☞ The furlough of the 33d Indiana, Col. Coburn, expires on the 28th inst. The regiment, we understand, will rendezvous here.

☞ The great Chanfrau has been re-engaged by Mr. Bustch, at the Metropolitan, and will appear throughout this week.

MASONIC NOTICE.—There will be a stated meeting of Center Lodge No. 23, this (Monday) evening at 7½ o'clock, for work.

CHARLES FISHER, Sec'y.

☞ A nigger belonging to the First Indiana painted batallion, who was unruly, was shot down by a comrade while making an assault on an officer.

EARLY CLOSING.—Anxious to give our young men time for improvement, we will continue to close at 6 o'clock P. M. during the season.

W. & H GLENN,
feb12d6m Proprietors New York Store

☞ A cook is wanted at the City Saloon, South Illinois street. Capt. O'Leary is the proprietor thereof, and he always furnishes his guests with the best of everything. None but a competent man need apply. 20 5t

☞ Now is the time, when the mud is soft, for the Street Commissioner to put his full force on the thoroughfares. By activity and determination in this regard he could thereby do his constituents infinite service, and perform his whole duty as a functionary.

☞ For fine and fashionable merchant tailoring work, call on Dessar & Bros., No. 4 East Washington street. They have lately employed one of the best cutters in Cincinnati, and they have just received a most elegant stock of piece goods 25 6t

PERSONAL.—Mortimer Thomson, the ancient and original "Philander Doesticks," arrived in this city on Saturday evening, and hung up his hat at the Bates House. His friends "Damphool" and "Bull Dogge" will arrive by the Tuesday freight.

☞ Night before last, near Sellersburg, a few miles this side of Jeffersonville, a train ran over a cow and thereby smashed up twelve cars, and killed two men. One of the deceased was George Phillips. He was fireman. The name of the other we could not learn. The wreck made is described to us as having been complete.

☞ Just received, a fine stock of new and beautiful Scotch Goods, for spring wear, which will be made to order in the best of style, at very low prices, by Heitkam, Merchant Tailor. Call and examine the stock and satisfy yourselves, at No. 17 North Illinois street. 19-tf

☞ The 11th Indiana, Lieut. Col. Durnell, goes into camp to day. Their furlough expired last Saturday, and they hold themselves, like gallant boys as they, through fire and blood, have proved themselves to be, in readiness to march at a moment's warning. They only await orders.

NOTICE!—Dessar & Co. have on hand a very large stock of Military Clothing, which they will sell at reduced prices. City merchants are requested to call on them, as they can buy these goods of them fully as cheap as in the Eastern markets. These goods will be sold at reduced prices for cash, for a week only.

DESSAR BRO. & CO.,
23-3t Schnull's Block.

☞ Mr. Sol. Moritz, the junior member of the heaviest clothing house in this city, is now in Europe, purchasing goods. Receipts of the most elegant fabrics have already began to arrive from him. No 3 East Washington street is the principal depot in this city of Moritz & Brothers. Col Serger is the accomplished superintendent thereof. 20 d1w

☞ We were happy yesterday to meet Capt. J. S. Simons, of the 14th Indiana, who has been home on the recruiting service for some time. Capt. Simons informed us that he should leave to-day with a number of recruits for the Army of the Potomac. Capt. Simons is an Indianian from Green county, and a soldier and a gentleman.

☞ The Palmer House, Indianapolis, John Bussy, Proprietor, is an excellent stopping place for sojourners. We are induced to give currency to this fact because we notice that some dead head correspondents of out of the way sheets have recently spread themselves, coming down on our metropolitan hotels. We have just as good beef and potatoes here as they have anywhere.

☞ Over Central Indiana tremendous rains have prevailed for the past three days. We had had lighter rains every day for two weeks previously. The creeks were therefore at flood tide. But yesterday, in consequence of what had diluvially happened, White river, Eagle creek, Pogue's run and Fall creek were booming. In fact, each classic stream overflowed its suburban and rural shores. How fish can drink so much water we can't see.

