KNOXVILLE WHIG.

CLUB RATES OF THE PAPER.

Rare Inducements to Subscribers and Agents.

The undersigned, sole Editor and Publisher of the KNOXVILLE WHIG, takes pleasure in saying that he has not suspended publication, as announced in various Southern papers! The Tri-Weekly has been suspended, but the Weekly has not and will not stop its visits to subscribers. We have a list of 7,500 subscribers, greater than the other six East Tennessee papers all put together. This list we desire to DOUBLE, and in order to induce the friends of an independent paper to sustain it, we have adopted the following

Club Rates of the Weekly:

One copy one year, (in advance)	.....	$ 2 00
Three copies, one year	"	5 00
Five copies one year,	"	8 00
Seven copies one year,	"	11 00
Ten copies one year,	"	15 00
Twenty copies one year,	"	28 00

And as PRESIDENT DAVIS remarked to several gentlemen recently, in a conversation relative to this paper, that he would not live under a Government that did not tolerate FREEDOM OF THE PRESS, he will feel bound to see that it is transmitted by his mails, its subscribers paying postage like other men.

REV. EDWARD A. WILSON,

IT IS A COMMON OBSERVATION that there are more sufferers from debility, among Americans, than can be found among any other civilized nation. The reason is obvious. We take too little exercise, and forget the wants of the body in the absorbing pursuits of business. In all such cases, ordinary medicines can do little good. What is required is just such a tonic and invigorator as Dr. J. Hostetter has given to the world, in his Celebrated Bitters. The weak and nervous denizen of the counting house, the exhausted toiler upon the shopboard, and the prostrated student of the midnight lamp, have found a wonderful regenerator in the Bitters, and prefer it to mere pretentious, but less efficacious medicines. But it should not be forgotten that the agent which is magical in its influence upon a frame which is merely debilitated, is equally powerful in assisting nature to expel the most terrible forms of disease. Who would not give it a trial?

Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere.

HIGHLAND BITTERS OR SCOTCH BITTERS.—Bereavement, of the kind, the source of infinity and suffering, and the cause of innumerable deaths yields to this curative in all cases, however aggravated, acting as a mild alterative, and tonic; it relieves the bowels, purifies the fluids, and invigorates the system and the constitution at the same time. When all stimulants fail, the renovating and bracing properties of this cordial give firmness to the shaking nerves and enfeebled muscles of the victim of general debility.

Sold by the Sole Proprietors, B. MANSFIELD & CO., Wholesale Druggists, Memphis, Tenn., and by all respectable druggists and merchants. Sold also by Dr. JOHN JACKSON, Knoxville, Tenn. [aug17-2t

EAST TENNESSEE

FEMALE INSTITUTE,

KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE.

THE FALL SESSION OF THE Institute will begin on Thursday the 5th day of September, 1861, under the following Board of Instruction:

R. L. KIRKPATRICK, A. M., Principal

MRS. M. A. RICHARDSON, Academic Department,

MISS KATE WHITE, Primary Department.

MISS E. STERCHI, Ornamental Department and Modern Languages.

MRS. V. A. WICKS, Department of Instrumental and Vocal Music.

In again presenting the claims of the Institute to the kind regard and patronage of our citizens and the public, the Principal feels justified in announcing that he has secured as his assistants in the several Departments, a corps of Teachers unsurpassed any where for thoroughness and efficiency in the work of instruction and discipline. They have all been tested and approved by ample experience.

Miss Kate White will have charge of the Primary Department.—and will make it a School of very superior interest and advantages for small girls. In addition to the elementary branches usually taught in such department, Miss White will give regular instruction in plain sewing to those pupils whose parents may desire it. No additional charges will be made for such instruction. Miss Sterchi will also give to the pupils of this department without charge, short oral lessons in French twice a week, thus teaching them the names and pronunciation of familiar objects, &c. We are thus authorized to promise our young friends of the primary department a very pleasant and profitable time of it.

The Academic Department will continue to be under the care of Mrs. Richardson whose efforts have given a high and justly deserved degree of satisfaction since her connection with the Institute. The Academic studies include reading, writing, English Grammar, written Arithmetic, advanced Geography, History, Webster's Dictionary, &c.

The Principal having under his general superintendence all the departments of the Institute, will give his special attention to the Collegiate Classes. These are four in number embracing the study of Languages, Mathematics, the Natural Sciences and Intellectual and Moral Philosophy.

Miss E. Sterchi will continue in charge of the department of Modern Languages and the ornamental branches comprising French, German, Drawing and Painting of the various styles, and the different varieties of embroidery and other ornamental work.

The Department of Music, instrumental and vocal, will be under the care of Mrs V. A. Wicks, formerly of Athens, Tenn. Mrs. Wicks is an experienced and successful teacher. Her course of instruction will include lessons on the Piano and Guitar and in Vocal Music.

DISCIPLINE.

The system of discipline required throughout the several departments of the Institute, will be uniformly mild and gentle, but of the most thorough and salutary kind. The pupils will at all times be under the kind and watchful supervision of the teachers, one or more of whom will always be at the Institute from the opening to the closing hours of school. The several recitation rooms will at all times, during school hours, be open to visitation from our patrons, who are hereby earnestly solicited to visit the class recitations frequently; as we think this will give them a much juster idea of the proficiency of their daughters than can be given by the more formal examination at the close of the Session.

TUITION IN ADVANCE.

The charge for tuition will continue as heretofore:
