AN ACT,

TO RAISE ORGANIZE AND EQUIP, A PROVISIONAL FORCE, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, That it shall be the duty of the Governor of the State to raise, organize and equip, a provisional force of volunteers for the defence of the State, to consist of fifty-five thousand volunteers, or any one thousand of whom shall be kept in the field at the earliest practicable moment, and the remainder of which shall be held in reserve, ready to march at short notice. And should it become necessary for the safety of the State, the Governor may call out the whole available military strength of the State.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That in the performance of this duty, the Governor shall take charge of the military, control the militia, and direct the military defence of the State, organize the military arm, take possession of arms, ordnance, ordnance stores, military material for the construction of arms, military archives, organize one or more arsenals for the construction of arms, and do all other things necessary for the speedy and efficient organization of a force adequate for the public safety. And he shall organize a Home and Financial Board, to consist of two persons, subject to his control, of which he will be ex-officio President, and who shall discharge such duties as he may assign them, affecting the objects and purposes of this act.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That the forces called for by this act, shall be organized into regiments, brigades and divisions, and the whole to be commanded by the senior Major General, with such number of Brigadier Generals as the proper and efficient command of said force may require.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That the staff of said force shall consist of one Adjutant General, one Inspector General, one Paymaster General, one Commissary General, one Quartermaster General, and one Surgeon General, with such number of assistants of each as the wants of the service may require, of whom shall be appointed by the Governor, subject to the confirmation of the General Assembly in joint session; Provided, that the Governor may fill vacancies in said offices occurring when the Legislature may be not in session, and the appointees shall at once enter upon the discharge of their duties, subject to the confirmation of the Legislature when thereafter in session. There shall likewise be appointed by the Governor, subject to like confirmation, one ordnance officer, with the rank of Colonel of Infantry, who shall take charge of the Ordnance Bureau of the State, direct the construction of arms, under the Governor and Military and Financial Board, receive or reject the same, and the fulfillment of contracts, and have general supervision of the armory of the State, with such assistants as the service may require, not exceeding three, who shall have the rank and pay of Captain of Infantry. The members of the Military and Financial Board to be nominated by the Governor and confirmed by the General Assembly.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That there be organized by the Governor, a Medical Board, consisting of the Surgeon General, ex-officio, if the service demand it, to be composed of Surgeons not to exceed two, a majority of which Board shall be nominated by the Governor and confirmed by the General Assembly.

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, That there be organized by the Governor, a Medical Board, consisting of the Surgeon General, ex-officio, if the service demand it, to be composed of Surgeons not to exceed two, a majority of which Board shall be nominated by the Governor and confirmed by the General Assembly.

Sec. 7. Be it further enacted, That the pay of the officers of the corps of Engineers shall be as follows: Of the Colonel, two hundred and six dollars; of a Major, one hundred and sixty-two dollars; of a Captain, one hundred and eighty-five dollars; of a First Lieutenant, one hundred and fifty dollars; of a Second Lieutenant, one hundred and eighty-five dollars; of a Major, one hundred and sixty-two dollars; of a Captain, one hundred and thirty-five dollars; of a First Lieutenant, ninety dollars; of a Second Lieutenant, eighty-five dollars; the Adjutant, two dollars per month in addition to his pay as Lieutenant. The monthly pay of the officers of Cavalry shall be as follows: Of a Colonel, two hundred dollars; of a Lieutenant Colonel, one hundred and seventy-five dollars; of a Major, one hundred and fifty-two dollars; of a Captain, one hundred and thirty dollars; of a First Lieutenant, ninety dollars; of a Second Lieutenant, eighty dollars; the Adjutant, two dollars per month in addition to his pay as Lieutenant. The pay of the officers of the general staff, except those of the medical department, shall be the same as officers of the second grade.

The Surgeon General shall receive an annual salary of twenty-five hundred dollars, which shall be in full of all pay and allowances. The pay per month of the Major General's staff shall be the same as officers of the same rank in the infantry service. The monthly pay of Surgeon and Assistant Surgeon shall be the same as that of Major of Cavalry, and the pay of Assistant Surgeon shall be the same as the pay of First Lieutenant of Cavalry; and the rank of Surgeon shall be that of Major of Cavalry, and that of Assistant Surgeon the same as of the First Lieutenant of Cavalry.