MASONIC—A. AND A. RITE—A meeting of Sarsiat Council, will be held this (Monday) evening at 7½ o'clock. The degree of Prince of Jerusalem will be conferred. The M P. Gov Gd. commander of the order, K H Van Rensselaer, Esq., will be present; and all members are earnestly requested to be in attendance.

E. A. DAVIS, S. G. Master.

☞ The most excellent beverage ever manufactured for use in warm weather is the mineral water furnished by Philo M Clark of this city. His establishment is one of the most extensive in the West, he is prepared to supply all customers, and his liquid is good. Drink of it—it will invigorate and not intoxicate. It is universally called for at every place of public resort in the city.

☞ We commend to the public the book binding and stationery establishment of Mr. Ed. L Palmer, 34 South Illinois. Mr. P. keeps on hand a choice assortment of stationery, paper, and blank books. Officers and soldiers will find at this establishment just such articles as they need. Mr. Palmer is accomplished in his line of business, and he is prepared with the best of materials to fill all orders for railroad, county and bank work.

DR. J. J. MCBRIDE.—The other day we spoke of an army officer riding over a little child and being very lightly fined for it by his Honor, the Mayor. Per contra, we noticed the case of a "poor pedlar," as we inadvertently styled him, who was mulcted several times as much, although he had lisence to retail his wares. We, for the very first time in our lengthened editorial career, have to take something back, but our readers will understand that, as Jack Falstaff said, it is not by any means upon "compulson." Dr. J. J. McBride, a scientific and distinguished physcian, was the latter individual we alluded to, and we have it from the most responsible gentlemen in this city that Dr. McBride's medicine will cure rheumatism, neuralgia, and pains generally. We would therefore commend it to the public.

Welcome to the 39th Indiana.

[These beautiful verses, the best, in our judgment, the war has yet produced, were written by T. W. McCoy, of Noblesville, Indiana, at one time a gallant officer of the 39th Indiana. The 39th is now at home on furlough, a veteran regiment baptized in blood.]

Oh, fearless and gay and so jolly are they,
They are free as the storm-wind, and wild as they're free;
For danger they care not, but scorn it in fight,
As they dash with fierce joy through the battle's wild light.

When Treason uprose with its sword and its brand,
They swore by their honor to rescue our land,
They grasped our proud ensign and spread it in air,
And ranked a bold band our banner to bear.

They never have failed yet their promise to keep,
But ever have rushed with the conqueror's sweep;
Though foemen have met them, aye comrades have died,
Their banner still onward was borne with the tide.

O'er Shiloh it burst through the veiling of smoke,
Till the ranks of the foeman grew faint and were broke;
Over forest and stream the bore it in pride,
Where life-blood ran mingling with Stone River's tide.

Where cannon, death flashing, bold legions did shiver,
With honor they bore it by "Chickamauga's dark river;"
No peril could daunt them, no watching could tire,
They came forth true mettle, well tested by fire.

Then proudly we hail them, returned from the field,
Where bared were their bosoms our heartstones to shield;
Their names shall be writ with the valiant and brave,
Who gave their best effort to our country to save.

General Orders—Call for 20,000 Volunteers for 100 Days.

STATE OF INDIANA,
Adjutant General's Office,
INDIANAPOLIS, April 23d, 1864.

A call having been issued by the Governor in pursuance of authority from the President for twenty thousand men from this State, to serve one hundred days, the following instructions are announced for the information of the public:

The forces thus called for will be accepted as volunteers for the United States service, and will be armed, clothed, subsisted and paid as such by the United States. They will be organized into companies and regiments in the manner provided for other volunteer forces.

To the farmers, mechanics, manufacturers, merchants, doctors, lawyers and ministers, throughout the State, this appeal is directed and their aid invoked. Let every man who can possibly be spared from his ordinary pursuits in life, give this "One hundred days" to the cause of his Government, in this its hour of trial. Every man should engage in recruiting. It is of the highest importance that these troops be raised and organized in the shortest possible period of time.

The leading men of all classes, in every county and township throughout the State, are urgently requested to lend their personal aid in raising the men called for.

