Lord Elgin's Speech at the Opening of Parliament.

The Toronto Colonist Extra contains the speech of Lord ELGIN at the opening of the Provincial Parliament. We copy the portion of interest entire:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council: Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:

I deeply regret to be obliged to announce to you the death of the Queen Dowager, a Princess whose many virtues endeared her to all classes of her Majesty's subjects.

The occurrences of the past year, and the necessity which had arisen for providing suitable accommodation for the Legislature while in session, having imposed on me the duty of considering during the recess the important subject emboraced in the Address of the House of Assembly of last session, relating to the place for holding the future meetings of the Legislature, I have deemed it, after a full deliberation, advisable to give effect to the prayer of the Address by summoning you to meet at this place.

The important changes recently made in the Imperial Navigation Laws, and the improvements effected in the Provincial Canals, will, I trust, tend to promote material and commercial interests of the Province, and to add to the route of the St. Lawrence a considerable portion of the Emigration of Europe to this Continent.

It affords me much satisfaction to be enabled to inform you, that recent advices from England indicate a marked improvement in the value of Canadian securities in the British market. Your deliberations will, I feel assured, have a tendency to encourage the reviving confidence.

I am very sensible of the great importance to these Colonies of placing the trade between the British North American Provinces on the most unrestricted footing. There have been in communication during the recess, upon this subject, with the Lieutenant Governors of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, and with the Governor of Newfoundland. I recommend to your consideration the expediency of giving such powers to his government, as may enable it to meet the advances of the Sister Colonies in a Liberal spirit.

The Act passed last Session for the establishment of reciprocal free trade between Canada and the United States in certain articles the natural products of each, has not yet come into operation. I am informed that a corresponding measure is now under the consideration of the Congress of the United States.

By an Act passed during the last Session of the Imperial Parliament the entire control of the Internal Posts in British North America is vested in the Provincial Authorities. Whatever further action on the part of the Canadian Legislature may be necessary in order to secure for the inhabitants of these Provinces the benefit of a cheap and uniform postage rate, you will, I feel confident, be prepared to adopt.

The expediency of effecting an increase in the Parliamentary Representation of the Province will probably again engage your attention.

A measure will be submitted to your consideration founded on the Report of the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the conduct, discipline, and management of the Provincial Penitentiary. The increasing wealth and population of the Province, and the growing aversion to Capital Punishment, render it highly important that the system of discipline established in the Provincial Penitentiary and Gaols should be made as far as possible effectual for the prevention of crime and the reformation of offenders.

I shall lay before you communications from Her Majesty's Commissioners for the promotion of the Exhibition of the Works of Industry of all Nations, to be held in London in 1851, which have been transmitted to me by the Provincial Secretary of State for the Colonies. I venture to express the hope that Canadian Industry and Produce will be fittingly represented on that interesting occasion.

In pursuance of the Act of last Session, the practice and proceedings in the Court of Chancery in Upper Canada have been placed upon an improved footing calculated to facilitate the business of the Court and lessen the expense to suitors. I shall direct copies of the rules which have been promulgated for this purpose to be laid before you.

I would recommend as of analogous and perhaps even equal importance the consideration of the jurisdiction and practice of the Inferior Courts in that part of the Province with a view to the extension of their sphere of usefulness, and the lessening as much as possible the expense of litigation.

The regulation of municipalities, and the construction of goals and court houses in Lower Canada, and the laws for the selection and return of Jurors, and those for the assessment of property for local purposes in Upper Canada, are among the subjects which will doubtless engage your attention.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly: I shall direct the public accounts with the estimates for the year to be laid before you.

I recommend to your attention an inquiry into the revenue and expenditure of the Province.

I rely on your readiness to grant the supplies which are necessary for the public service, and for the maintenance of the provincial credit.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen: I have deemed it to be my duty, in the exercise of the perogative with which I am intrusted, to mark Her Majesty's disapprobation of the course taken by persons holding commissions at the pleasure of the Crown, who have formally avowed the desire to bring about the separation of this Province from the empire of which it is a part.

The views put forward by these persons and by those who act with them do not, I have reason to believe, find favor with any considerable portion of Her Majesty's Canadian subjects.

