HEAVY RAINFALL THIS SEASON

A Trip Through Ayrshire, the Home Of the Poet Burns—Outlook for Missionary Work.

Special Correspondence.

Glasgow, Scotland, Oct. 28.—The rich are becoming more proud and vain, and the poor more and more oppressed and downtrodden, and high and low are far estranged from God, so much so that this land and the people are under a heavy blight. If the heavens weep or the Lord "reserveth wrath for His enemies," then this country and people are surely under condemnation. Rarely a day passes without a heavy shower of rain, but the rainfall this season has far exceeded any since the establishment of the weather bureau throughout the country 40 years ago. Paisley, Greenock, Glasgow, Leith and Aberdeen lead out, in the order of the towns named, with the heaviest rainfall, last month. Crops, particularly oats, which is the main crop raised, is rotting in the fields all over the country. The writer has seen the country at close range for over 200 miles, and has seen and handled the decaying grain. "Sunny Ayrshire," as far as the grain fields can be seen from the highest rolling hills (the whole county is rolling hills) oats and other grain stand in shucks where cut, but many fields of grain are uncut and crushed flat to the ground by the heavy winds and rain. It is reported that one farmer has become insane because of the loss of his crops. During the last two weeks we went as far south as Maybole, which is nine miles south from the cottage where the Scottish poet, Robert Burns, was born. The grounds about the old thatched house where the poet was born, and the grounds there and at the monument erected to his memory and the live hedge surrounding the same are well kept by expert gardeners constantly employed at both places.

The monument is about a quarter of a mile from the cottage, on the opposite side of the country street and scene, and is situated close to the River Doon, made famous in song: "Ye banks and braes o' bonnie Doon," etc. We traveled on foot from Glasgow to Rutherglen, then on the main road to Kilmarnock, thence on through the auld toon o' Ayr to Maybole, on the low road from Burns' monument, crossing the auld brig o' Doon on the way. It is a small bridge and on every stone on the dykes (both walls) of the bridge are initials of names cut in the stones so close to each other that it is difficult to read but a very few of the initials. Scotchmen and "mony ithers" in all countries of the world know of the drunken spree of "Tam O'Shanter," and the uncanny (dangerous) time he had when on his way home frae the Air market, hotly pursued by a legion of witches flying through the air to catch him, saying "wi 'mony an eldritch (unearthly) screech and hollow."

"Ah, Tam! ah Tam! thou'll get thy fairin'!
In hell they'll roast thee like a herrin'!"

And though apparent and swift distruction seemed certain to Tam (Thomas) the story says about the witches:

"A running stream they dare na cross."

But the next verse tells that:

"As spring (of the horse) brought off her master hale,
But left behind her ain grey tail."

The following towns were passed through by your correspondent on the return trip: Maybole, noted for its large boot and shoe factories; Ayr, for pleasure seekers; Kilmarnock, for engineering works; Dreghorn, collieries; Kilwinning, iron works, the largest in Scotland; Beith, cabinet works; Paisley, thread mills; then back to Glasgow, a distance during the trip of 88 miles. Each town is wholly dependent upon the industries in it for support.

We passed through the smaller towns on the circuit and having the addresses of kindred and friends residing in Ayrshire, of some of our brethren and sisters in Zion, we were treated royally by them. We stayed over night with them, and sang some of the hymns from our Sunday school hymn book and talked on the Gospel for hours before going to bed. We were kept up till 3 in the morning at one place.

We believe more people can be brought into our Church who have kindred in Zion than people having no relations or friends there. If our brethren and sisters in the valleys of the mountains could only sense the great good and missionary work they could do by sending the addresses of their kindred or friends to the missionaries in all parts of the world, and write to the ones left behind, every one gathered from the nations of the earth would do their best for their relations or friends in the world. They would write nice, kind letters to them if nothing more, and make many friends for the Elders.

WRITE TO FRIENDS.

If our people at home received some of the abuse which many of our Elders receive in every country, through the newspapers and the people of high as well as low degree, they (our people) would certainly write to their kindred and friends abroad. It is very common for the Elders to hear the statement made when tracting from door to door, or in ordinary conversation, that their kindred or friends "once getting within the great high walls which surround the 'Mormons' at the Salt Lakes are constantly guarded, so that none escape therefrom; neither are they permitted to write back to their friends, and that if letters do come they are all read by the Priests before being allowed to leave the Salt Lakes."