Sec. 8. Be it further enacted, That all vacancies in established Regiments and Corps, to and including the rank of Colonel, shall be filled by promotion according to seniority, except in case of disability of other incumbent.

Sec. 12. Be it further enacted, That the pay of Major Generals shall be three hundred dollars per month; of Brigadier General two hundred and fifty dollars per month. The Aide-de-Camp of a Major General, in addition to his pay as Lieutenant, shall receive forty dollars per month, and the Aid-de-Camp of a Brigadier General shall receive, in addition to his pay as Lieutenant, the sum of twenty-five dollars per month. The monthly pay of the officers of the corps of Engineers shall be as follows: Of the Colonel, two hundred and six dollars; of a Major, one hundred and sixty-two dollars; of a Captain, one hundred and eighty-five dollars; of a First Lieutenant, one hundred and fifty dollars; of a Second Lieutenant, one hundred and eighty-five dollars; of a Major, one hundred and sixty-two dollars; of a Captain, one hundred and thirty-five dollars; of a First Lieutenant, ninety dollars; of a Second Lieutenant, eighty-five dollars; the Adjutant, two dollars per month in addition to his pay as Lieutenant. The monthly pay of the officers of Cavalry shall be as follows: Of a Colonel, two hundred dollars; of a Lieutenant Colonel, one hundred and seventy-five dollars; of a Major, one hundred and fifty-two dollars; of a Captain, one hundred and thirty dollars; of a First Lieutenant, ninety dollars; of a Second Lieutenant, eighty dollars; the Adjutant, two dollars per month in addition to his pay as Lieutenant. The pay of the officers of the general staff, except those of the medical department, shall be the same as officers of the second grade.

The Surgeon General shall receive an annual salary of twenty-five hundred dollars, which shall be in full of all pay and allowances. The pay per month of the Major General's staff shall be the same as officers of the same rank in the infantry service. The monthly pay of Surgeon and Assistant Surgeon shall be the same as that of Major of Cavalry, and the pay of Assistant Surgeon shall be the same as the pay of First Lieutenant of Cavalry; and the rank of Surgeon shall be that of Major of Cavalry, and that of Assistant Surgeon the same as of the First Lieutenant of Cavalry.

Sec. 13. Be it further enacted, That all vacancies in established Regiments and Corps, to and including the rank of Colonel, shall be filled by promotion according to seniority, except in case of disability of other incumbent.

Sec. 22. Be it further enacted, That the pay of Major Generals shall be three hundred dollars per month; of Brigadier General two hundred and fifty dollars per month. The Aide-de-Camp of a Major General, in addition to his pay as Lieutenant, shall receive forty dollars per month, and the Aid-de-Camp of a Brigadier General shall receive, in addition to his pay as Lieutenant, the sum of twenty-five dollars per month. The monthly pay of the officers of the corps of Engineers shall be as follows: Of the Colonel, two hundred and six dollars; of a Major, one hundred and sixty-two dollars; of a Captain, one hundred and eighty-five dollars; of a First Lieutenant, one hundred and fifty dollars; of a Second Lieutenant, one hundred and eighty-five dollars; of a Major, one hundred and sixty-two dollars; of a Captain, one hundred and thirty-five dollars; of a First Lieutenant, ninety dollars; of a Second Lieutenant, eighty-five dollars; the Adjutant, two dollars per month in addition to his pay as Lieutenant. The monthly pay of the officers of Cavalry shall be as follows: Of a Colonel, two hundred dollars; of a Lieutenant Colonel, one hundred and seventy-five dollars; of a Major, one hundred and fifty-two dollars; of a Captain, one hundred and thirty dollars; of a First Lieutenant, ninety dollars; of a Second Lieutenant, eighty dollars; the Adjutant, two dollars per month in addition to his pay as Lieutenant. The pay of the officers of the general staff, except those of the medical department, shall be the same as officers of the second grade.

The Surgeon General shall receive an annual salary of twenty-five hundred dollars, which shall be in full of all pay and allowances. The pay per month of the Major General's staff shall be the same as officers of the same rank in the infantry service. The monthly pay of Surgeon and Assistant Surgeon shall be the same as that of Major of Cavalry, and the pay of Assistant Surgeon shall be the same as the pay of First Lieutenant of Cavalry; and the rank of Surgeon shall be that of Major of Cavalry, and that of Assistant Surgeon the same as of the First Lieutenant of Cavalry.

Sec. 23. Be it further enacted, That all vacancies in established Regiments and Corps, to and including the rank of Colonel, shall be filled by promotion according to seniority, except in case of disability of other incumbent.

Sec. 32. Be it further enacted, That the pay of Major Generals shall be three hundred dollars per month; of Brigadier General two hundred and fifty dollars per month. The Aide-de-Camp of a Major General, in addition to his pay as Lieutenant, shall receive forty dollars per month, and the Aid-de-Camp of a Brigadier General shall receive, in addition to his pay as Lieutenant, the sum of twenty-five dollars per month. The monthly pay of the officers of the corps of Engineers shall be as follows: Of the Colonel, two hundred and six dollars; of a Major, one hundred and sixty-two dollars; of a Captain, one hundred and eighty-five dollars; of a First Lieutenant, one hundred and fifty dollars; of a Second Lieutenant, one hundred and eighty-five dollars; of a Major, one hundred and sixty-two dollars; of a Captain, one hundred and thirty-five dollars; of a First Lieutenant, ninety dollars; of a Second Lieutenant, eighty-five dollars; the Adjutant, two dollars per month in addition to his pay as Lieutenant. The monthly pay of the officers of Cavalry shall be as follows: Of a Colonel, two hundred dollars; of a Lieutenant Colonel, one hundred and seventy-five dollars; of a Major, one hundred and fifty-two dollars; of a Captain, one hundred and thirty dollars; of a First Lieutenant, ninety dollars; of a Second Lieutenant, eighty dollars; the Adjutant, two dollars per month in addition to his pay as Lieutenant. The pay of the officers of the general staff, except those of the medical department, shall be the same as officers of the second grade.

The Surgeon General shall receive an annual salary of twenty-five hundred dollars, which shall be in full of all pay and allowances. The pay per month of the Major General's staff shall be the same as officers of the same rank in the infantry service. The monthly pay of Surgeon and Assistant Surgeon shall be the same as that of Major of Cavalry, and the pay of Assistant Surgeon shall be the same as the pay of First Lieutenant of Cavalry; and the rank of Surgeon shall be that of Major of Cavalry, and that of Assistant Surgeon the same as of the First Lieutenant of Cavalry.

Sec. 33. Be it further enacted, That all vacancies in established Regiments and Corps, to and including the rank of Colonel, shall be filled by promotion according to seniority, except in case of disability of other incumbent.

Sec. 34. Be it further enacted, That the municipal authorities of all incorporated towns in this State be authorized to borrow money by issuing the bonds of such corporation, or otherwise, for the military defence of such town; and in all cases where corporate authorities of said towns have already issued their bonds for the purpose aforesaid, the same is hereby declared legal and valid.

Sec. 35. Be it further enacted, That this act take effect from and after its passage.

"The Union, the Constitution, and the Enforcement of the Laws."

ALLEGIANCE.

HENRY CLAY'S IDEA OF IT.

"IF KENTUCKY TO-MORROW UNFURLS THE BANNER OF RESISTANCE, I NEVER WILL FIGHT UNDER THAT BANNER. I OWE A PARAMOUNT ALLEGIANCE TO THE WHOLE UNION—A SUBORDINATE ONE TO MY OWN STATE."—[In the Senate, 1850.

GENERAL JACKSON ON SECESSION.

Gen. JACKSON, in his nullification message of January 16, 1833, says:

"The right of the people of a single State, to absolve themselves at will, and without the consent of the other States, from their most solemn obligations, and hazard the liberties and happiness of the millions composing this Union, cannot be acknowledged.—To say that any State may at pleasure secede from the Union, is to say that the United States is not a nation."

Books! Books!! Books!!!

I have on hand a book of 305 pages, well bound, being a discussion of the Slavery question between myself and Pryne, as also Ditionist, which I will send out by mail, post paid, to any one enclosing us ONE DOLLAR.

I have my reply to Graves' Iron Wheel, with an Appendix, in all, 408 pages, bound in cheap paper covers, which I will send post paid for 50 cents, or two copies for ONE DOLLAR.