Let meetings be everywhere called and every appliance be used to get the subject before the people, so that they may act promptly and intelligently.

Persons desiring to enter this service will form themselves into companies and elect a Captain, one First Lieutenant and one Second Lieutenant. Every company must consist of not less than 85 nor more than 93 enlisted men, all of whom will be required to come up to the standard as to age, size and physical ability to pass inspection and muster.

No boys under eighteen years of age will be accepted.

Persons who have been discharged from service on account of disability will not be accepted.

Officers raising companies will guard against enlisting such persons, and will be charged with the transportation and expense of all such whom they allow to accompany them to the rendezvous.

Companies of the Indiana Legion desiring to volunteer under this call will hasten to fill up to the required standard, and report by mail or telegraph to this office. They will be accepted and their organizations preserved if desired.

Any regimental organization of the Legion will likewise be accepted upon recruiting up to the standard of Volunteer Regiments, and its organization be preserved.

As soon as companies are enlisted and formed the officers will forward Company rolls to this office naming a day when they will be ready to march to the rendezvous, and wait for marching orders and transportation.

Transportation will be provided for in all cases by these headquarters, and company officers notified.

Camps of rendezvous will be established and announced in due time.

When companies shall have been organized, some future day should be fixed for assembling and reporting to the camp of rendezvous. In the meantime the men should arrange their private affairs for their absence from home as furloughs will not be allowed.

A fair division of the call will require two regiments of nine hundred and ten men each to be raised in each Congressional District. To make it pleasant to those concerned, it will be the aim to combine in a regiment the first ten companies raised in any district.

By order of the Governor

LAZ. NOBLE,
Adjutant General Indiana.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.—Stolen, on the 19th inst., from my stables, seven miles west of Franklin, two horses. One bay about 15½ hands high, natural pacer, with heavy mane and tail, splint knots on each four legs, and white spot on forehead. One black, about 16 hands high, blind in right eye, white spot in forehead, and white on nose, and white on both hind feet. They are both heavy bodied horses, and have harness marks on the sides. Any person giving information that will lead to the recovery of said horses, will receive the above reward, or $25 for either of them. M. W. TYLER,
25 6td Franklin, Johnson Co., Ind.

$1,000 REWARD.—The above reward will be given to any person who can furnish a prescription for colds, whooping-cough, asthma, and consumption, which is equal to Dr. Strickland's Mellifluous Cough Balsam. This balsam will cure the above complaints, also spitting of blood and night sweats. One fifty cent bottle is sufficient for any one to try. The worst cases of chronic cough, asthma, whooping cough and primary cases of consumption are cured by Dr Strickland's Mellifluous Cough Balsam. It can be had at any druggist's. It is different from any other cough medicine we have known in this country. tf.

MUNSON'S COPPER TUBULAR LIGHTNING ROD.—Perfect protection against danger from the thunder bolt. It is made entirely of copper, and has a greater power of conducting electricity than a solid iron rod thirty inches in circumference, and will carry off twenty times the amount of electric fluid that the iron rod will. Persons can be supplied, wholesale and retail, by the undersigned. David Munson, inventor, sole proprietor and manufacturer. Adjoining the Odd Fellows Hall, up stairs, entrance on Washington street, Indianapolis, Indiana. ap20d1w.

☞ Mr. R J. Dingess, of Melville's great Australian Circus, arrived in the city on Saturday. The public will see by advertisement elsewhere that Melville and his unrivalled troupe will exhibit here on Friday and Saturday next. In Cincinnati, where Melville has been performing for the past two weeks, the pavilion was nightly crowded, and the exhibitions were pronounced unequalled. The first ladies of that town with their children visited every afternoon performance.

☞ The body of a deceased soldier was found on the Bellefontaine railroad, in the eastern part of the city, night before last. A train of cars had passed over it, mutilating it to an extent. A coroner's inquest, held yesterday, developed that the unfortunate man had been shot, and then laid upon the track. He was a discharged soldier from the cavalry service, and had received his pay, for which it is supposed he was murdered. His name is unknown.

☞ The Corps d' Afrique, ordered to the seat of war, mutinied at the depot yesterday. It is represented to us that they refused to go until they were paid. Another statement says that they got to quarreling among themselves, and with their officers. A detachment of the Veteran Reserves was ordered to the spot to enforce obedience, but were not strong enough to do it. The regiment did not go, but was marched back to camp. It is said that all difficulties will be adjusted to-day and that they will get off.

☞ The Dr. Gall property, on Virginia avenue, was sold at auction to A. L. Roache, by Spann & Smith on Saturday afternoon, at $120 per foot front. This is considered cheap. The sale of the Worland Grocery was adjourned on account of the rain.

☞ Yesterday two accomplished gentlemen entered the room of Mr. Emenecker, late proprietor of Union Hall, Washington street, and while he was asleep, began rifling his clothes. Mr. Emenecker suddenly awoke, and discovering matters, commenced to throw tumblers. He struck and cut one of the gentle men so severely that, both decamping, he was tracked by blood to Dr Abbott's office, and arrested. The other was afterwards discovered at the Bates House, where the parties had been stopping for some days. They were lodged in jail for a hearing to day.

☞ Adjutant Walingford, of the 33d Indiana, Colonel Coburn's regiment, died day before yesterday, as we are pained to learn. Adjutant Walingford entered the service as a private. He rose gradually, because of meritorious conduct, bravery and ability, until he reached his honorable position under his commander, Col. Coburn. He was a resident of this city, and leaves a wife and children, who have the sympathy of all. Another soldier has gone to his rest, with his martial cloak around him.

☞ Last night, at the Palmer House, there was a pleasant reunion. Col P——, the well known commedian; James O——, Esq., and Mr. M H——, were there. Miss K——, Miss M——, and Miss D——, enlivened the time with their brilliant vocalization. The ladies were beautiful, the gentleman chivalrous, and the hours flew upon the golden wings of love.

THAT LOT OF GROUND ADJOINING ON THE north of the block of buildings built by Kirland & Fitzgibbon, on south Meridian street near the Union Depot, 100 feet front by 210 feet deep, will be sold 25 or 50 feet lots, or the whole of it in one lot. This is a suitable locality for persons wishing to purchase business property, as the wholesale business of the city will be concentrated on this street and the property can be bought for nearly one-fourth the price of Washington street property. It has been demonstrated, by actual sales, that there have been as many goods sold by houses on this street, as any on Washington street, and, in our branch of the business, I sold, when in business, more tobacco at wholesale than any three houses on Washington street. The locality of this ground, for a wholesale business, has a great advantage in the saving of drayage than any other location in the city, as goods can be delivered on the day-most by all the railroads. This advantage will save half the rent of a store-room on Washington street.

FARM OF SIXTY-NINE ACRES.

A SPLENDID SUBURBAN RESIDENCE CONSISTING of a large cut Stone House, larger on verandahs on the two fronts; the entire wood work tastefully painted and grained; the rooms neatly papered in the finest style; and everything in the most complete order. It is pleasantly situated in a native grove of several acres.

The farm contains 69 acres of excellent land, with good orchards of every kind of fruit, is located near the National Turnpike, 2½ miles from the city limits, and has situation one of the most beautiful and healthy in the vicinity.

The House, if built now, would cost not less than $6,000; and the ground, if the House were off, would sell readily for $200 an acre, judging by recent sales of land adjoining it.

IT IS WORTH ABOUT $30,000;

Night Report.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The following information reached here to-day concerning the recent disaster at Plymouth, North Carolina:

The rebel ram came down the river about 3 o'clock on Monday morning, she floated down with the current and was not discovered until close under the bows of the Miami.

Lieut. Commanding Flusher rushed forward and fired the bow gun loaded with shell, which struck the ram, rebounded and instantly killed him—a piece of shell penetrating his breast.

The ram then attacked the Southfield and she sank in 5 minutes.

The Miami was somewhat injured.

The ram passed the guns at Plymouth without being discovered.

She is 150 feet long and draws about 8 feet water, and carries only two small guns.