The goody, goody folks in this country also the goodies in England, Ireland and Wales, and those abroad have been worked up to a white heat during this year by a religious and cheaply gotten-up journal. Hair breadth escapes and blood-curdling yarns of those claimed to have "come home" formed a long and delectable story, particularly for the "saved" ones, and those having "passed from death unto life," etc.

AN AMUSING STORY.

A very amusing story is now going the rounds in Glasgow, concerning one of our Elders now in the mission field. He and his mother, brothers and sisters emigrated to Utah a few years ago, and having returned to his native land to preach the Gospel, he has been seen by old-time friends, one or more of whom have circulated the report that "he has escaped and returned home, and that his mother and all the rest of the family have been murdered and done away with!" All stories heretofore published concerning hair-breadth escapes from "the great high walls of the Salt Lakes" are as false as the one above referred to. The people, high and low, "believe a lie" rather than the truth "that they all might be damned." Any article published in the newspapers against our people is printed with glaring headlines, and the largest size type used on the posters of events placed in their windows, pasted on the streets in all directions by the newsboys and women, and posted on all the small billboards in front of all the shops where newspapers are sold. With very rare exceptions, the newspaper men will not publish our side of the question. We have visited the editors in their offices and presented answers to charges made against our Church, and while they acted gentlemanly they politely refused to publish our respectful replies. There are very few people met in this country who have not heard the sound of "the everlasting Gospel."

The police protection of the Elders while preaching the Gospel on the public streets throughout Scotland is the best in the world.

OUTLOOK FOR MISSIONARY WORK

While Scotland has perhaps furnished the least members to the Church during the last six years of any mission, the Elders are very much encouraged in their labors from the fact that there are some applicants at this time for baptism, and a brighter ray of light now dawns than has during the period named for new additions to the Church. Quite a number of honest and good people are earnestly investigating some of the Church works, and they are very kind to the Elders. A better feeling prevails among the Elders and the Saints than for very many years past, nearly all contention which formerly existed within having been stricken down.

The Scotch people are warm-hearted and very hospitable—"naething tae guid for a freen or a freen's freen." Greater friendship is never shown than when dining with an acquaintance of short or long duration than to be told by "the guid wife o' the hoose: "Rax furrit yer haun an' help yersel." All the Elders in this mission are in the best of health. Scottish conference, Sunday, Nov. 8, eleven days from date, at the Masonic hall, 100 West Regent street, Glasgow.

A MAN CAN'T WORK.

WHEN HE IS SUFFERING WITH PILES.

He Can't Eat, Can't Sleep Can't Get Comfort Any Way But One—Pyramid Pile Cure Will Cure Him, Give Relief at Once—Never Known to Fail.

Just a little pain may so distract a man's mind that it will cost him hundreds of dollars. Life is a battle. To succeed one needs all his energies and all his brain force to apply to the question at hand. Even a corn will make him irritable, cross, angry—and an angry man seldom succeeds. The trifling pain of a corn is a pleasant feeling beside the agonizing ache of piles. That is a pain which seems to pervade the whole body. It communicates itself to all the parts near the seat of the trouble and brings on a heavy, dragging feeling in the perineum. Those who have never so suffered do not know what it means. It racks the nerves, prevents sleep, prevents concentrated thought and makes a man lose flesh as fast as he would with a virulent fever.

And yet piles are looked upon as a little thing. They are neglected—allowed to run on from month to month and year to year. By and by comes a dangerous surgical operation. Maybe it cures—maybe it kills.

There is only one sure, safe and quick cure for piles. It is the Pyramid Pile Cure. It is a recent discovery and its properties are such that it cleanses, soothes and heals the inflamed parts reduces the inflammation at once, and with continued treatment removes all swelling and all trace of the disease. It puts the membranes in a healthy, active condition and cures completely and permanently.

From Samuel Victor, Detroit, Mich., "I had not written you sooner because the first box of the Pyramid Pile Cure I used helped me so much, and I wanted to wait until I was completely cured, and so it was that after using three boxes of your Pyramid Pile Cure, I am entirely cured of the terrible disease from which I have suffered six months; and now I am using Pyramid Pills, which help me very much.

From B. H. Palmer, Windsor, Calif., "I have been troubled for fifteen years with piles and have tried different salves and ointments, but never came across anything like your Pyramid Pile Cure. I used two 50 cent boxes three months ago, and they have made a complete cure, and I am recommending them to every one I know to be afflicted. Thanks for the cure.

From Thos. A. Nixon, 854 N. Bambrey St., Philadelphia. "It is now time I should let you know that I am cured of bleeding piles. If you only knew how I have suffered from them for the last nine years, in pain. Last April I went to the drug store and bought a 50 cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure, and I found at last a good cure. I had spend dollars trying to get cured of my piles; all others have failed to cure me, but now I am happy to have a good sleep and be able to work also."