I also have my "Americanism Contrasted with Bogus Democracy," containing six Engravings, which I will send out post paid for 50 cents, or two copies for ONE DOLLAR.

Nov. 19 1860. W. G. BROWNLOW.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Legislature.

☞ We are authorized and requested to announce Dr JOHN W. WEITER, of Knox County, as a Candidate to represent the Senatorial District composed of Knox and Roane in the next Legislature of Tennessee.

☞ We are authorized and requested to announce JOHN T. RIVIE as a candidate to represent the Floyding District of Knox and Sevier, in the next General Assembly of Tennessee.

☞ We are authorized to announce GEN. JAMES HICKEY, of Knox, as a candidate for the State Senate, on the Union ticket, and we may add for still against the Tax gatherings in this county.

Notice to Physicians and the Public.—ALLOCK'S PORUS PLASTERS.—TESTIMONIALS.—T ALLCOCK & CO. No. 26 Cliff st., New York, 20th Nov., 1860.—Gentlemen: I lately suffered severely from a weakness in my back, occasioned by cold my over exerting myself. Having heard your Plasters much recommended for cases of this kind, I procured one, and the result was all that I could desire. A single plaster cured me in a week. Yours respectfully,

J. G. BRIGGS,
Proprietor of the Brandreth House, N. Y.

There is nothing equal in the way of a Plaster, to the Porous Plaster of Mr. Allcock. Everything is pleasant about them. They are the Plaster of the day, and a Blessing of our present advancement in science and art. In Asthma, Cough, Kidney Affections, and local deep seated pains, they afford permanent relief, and for weak backs, pains in the side, stitches, and spasmodic pains generally, they are unsurpassed for the benefits they impart. Physicians should examine this article, which is universally approved where known.

Price 25 cents per Box. Sold by DR. JOHN JACKSON, Knoxville, Tenn., and by all respectable dealers in medicine. [may19 lm

To Consumptives.—The Advertiser having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription (free of charge) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure Cure for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he considers to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription will please address

REV. EDWARD A. WILSON,
Williamsburgh, Kings county, New York.

HIGHLAND BITTERS OR SCOTCH TONIC. Dyspepsia, the great scourge of this continent, yields quickly in a course of this great antidotes, and the disease-worn sufferer may now rejoice in the prospect of a speedy cure. Nature's own remedy, in combination with the celebrated Pure Highland Whisky, is now offered to the public, with the confidence that it will prove a sovereign remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Debility and Weakness, from whatever cause, in consequence of quite, and all sickness of a diseased liver, and other disorganization of the system, vanish under the vivifying influence of this all-powerful antidyspepsia and debilitator remedy.

Sold by the sole Proprietors, S. MANSFIELD & CO. Wholesale Druggists, Memphis Tenn., and sold also by JOHN JACKSON, Knoxville. [may19 2m

McLean's Strengthening Cordial is receiving the unanimous recommendation of the Press, not only at home, but all over the country. This remedy is certainly the result of close observation and study. Wherever it has been used it has been recommended with the highest commendations of praise. Prove our word, have no consumption. Test its efficacy, without giving it a trial. Once more we warmly recommend this remedy as a superior Tonic and Alterative. [may 19 2m.

HAIR DYE! HAIR DYE! HAIR DYE!

WM. A. BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE,

The only Harmless and Reliable Dye Known! All others are a sure imposition, and should be avoided if you wish to escape ridicule.

Gray, Red or Rusty Hair is changed instantly to a beautiful and natural Brown or Black, without the least injury to Hair or Skin.

Fifteen Medals and Diplomas have been awarded to Wm. A. Batchelor since 1850, and over 200,000 applications have been made to the hair of the patrons of his famous Dye.

Wm. A. Batchelor's Hair Dye produces similar not to be distinguished from nature, and is warranted not to injure the hair however long it may be continued, and the effect lasts from three to five months, according to the quality of the hair.

Wm. A. Batchelor's Hair Dye is instantaneous, and is warranted not to injure the hair, but leave it soft and pliable, and free from all ill effects, which is the result of other Dyes.

Wm. A. Batchelor's Hair Dye is warranted not to stain the skin, but will leave it as natural as nature itself.

Wm. A. Batchelor's Hair Dye