The Republicans here in mass meeting have separated on the question as to whether the delegates to the Union National Convention at Baltimore shall be instructed or not. Accordingly two meetings were held to-night. One at the City Hall instructed delegates to vote for the recommendation of President Lincoln, and the other at the Union League rooms, elected delegates without instructions. There was an exciting scene at both places.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The Chronicle of this morning contains an authoritative denial of the story that Gen. Grant and the Secretary of War have quarrelled.

The votes in the House last night upon items of the tax bill relating to petroleum and pig iron, to increase the taxes in these articles, will be adhered to. Other items will also be raised. The House is making good headway in committee upon the tax bill.

A special to the New York Commercial, dated April 23, says:

People who are predicting immediate battles in Virginia, will doubtless be disappointed, unless Gen. Lee advances in force, or makes a demonstration towards Pennsylvania.

Gen. Totten, Chief Engineer of the U. S. A., died yesterday evening, in about one hour after the Senate had confirmed his nomination as Major General by brevet—a title conferred in compliment for his long services.

From New York.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The shipments of gold to Europe are $1,375,000 by the Æna and $50,000 by the Virginia.

John A. Hunter has been honorably acquitted of the forgeries charged against him. He is one of the Deputy Collectors under Mr. Barney.

From Port Sarnia.

PORT SARNIA, C. W., April 23.—The Northern Transportation Company's propeller Maine passed down to-day, being the first this season. She reports the Straits clear of ice.

From Milwaukee.

Three propellers arrived to-day, having passed the Straits of Mackinaw all right. Navigation has fairly opened.

THIRTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, April 23.

HOUSE

Mr. Washburne, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a bill to create an additional Supervising Inspector of Steamboats, his duties to be confined to New Orleans, and also boards of local inspectors at Portland, Oregon, and at Memphis. The Board of Inspectors at Wheeling is discontinued, for the reason that there are two other Boards of Inspectors for the Ohio river.

The bill passed.

Mr. Higby, from the select committee to examine into Representative McClurg's charge that his colleague, Mr. Blair of Missouri, had violated the law in the matter of alleged liquor speculation, and also to investigate the genuineness or falseness of an alleged order for liquors, made a report thereon to the effect that the original order signed by Major Gen. Blair and eight other officers was for liquors, cigars, &c., to the amount of $150 or $175, but that the order was altered by Michael Powers to call for $8,600 worth of the same, for the latter person's speculating purposes. The committee are satisfied that no violation of law was committed by Mr. Blair.

Mr. Blair, of Missouri, spoke of his intention soon to take leave of the House. He said the charges against him were made while he was in military command, and circulated against him because he was opposed to the trade regulations of Secretary Chase, and differed from the plan of Mr. Chase to let the Southern go. His colleague [McClurg] had brought the charges here with the coniseness and brutality that characterized low and vulgar minds.

The Speaker called Mr. Blair to order, reminding him that personalities must not be indulged in.

Mr. Blair begged the pardon of the Speaker. His colleague (McClurg) had gone to the trouble of having what he called the forged orders photographed. He (Blair) intended to follow out the hint and have those orders ornamented with the portrait of his colleague (McClurg,) after the manner of the Rogues' Gallery.

The dogs and hounds had been set on him by their master. He (Blair) had driven these dogs and hounds back into their kennel; and he intended to hold their master responsible. Blair read from letters to show the destructive effects of Secretary Chase's trade regulations, and stating that large quantities of goods pass through our lines to the enemy. The letters also say that Secretary Chase is using his power for electioneering purposes, and, Mr. Blair added, to oppose President Lincoln, who gave Secretary Chase his place.

Mr. McClurg said if it be the pleasure of the House he would postpone his remarks until the tax bill shall be disposed of. He believed the members (Blair's character, if he has any) would not suffer by the delay, and he was sure his own would not. He would give way to Mr. Morrill, who moved that the House resolve itself into a Committee on Tax, which prevailed.

Sunday Night Dispatches.

85,000 MORE MEN WANTED.

DISSATISFACTION WITH GEN. BANKS.

