comprehend the number of melons daily brought to market. All kinds of fruit this season appear to be of a most excellent quality, and are bought remarkably cheap. [St. Louis New Era, 25th.

OFF THE TRACK!—The cars that left on Thursday evening, at half past ten, ran over a cow and off the track near Pittsford. No one was injured. The train was delayed several hours. [Roch. Dem. 29.