The great majority of the people of the province have given, at this conjuncture, proofs not to be mistaken of loyalty to the Queen and attachment to the connection with Great Britain.

They look to their own Parliament for the redress of grievances which may be proved to exist, and for the adoption of such measures of improvement as may be calculated to promote their happiness and prosperity.

I feel assured that the confidence placed by them in the wisdom of Parliament will be justified by your acts; and that while you deal unsparingly with abuses, you will not barter away for novelties, rights dear to British subjects, nor abandon those principles of good faith, morality and constitutional freedom, the strict adherence to which has enabled Great Britain, with God's blessing, to pass unscathed through many perils.

LEGAL NOTICES.

AT A SPECIAL TERM OF THE SUPREME COURT held for the State of New-York, at the City of Albany, on the thirteenth day of April, 1850—Present, Hon. Ira Harris, one of the Justices of the said Court, Levi S. Chatfield, Attorney General of the State of New-York, against the President, Directors and Company of the Canal Bank of Albany.

On reading and filing a petition of Andrew White, the Receiver appointed in this action, of the estate and property of the defendants, the said Canal Bank of Albany, duly verified by him, setting forth various matters in regard to his said Receivership, and the estate and property in his hands as such Receiver, and praying, in substance among other things, for an order requiring the holders of the bills or circulating notes in the said Canal Bank, and the holders of any certificates given by the said Receiver on payment the first dividend of sixty per cent. on the said bills or notes, under the order of this Court, as mentioned in the said petition for the payment upon and bills or notes, to present the said notes and certificates for said payment to the said Receiver or assignee, at such place as this Court may see fit, within such time and at such place as this Court may direct, or be precluded from the benefit of said Bank, or assignee, of said notes or certificates, or for such further or other order in this respect, and with regard to the fund to be retained by the said Receiver or deposited in Court, or in some Bank, or in the New-York Life Insurance and Trust Company for that purpose, as the Court may deem proper to make; and also praying this Court that it also be of the opinion that a general meeting of the creditors of the said Bank is necessary or advisable, to direct the said Receiver to call the same on such notice and at such time and place as may be thought proper by the Court; and also praying that the accounts of the said Receiver may be examined and passed upon by some suitable person or persons to be appointed by this Court for that purpose, with such powers under such regulations, on such notice and in such manner as this Court may deem proper, and that the person or persons who may be appointed for that purpose, do also ascertain and determine the amount due to the creditors of the said Bank, not being stockholders thereof, on such notice and in such manner as this Court shall see fit to direct; and also praying that the said Receiver may be authorized to use it pool or share of the said Canal Bank remaining in his hands as Receiver, as the Court shall be of the opinion can be properly and profitably said, and to do all acts and execute all assignments, releases and conveyances necessary to carry into effect such order or orders, and that this Court will make such further or other order, and give such directions as to equity or the premises and to the said Bankruptcy generally, and the said creditors and others in the kinds of the said Receiver as shall to the Court convenient and proper for the benefit of all the parties in interest, and such as may be in the judgment of the Court best expedite the winding up of the said trust, and the division and disposition of the trust fund and estate among the parties entitled thereto.

It is now ordered, on hearing John V. L. Pruyn, of counsel for the said petitioner, that the creditors of the said Canal Bank, and all others interested in the premises, show cause, if any they have, before this Court, at the Special Term thereof appointed to be held at the City Hall in the City of Albany on the last Tuesday of May next, at the opening of the Court on that day, why the prayer of the said petition should not be granted, and such order made in regard to the several matters therein mentioned, as to this Court may seem proper.—And it is further ordered, that the said Receiver do within eight days from the date hereof, cause a copy of this order to be published in the Albany Argus, the paper in which legal notices are required by law to be published, and in one other newspaper published in the said City of Albany, and in a newspaper published in the City of New-York at least three in each week until the day above mentioned for showing cause; and that he do also within eight days from the date hereof, cause a copy of the said petition and of this order, to be served either personally or by mail, (in the manner in which legal notices are directed by law to be served by mail) on the several persons and corporations (or on the proper officers of any such corporation) who claim to be creditors of the said Canal Bank, as far as the said Receiver may be informed thereof, and of their respective places of residence, and whose several demands each exceed five hundred dollars in amount.