Gen Smith's Command Ordered to Vicksburg.

&c., &c., &c., &c &c.

From New York.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The Herald has the following later news from Louisiana, dated Grand Encore, April 14:

Gen Banks having fallen back to Grand Encore, which is 35 miles from Pleasant Hill, 55 miles from Mansfield and 95 from Shreveport, will advance again as soon as he is reinforced and equipped.

The loss of artillery is a trival matter, as nearly the whole fighting, owing to the nature of the heavily wooded country, must be done by infantry alone.

Porter's fleet will co-operate as far as possible, the extent of its co-operation depends on the depth of Red river.

Other battles must follow and glorious victories will be won over the trans-Mississippi rebels.

The enemy appear to have moved his whole force near here to crush out the Union army.

According to the reports of prisoners Kirby Smith, Dick Taylor, Green, Magruder and Price, are all in the field against Banks.

The rebels' loss in the battle of Pleasant Hills was three to our one.

The lack of water between Pleasant Hill and Mansfield rendered it prudent to fall back to Grand Ecore, where new supplies will be issued sufficient for a long and triumphant march.

From Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, April 24.—Gov. Brough has issued an order calling the National Guard of Ohio into active service for 100 days, to report for duty May 24.

The order says our armies in the field are marshaling for the decisive blow, and the citizen soldiery will share the glory of the crowning victories of the campaign by relieving our veteran regiments from post and garrison duty, to allow them to engage in the more arduous duties of the field.

From St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 24.—The Republican's Red River correspondence of the 20th, says:

Gen Smith's command began crossing the river opposite Grand Encore that day for an overland trip to Vicksburg. Gen. Grant having sent orders for Smith's return to that place.

Rebel prisoners say they had 25,000 men in the recent battles, and that they lost 3,000 in Saturday's fight. They left their killed and wounded on the field.

Our loss on Saturday was about 1,500. Our wounded were taken to Grand Encore, but the dead were left on the field.

Gen. Smith's command consisted of portions of the 16th and 17th army corps, Gens Hurlburt's and McPherson's.

A correspondent says that great dissatisfaction is expressed of Banks' generalship. Friday's battle was fought contrary to Franklin's plans, and both Franklin and Ransom protested against having cavalry so far in advance. Smith protested against the retreat from Pleasant Hill after the victory of Saturday, he wishing to pursue the flying rebels, but Banks ordered the entire army to Grand Ecore.

It is difficult to determine what the result of expedition will be, and it will require some time to reorganize the army. If our columns fall back, Alexandria will necessarily become the base of operations instead of some point above. All troops at Alexandria have been ordered to Grand Ecore, and fears are entertained that the rebels may attack the place and destroy a large amount of army stores there.

Alexandria dates of the 7th say all speculators are excluded from that post.

Capt. Todd, formerly rebel Provost Marshal of Alexandria, cousin of Mrs. Lincoln, came into our lines with his family and gave himself up.

The rebels are said to have 31 transports at Shreveport.

A detachment of the 3d Cavalry Brigade made a reconnoissance yesterday to Double Bridge, 20 miles on the road towards Pleasant Hill. Eight miles out a small party of the enemy were seen, who fled precipitately. From the bridge scouting parties were sent out, but discovered no indications of the enemy.

Our troops are in excellent spirits, and anxious for an advance. Should Red River fail to be navigable, and an advance rendered impracticable, the certainty of holding and occupying Alexandria, so far that the forward movement is success, between Pleasantville and Man-field.

From Leavenworth.

LEAVENWORTH, April 22.—At the State Convention at Topeka yesterday the following delegates were elected to the Baltimore National Convention:

A. C. Wilder, T. M. Bowen, M. H. Winslow, W. A. Foster and J. H. Lane.

The delegates were instructed to vote for Lincoln.

REAPERS AND MOWERS.

THE BUCKEYE

REAPER AND MOWER

IS, IT IS A TWO WHEELED MACHINE—THE wheels stop during the frame are both driving wheels, and drive the knives together, or independently.

2d. There are no cogs in the driving wheels.

