DARING ROBBERY AND ATTEMPT TO MURDER.—Mr. Parvey Bull, aged about 20 years, son of Lieut. Burroughs, U.S.N., commanding Chelsea Navy Yard, was attacked Friday night, he was alone, by three men, who knocked him down, robbed him of all the money he had—a small amount—and then threw him over the bridge into the water! Fortunately his outcries were heard by two men who were out in a boat, and who saw the robbers running, two of them towards Charlestown, and the other towards Chelsea—the latter paying tolls at the toll-house for his toll, and not stopping for his change. Mr. Burroughs was taken to the Marine Hospital, and is now doing well. The back of his head shows wounds apparently inflicted by slung-shot, and he was, beside, nearly choked to death.—[Boston Transcript, 20th.