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists generally. If yours doesn't keep it, he will get it for you if you ask him. Book on cause and cure of piles sent free. Address Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

AN OLD CASE SETTLED.

Secretary of War Root, before he sailed for England on the Celtic to take his place on the Alaskan boundary commission, said:

"It is the purpose of the commission to put a finish to the years of squabbling over the boundary, but with a lot of international law and lawyers to deal with it is hard to say how far short of this purpose we will fall."

Then Secreary Root told a story illustrative of the law's delays.

"There was a lawyer," he sail, "and he had a son. This son was bred to the law, and, on the day of his admission to the bar, his father transferred to him a very important, very complicated, very old case.

"The case had been running a matter of 17 years. The son attacked it diligently, unwound its many tangles, and in six months had it settled. With this news he visited his father joyously.

"'Hurrah,' he said, 'I have settled that case you gave me.'

"'Settled it?' the father exclaimed, reddening with vexation, 'Why, I gave you that case as an annuity. I intended it as a tight little income to last you all your life.'"

Is Cancer Hereditary?

Dr. Bye, the Eminent Specialist on the treatment of cancer, Kansas City, Mo., states that in his long years of extensive practice in the treatment of carcinoma has proven beyond a doubt that the disease is hereditary, having successfully treated as many as four or more members of one family suffering from the disease. The Doctor has printed a valuable book, profusely illustrated, which is sent free. Parties afflicted or having friends afflicted should write him. Address DR. W. O. BYE, Kansas City, Mo. 8

Sneeze and Blow.

That is what you must do when you have catarrh in the head. The way to cure this disease is to purify the blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces, rebuilds the delicate tissues and permanently cures catarrh by expelling from the blood the scrofulous taints upon which it depends. Be sure to get Hood's.

The non-irritating cathartic—Hood's Pills.

PRESSES FOR EXPORT.

The Western Newspaper Union makes Shipment of Printing Outfit to far off Tahiti.

The Western Newspaper Union of this city last week completed the sale and shipment of a printing outfit to the Society Islands Missionary association of the Latter-day Saints Church. The shipment included one of the justly celebrated Challenge Gridon presses and an advance paper cutter made by the same manufacturers. The consignment was made to Elder Ed. S. Hall who is situated at Papeete, Tahiti, the largest and most important of the Society Island group. The outfit is to be used in printing tracts to assist in disseminating the religion of the Latter-day Saints to the many natives of these islands.

The Western Newspaper Union is one of the largest and most substantial jobbing houses in the inter-mountain country and the growth of their business since their establishment in Salt Lake has been phenomenal. Last year their handsome new building on West Temple street was completed and at the time it was thought large enough to answer their purpose for a number of years to come but their manager advises us that they are already cramped for room. They are at present considering the advisability of putting in a [illegible] and fancy papers in the spring at which time they will probaby install their own power and light plant.

THROUGH GREAT CITIE,

Fiery Beauty of Pittsburg at Night From The Car Window.

Of the large cities on the Pennsylvania Lines Pittsburgh presents a car window night view of fiery beauty whose like can be seen nowhere else in the world. This most impressive sight of industrial America excites the admiration of the traveling world. It is distinctively the attribute of the Iron City, just as each of the others in the great chain to the seaboard has attractions peculiarly its own—Cincinnati, the Queen City on two terraces; Columbus, the historic capital of the Buckeye State; Indianapolis, attractively laid out and the site of substantial business enterprises; Harrisburg, seat of Pennsylvania's State government; Washington, the National Capital; Baltimore, the home of the oyster; and Philadelphia, whose ships sail every sea, and whose locomotives move the commerce of two worlds. A fourth capital city viewed from the car window is Trenton, N. J., along the quadrupie tracks to New York, famed as the standard railroad of America.

Burlington Route

A Cosy Car

The last car of the Chicago Special is a buffet-library-observation car, has a lounging-room twenty feet long, brilliantly lighted, and furnished with easy chairs, a writing desk, magazines, periodicals, etc., and a well-stocked buffet. In the rear is a broad platform protected by brass rails, where you can sit and watch the scenery while the Special hums over the rails at sixty miles an hour.

And there is something to see in the mountains of Colorado and the fertile plains of Nebraska, Iowa and Illinois.

The Chicago Special leaves Denver at 4:15 p. m. every day, and all lines into Denver