3d. When not cutting, no cog is in motion; therefore, in transporting, there is no wear.

4th. The knives never work when the Machine is backed; it is easy backed as an empty cart.

5th. The cutter bar is attached to the frame by a double hinge joint, and allows an independent action—either end or the bar rising without affecting the other.

6th. The cutter bar is easily raised to pass obstructions by means of the lever, which is always under the control of the operator.

7th. N B. the cutter bar is in front of the driving wheels, and seat in rear, thus enabling the driver to see the operation of the cutter without interfering with his driving, and avoiding those dreadful accidents which have frequently occurred when the seat is directly over or in front of the cutter bar.

8 h. The cutter bar is folded across the frame for transporting—thus making it as portable as a buggy.

9th. The wheel or cutter bar next the frame prevents clogging when running over cut grass, and also relieves the draft.

10th. It can be changed from a Reaper to a Mower, and vice versa in fifteen minutes.

11th. The platform does not support either the reel or rake.

12th. The reel is supported from the frame of the Machine.

13th. The raker has a comfortable saddle seat over the frame of the Machine.

14 h. No Lumbing! The raker does have a seat.

15th. It took the FIRST PREMIUM as a Mower, and as a Combined Machine, at the Indiana and Ohio State Fairs for 1863.

16th. It will run over three hundred pounds lighter than any other Mower or Reaper.

17th. WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD TO BEAT THE "BUCKEYE."

Give us your orders early, as we cannot obtain any more Machines than we have now bought, as the manufacturers have orders for three thousand more Machines than they can possibly make.

Call and look at the IMPROVED BUCKEYE, under Masonic Hall.

BEEVES.

Receipts are a little larger than last week, besides the cattle are much heavier and of better quality.

After the firm close, one week ago, drovers rushed in numerous lots, which were sold during the latter part of the week. 200 at Allerton's, 450 at Gerdes, 350 in 8 5th street and 50 went direct to butchers. This lessened the demand at Forty-fourth street on Monday and Tuesday, still the 3,440 cattle on sale were all wanted, and for a bit about last week's rates, though generally superior quality really made the meat cheaper. There were no very extra bullocks offered, but a good many fat droves of heavy Illinois steers. The cattle were nearly all in on Monday morning, and most of them were sold before night of that day. We quote:

Premium qualities, per cwt	None.
Prime do do	16 50@17 00
Medium to good qualities, per cwt	14.50@16.00
Poor do do	12.50@14.00
General selling prices do	14.00@16.00
Average do	15 00@ —

Government agents bought 250 head of good cattle, at an average of 16c per pound, the drove of superior cattle brought the owner about $135 per head right through.

COWS

Are plenty and are selling quick, if of good quality. Most of those brought in are thin, poor cows which sell all the way from $35 to $50 each, while good ones bring $60@75, and for one fine Durham cow $90 was offered by a milkman, and refused. Two fair cows were sold at $70 each.

VEAL CALVES

Receipts continue very large, country people being anxious to get rid of their calves to sell milk or make butter. Prices are unchanged. A few very fine ones brought 10c per pound, but it required a good calf to fetch 9c, and many are sold at less than 7c, being young and poor.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

Arrivals nearly 2,000 less than last week. Market quick and prices 1c higher. Fair, unshorn, fine wooled sheep are worth 11c, live weight; some good lots were sold at 11½c, and for a few extra sheep 12½c was paid. Perhaps one quarter of the receipts are clipped sheep which bring 7@8½@9c, the latter price for some superior Ohio stock.

R H. Hume sold 1,338 sheep at at average of $10 62. They were of good quality, unshorn.

McGraw & O'Brien report sales of 3,170 head, part shorn, at $8 67 each.

HOGS.

Arrivals were about as last week, but the cool, fine weather, and a short supply of beef and mutton, prices have advanced a trifle, and the market is firm at the following quotations:

	Live hogs.	Dressed
Heavy prime corn fed	9 @9¼	11¼@11¾
Light do	8¾@9	11¼@11¾
Heavy still-fed	9@9¼	11¼@11¾
